Sergeant York and His People. A graphic, intensely interesting, and truthful account of the deeds of this American hero whom General John J. Pershing called the greatest civilian soldier of the war and whose feat Marshal Foch characterized as the World War's most remarkable individual achievement. Truthful in every statement, it will be found more fascinating, more interesting than a novel. To those who believe all Tennessee mountaineers to be "feudists," this book will provide many surprizes. To all who wish to know more of this great American hero, his home life, his friends, his surroundings, his lineage, his character—in fact, all the intimate details of his life and personality, "Sergeant York and His People" will bring hours of absorbing interest. It also reveals with mirror-like accuracy the condition and mode of life of the sturdy, pious, whole-hearted people of pure Anglo-Saxon stock who inhabit the mountain regions in Tennessee. The author's style is particularly pleasing, being direct, forceful, and easy to read. 12mo, Cloth, illustrated with 16 full-page half-tone illustrations. Jacket in colors. 292 pages. $2.00.

"We'll say there's a good honest American story in this book about Sergeant York, and if it doesn't hold a thrill and a smile and a tightening of the throat for you, then you are not the reader for whom we are editing this book page, that's all."—Daily News, Chicago, Ill.

"The story of Sergeant York gathers all the halo, official and romantic, into as thrilling a recital as anything in English literature."—Journal of Education, by Dr. A. E. Winship.

CRICHTON-BROWNE, SIR JAMES, M.D., LL.D., F.R.S.

Delusions in Diet; or, Parsimony in Nutrition. Frugality in nutrition, to the author's mind, is utterly opposed to the experience of the human race. 12mo, Cloth, 118 pp. 75 cents.

CROCKETT, ALBERT STEVENS

When James Gordon Bennett was Caliph of Bagdad. The author presents a man unique in the history of journalism who for years was a world figure. Long association with him made possible the intimate revelations of the life of James Gordon Bennett which form the backbone of the work. Interspersed throughout the volume, but always a pertinent part of the narrative, are bits of international gossip, of personal appraisals of famous characters, of sidelights on events of international importance. 12mo, Cloth, 440 pp. Illustrated with full-page half-tone reproductions of photographs of people and events of the period. $2.00.

CROLY, GEORGE

Tarry Thou Till I Come. A historical novel, dealing with the momentous events that occurred, chiefly in Palestine, from the time of the Crucifixion to the destruction of Jerusalem. Introduction by General Lew Wallace. Illustrated by T. de Thulstrup, with frontispiece in colors, sixteen full-page half-tone drawings, and three bastard title-page designs. Cover design by George Wharton Edwards. 12mo, Cloth, 622 pp. $2.00. Presentation Edition, 2 volumes (in a box), sixteen photogravures, $4.00.

CROY, MAE SAVELL (Mrs. Homer Croy)

How Women Can Make Money. A genuinely practical volume of sound advice and real help which outlines specific things which women may do to provide a source of income. In addition, a word of warning is sounded regarding things not to do which in the long run may prove quite as valuable as any chapter in the volume. For the woman who lives in a large city, or who lives in the country or in a small town; for the woman who suddenly has to support herself; for those who wish to secure an income for complete support or for extra money—in fact for every woman, young or old, however situated, there is encouragement and direct guidance in this splendid volume. 12mo. Cloth. $2.00.

CYCLOPEDIA OF ILLUSTRATIONS FOR PUBLIC SPEAKERS. (See page 32.)

DALTON, FRANK EUGEN

Swimming Scientifically Taught. (Seventh edition.) Completely revised and reset, with much new material. A practical manual of instruction for men, women and children—for beginners as well as experts. After telling how to get used to the water, the author describes the various strokes—crawl, trudgeon, trudgeon-crawl, breast, over-arm, etc. He instructs in treading water, floating, diving, plunging, sculling, long-distance swimming, racing, water-polo, what to do in emergencies, methods of rescue, artificial respiration, etc. The eighty-seven illustrations are mostly specially-posed photographs of water positions. 12mo, Cloth, 247 pp. $1.75.

DARBISHIRE, A. D.

†An Introduction to a Biology and Other Papers. A scientific work in non-technical terms. It embraces the deductions made by the author as a result of his experiments while at Oxford in crossing Japanese waltzing mice with European albino races. Mendel's famous hybridization experiments with peas in the garden of the monastery of which he was abbot are analyzed and discussed and compared with biometric theories of heredity and the pre-Mendelian systems of how animals would breed. The book will appeal to all who are curious about the meaning and origin of life. 8vo, Cloth, 320 pp. $2.50.

DIMNET, ERNEST, of the Faculty of the Collège Stanislas, Paris

French Grammar Made Clear. A grammar for schools and colleges, made up on a new plan which is designed to be of help to the pupil by giving him the rules that he must know and by leaving out all those that are unnecessary and confusing. Two of the outstanding features are the large number of phrases of the very latest coinage in both French and English, including military, aviation, naval, and war terms, political and economical expressions, etc.; and long lists of French and English conversational phrases embracing many of the most recent origin. Methods of address, types of French poetry, historical material, and other valuable information is also given. Great pains are taken to explain the differences between French and English usages, showing how impossible it is in many cases to translate directly from one language into the other, and how a paraphrase is often the only remedy. 12mo, Cloth, 253 pp. $1.50.

Latin Grammar Made Clear. (See under Petitmangin, Prof. H.)

DIX, DOROTHY

Dorothy Dix: Her Book. Messages of cheer, of wit and wisdom for all men and women—young, middle-aged and old—free from mushiness or sentimentality. A famous editor has described Dorothy Dix as "the most popular woman journalist in the world," because she "understands human nature, and with her sympathy and broad-minded tolerance she strikes a note that rings true in every heart." All she has to say out of her profound knowledge of life and human nature is pungent and sincere, and deals with all phases of our every-day life. 12mo, Cloth, 369 pp. $2.00.

"In the special niche in newspaperdom that Dorothy Dix has made for herself—that of adviser in general to the troubled, she has won high success. And so it has come about that she has been able to work out a practical philosophy of life that is shrewd, sympathetic, a bit cynical at times in its realism, honest and sincere and wholly lacking the ornaments of sentiment and romance in its brave facing of the disagreeable facts of life."—Times, New York.

"In her new book of 369 pages this fascinating writer has saturated her pages with thrilling interest for not only women readers but for a large group of men as well."—Globe, Boston, Mass.

DODGE, GRACE H.

A Bundle of Letters to Busy Girls. Helpful and practical talks to girls. 16mo, Cloth, 139 pp. 50 cents.

DORR, RHETA CHILDE

A Woman of Fifty. This unique autobiography of a most remarkable and courageous woman covers one of the most revolutionary periods of time in history—from virtually the beginning of a concerted movement to organize the women of this country in the fight for equality in politics and industry to the time when these hitherto unattainable causes were firmly established in our economic and governmental systems.

As journalist, lecturer, editor, and writer, the author has taken part in virtually every event that marks her generation; was the only woman war correspondent with the famed Russian Women's "Battalion of Death" on the last Kerensky offensive on the Eastern Front; spent three years in "after war" Europe, and is to-day in the thick of things in this country. Few men or women have met and overcome as many obstacles in life or fought harder for ideals as has the author of this volume —and fewer could relate their experiences in such a frank, forceful, and grippingly interesting style as this book reveals. There are no pages in which interest lags. 8vo, Cloth, 482 pp. $2.50.

DOUGALL, LILY

†The Summit House Mystery. A story of tragic intensity, pulsating with emotion. 12mo, Cloth, 345 pp. $1.50.

"This is a good book to recommend to the intelligent layman."—Courier of Medicine.

The Psychic Treatment of Nervous Disorders. Translated by Smith Ely Jelliffe, M.D., and William Allen White, M.D. After more than twenty years' success in relieving neurasthenia, insomnia, hysteria, and other nervous disorders, by psychic treatment, Dr. Paul Dubois, eminent Professor of Neuropathology at the University of Berne, Switzerland, has made public the character of his work and describes many of his patients' personal ailments and how he handled them. 8vo, Cloth, 484 pp. Copious index. $3.50. Half-Leather, $4.50.

"This book has no superior in conception, plainness of thought, and completeness of detail."—Medical World, Philadelphia.

"Those of our readers who are interested in the subject and desire to be familiar with the views and methods of one of the best authorities, should avail themselves of this book."—Journal of Osteopathy.

The Education of Self. Supersedes the earlier translation, issued under the title of "Self-Control and How to Secure It." A valuable addition to the flood of light which Dr. Dubois has already shed upon the subject of self-control, enumerating the causes which contribute to its loss, the resulting occurrence of nervous disorders, and the method by which these unfavorable factors may be eliminated. 12mo, Cloth, 350 pp. $1.75.

"Thoroughly wholesome and stimulating, teaching important lessons of conduct."—Living Age, Boston.

"Provides a philosophical and directly helpful discussion as to what self-control may accomplish and how it may be acquired."—Detroit Free Press.

"The lessons of such a wise book, if read and pondered over, will make happier many a life and sick-room and save physicians' bills."—Portland Oregonian.

The Psychological Origin of Mental Disorders. In this estimable little volume, Dr. Dubois exhibits the same human sympathy revealed in his previous works. 12mo, Cloth, 87 pp. 75 cents.

†FAMOUS PAINTINGS

Exact reproductions, in all their exquisite color-tones and wonderful details, of 100 masterpieces selected from the world's greatest paintings, with an introduction by Gilbert K. Chesterton and a summary of the life, chief characteristics, and technique of the artist facing each picture. The collection includes representative masterpieces from all nations and all periods that are of the greatest interest and the rarest in available form. Each picture is reproduced on canvas finished paper to perfect its likeness to the original, and is mounted on art paper, ready for framing. Over 75 of the world's greatest artists are represented by some of their most famous canvases. Among the famous art galleries from which the paintings in this collection were taken are the Louvre and Luxembourg of Paris, the National, Tate, and Guildhall of London, the Rijks of Amsterdam, the Glasgow Art Gallery, etc. 2 vols., 4to, Half Leather Binding. Per set, $25.00.

"My family and I have had much pleasure in viewing the splendid copies in color of the master painters represented in the volumes. I consider such books of great educational value in the right appreciation of the beautiful in art."—Rev. H. H. Price, D.D., Aurora, Neb.

"I am delighted with the two volumes of 'Famous Paintings' bought of you. Their educational value in the highest and best sense is immense."—S. G. Heiskell, Former Mayor, Knoxville, Tenn.

"We consider them a great addition to our reading-room."—S. T. Moreland, Principal McDonogh School, McDonogh, Md.

"Their excellence was much beyond my expectations. It had not seemed possible that reproductions of so great merit could be offered at so low a price."—F. M. Geer, A.M. (Harv.), Batavia, N. Y.

"Surely these volumes are exceptional, as well for the beauty and artistic merit of subjects selected as perfection in reproduction. To be in possession of such a collection of rare and distinguished paintings so faithfully copied in beautiful coloring and effects is a privilege."—(Mrs.) Clara B. Whinnery, Findlay, Ohio.

FISCHER, LOUIS, M.D.

Health-Care of the Baby. (17th Edition Revised.) The importance of this new edition may be realized when it is understood that the great recent advances made in the management and feeding of normal infants have made necessary radical changes in diet, particularly in the quantity of milk given. Complete instructions are given for feeding healthy and full-term infants as well as for premature, sick, and delicate babies. What to do in emergencies and accidents is well covered and wise counsel is given regarding what action to take in treating the principal diseases and affections of childhood, including a complete daily routine to follow in airing, bathing, clothing, and diet. The principal elements in the prevention of disease and in the hardening of infants against taking cold are completely described. A new chapter has been added describing the use of the Ultra Violet Rays in the treatment of rickets for a general restorative and their influence on the growth of the child. Also the use of Vita Glass for the summer home is fully described. A classic for the nursery and the home. Generously illustrated. 12mo, Cloth, 267 pages. $1.00.

"It is a book that can be recommended heartily to all families where there are babies. It needs no recommendation to doctors and nurses. They know about it already."—Democrat and Chronicle, Rochester, N. Y.

FITZGERALD, JOHN A., A.B. (See under Petitmangin, Prof. H.)

FITZPATRICK, BENEDICT

Ireland and the Making of Britain (500-1100 A.D.). A dramatic and colorful account of an amazing Irish intellectual crusade which established and restored civilization in Britain, based on facts heretofore sealed in chronicles and records inaccessible to the general public. Reveals Scotland and Wales as Irish provinces, colonies, and political dependencies for centuries. Records surprizing Irish military conquests, political settlements, and cultural and missionary enterprises. 8vo, Cloth, 378 pp. $4.00.

"It is well for the Irish that they should have this vision of a glorious past, when men of their race were the evangelists of religion and learning in barbarian-ridden Europe."—The Post, Birmingham, England.

Ireland and the Foundations of Europe. (Companion volume to "Ireland and the Making of Britain.") A new series revealing truths, amply authenticated, regarding Ireland's glorious past which may prove revolutionary to those whose knowledge of history has been gained through orthodox channels. It covers a period about which little has heretofore been known regarding Gaelic activities—the Middle Ages—and reveals Irish influences as the major force in the civilization and stabilization of all Europe. A vast amount of research covering a period of many years, and extending into scores of almost unknown sources, has yielded information which is now presented for the first time in modern times and most of which has never before appeared in English. It is of special interest to those of Gaelic or Scottish descent as well as to all lay-readers interested in history and truth. It is indispensable to historians. 8vo, Cloth. Map of Hibernicized Medieval Europe and chronological tables. $4.00.

"A contribution for which scholars, students, and the reading public will venerate the name of Benedict Fitzpatrick through the years to come. No abler, more careful, scholarly or valuable work has appeared for many a day."—Independent, Dublin, Ireland.

FUNK, ISAAC K., LL.D.

The Next Step in Evolution. The Present Step—A Study. The author believes that "Christ came the first time into men's vision by coming on the plane of their senses; He comes the second time into men's vision by lifting them up to his plane of spiritual comprehension." 16mo, Cloth, frontispiece, 106 pp. 75 cents.

The Psychic Riddle. A record of psychic investigation since the publication of "The Widow's Mite and Other Psychic Phenomena," giving new typical cases of the several classes of phenomena. 12mo, Cloth, 243 pp., $1.25.

The Widow's Mite. And Other Psychic Phenomena. This book brings psychic investigations and the best thought concerning them down to date. It presents hundreds of experiences along psychic lines, and reasons most carefully concerning them. It gives fairly all sides. The answers of nearly forty of the world's best-known psychologists are here given with these marvelous experiences of a quarter of a century's careful investigations of psychic phenomena. Large 8vo, Cloth, 538 pages. $3.00.

†GEMS OF ART

A set of six beautiful volumes on the lives and paintings of the six world-acclaimed artists — Rembrandt, Reynolds, Greuze, Watts, Raeburn, and Constable. Each volume contains 8 full-page color reproductions of such celebrated paintings as Rembrandt's "Portrait of Himself," "The Syndics of the Cloth Merchants Guild"; Reynolds' "The Strawberry Girl," "Heads of Angels"; Greuze's "The Listening Girl," "A Girl With Doves"; Watts' "Life Illusions," "Hope"; Raeburn's "Boy With Rabbit," and Constable's "The Cornfield, or Country Lane." They are reproduced on the finest quality canvas grain paper. You are also given biographies of these painters with trustworthy, informative, and interesting records of their lives and works. Bound in artistic paper boards with medallion on cover, lettering in gold. Exclusive of the 8 full-page color plates, each volume contains 95 pages. The text pages are of a fine quality and the type is of a size noted for its readability. Size 7½ inches wide by 10 inches high. Each volume, $1.75; $10.50 per set.

GLORIA DEO

This hymnal, especially designed to meet the requirements of all religious services, is wholly undenominational, and embraces the best hymns in use, with tunes that are strong in melody and well harmonized, and words carefully arranged between the braces of music; subdividing words being placed so as to bring each syllable below and close to the note to be sung. The book contains 767 numbers, including Chants. The complete Psalter is added at the end of the hymnal. 8vo, Cloth, $2.00; Cloth, leather back, $2.50. Special rates in quantities.

GOBRECHT, REV. WALTER R.

The Gospel Message in Great Poems. With an Introduction by George L. Omrake, A.M., Ph.D., President, Ursinus College. A unique, striking series of effective sermons based upon poems or sections of poems by great poets, the poems supplying the background for the main body of the sermons, with the sermon texts always Biblical, because the author has felt the close kinship between the poet and the minister of the Gospel and has built upon this idea. The poet's position is beautifully expressed by Edwin Markham who says "the poet's device is that deep saying written upon an ancient page, 'We look not at the things that are seen and temporal but at the things which are not seen and eternal.'" That there is a striking parallel in the minister's activities is evident. Thus the combination of beautiful poetry and Biblical texts woven into one by a devoted minister of the Gospel provides sermons of an unusually striking and effective character. The minister will find in this volume an almost endless source of inspiration and suggestion and the lay-reader, presentations of the Word of God both convincing and consoling. 12mo, Cloth, $2.00.

GODET, F. F.

GRASSET, JOSEPH, M.D. (Professor of Clinical Medicine, University of Montpellier, France.)

Marvels Beyond Science. (L'Occultisme Hier et Aujourd'hui.) A record of progress in the reduction of occult phenomena to a scientific basis. With a preface by Emile Faguet of the French Academy. Authorized English translation by René Jacques Tubeuf, Fellow of the University of Paris. Dr. Grasset aimed scrupulously to mark the boundary between things already known and those which still remain beyond our understanding. He believes that phenomena still regarded occult will, in a comparatively short space of time, be included in the catalog of accepted scientific principles. 8vo, Cloth, 410 pp. $1.75.

The Semi-Insane and the Semi-Responsible. "Demifous et Demiresponsables." Translated by Smith Ely Jelliffe, M.D., New York. Authorized American Edition. No contribution to psychiatry could be more opportune than this. Dr. Grasset discusses the medico-legal aspect of crimes committed by persons who, through genius, heredity, upbringing, or trouble, are not wholly insane, and yet are not wholly sane. This is the only literature on this particular classification. 8vo, Cloth, 450 pp. $2.50.

GRENELL, REV. ZELOTES

The Sandals. (See "Hour-Glass Series.")

GREY, H. G., M.A. (See "Readers' Commentary.")

GRIFFIS, WILLIAM ELLIOT, D.D., L.H.D.

The Call of Jesus to Joy. In this inspiring volume, the gospel of optimism is proclaimed with insistent hopefulness and undoubting faith. That men shall heed the call of Jesus to joy is urged, primarily, because the author contends that joy is a duty; because in the school of life we learn the true lesson of joy from its One Master; because the "house we live in" should be full of Christian cheer; because the highest joy of the thinker is when he thinks of God and Christ; and because the supreme joy of the student is in study, with Jesus as both student and teacher. 16mo, Cloth, 93 pp. 75 cents.

Commentary on St. Luke. (See Godet's Commentaries.)

HALL, S. ROLAND

How to Get a Position and How to Keep It. (Revised Edition.) Mr. Hall was long identified with a prominent correspondence school and secured positions for thousands of young men. His book is the outcome of this long experience, and is written from the standpoint of sound judgment and common sense in these matters. 12mo, Cloth. $1.00.

Short Talks on Retail Selling. A volume of chatty, inspirational talks on retail selling calculated to arouse a keen interest in the art of properly handling a customer. It contains a large amount of thoroughly practical information for all interested in salesmanship and particularly those who are anxious to sense and seize every selling opportunity. 12mo, Cloth, 181 pp. $1.00.

HALSEY, FRANCIS W.

Great Epochs in American History. (See Bryan, Hon. William Jennings, The World's Famous Orations; Lodge, Henry Cabot, The Best of the World's Classics; Rowson, S. H., Charlotte Temple; Pryde, David, What Books to Read and How to Read.) Edited, with Introductions and Explanatory Notes, by Francis W. Halsey. Aim to present striking accounts of ten great epochs in the history of the United States, from the landing of Columbus to the building of the Panama Canal. In large part, events composing each epoch are described by men who participated in them, or were personal eye-witnesses of them. The editor has endeavored to present as impartial and unbiased a view of the various events recorded as was possible and has taken pains to secure accounts by men of widely varying opinions in instances where there were differences of opinion. The description of the Firing Upon Fort Sumter, for example, is given both by Horace Greeley and by Mrs. Mary B. Chestnut, a Southern woman and close friend of all the leaders of the Secessionist party. Similarly the first battle of Bull Run is described by Edmund Clarence Stedman; then war correspondent for the New York World, and also by General Joseph E. Johnston, the Confederate Commander, and the subject of Reconstruction is handled by General John B. Gordon, of the Confederate Army, and by Abraham Lincoln. These instances are enough to show how free from partisan feeling this work is, its sole aim being to tell the truth. 10 vols., illustrated with frontispieces. Bound in cloth, half-leather, and full-leather. Sold only by subscription.

Seeing Europe With Famous Authors. Edited by Francis W. Halsey. Describing and depicting classic scenes and shrines—more than 300 of them, by more than 100 of the most eminent American and European writers—with Introductory Historical Sketches, Explanatory Notes, and many Illustrations. 10 vols. HAWTHORNE, JULIAN Prince Saroni's Wife. And the Pearl-Shell Necklace. Two novels. In one volume. 12mo, Cloth, 117 pp., 75 cents; Paper, 15 cents.

HAWTHORNE, NATHANIEL

The Yarn of a Yankee Privateer. (Edited by Nathaniel Hawthorne; introduction by Clifford Smyth.) The publication of this volume of rare interest and of historical importance is the result of strange coincidences. Several years ago an unsigned manuscript, yellow with age, was found among some of Hawthorne's old papers. Its origin would have remained a mystery but for the finding, several years later, of a series of papers edited by Hawthorne in a long forgotten magazine for the year 1846. The old manuscript proved to contain chapters of the printed series which had never been published. The author, even now unknown, vividly narrates his adventures aboard an American privateer in the War of 1812; his capture and confinement on the isle of Barbados and in the ill-famed Dartmoor prison, and gives perhaps the only first-hand account of what led up to the Dartmoor massacre—the killing of American captives in this English prison. The illustrations are reproductions of old prints, drawings, etc. 12mo, Cloth, 326 pp. Illustrated. $2.00.

"A book of continuous interest, of historical importance, of fascinating style. . . . A book that assures delight to every reader."—New York Evening Post.

HAYDEN, ARTHUR

Spode and His Successors. This volume is the result of long and arduous exploration and will be indispensable to every one who is interested in English pottery and earthenware. This is the only complete and authentic record of the Spode-Copeland Factory and its productions which has been put into print. The author has traced the story of the Spodes from the beginning through all developments, filling up gaps, and dissipating many legends that have grown up concerning them. This volume will be noteworthy alone for its illustrations, which have been taken almost entirely from pieces in private collections. There are twenty-four plates in full color, mounted and tissued, and sixty-four half-tone plates. Super Royal 8vo, Cloth, 224 pages, 88 illustrations. Limited Edition. $25.00.

HEXAGLOT BIBLE, THE

Comprising the Holy Scriptures of the Old and New Testaments in the original tongues. The work presents the Scriptures of the Old Testament in six languages, the Hebrew, Greek, Latin, English, German, and French, and the New Testament in Greek, Syriac, Latin, English, German, and French. The texts are conveniently arranged in six parallel columns, three columns on each of two opposite pages. Edited by the Rev. Edward Riches De Levante, M.A., Ph.D. Assisted by competent Biblical scholars. The prominent feature is the analytical character of each reference. The Bible student can, at a glance, find out four distinct points: (a) What the original Hebrew or Greek of any word is; (b) its literal meaning; (c) a correct and trustworthy exegesis, and (d) what are really parallel passages. The Hexaglot Bible is uniquely available for the rapid acquirement of French, German, Latin, or the older Greek, Hebrew, and Syriac—for here man's most beautiful thoughts, exprest in the accepted purest, most elegant diction of these various tongues, appear. Having learned the elements of a language, you can read the language itself with close, continued interest, in the Hexaglot, referring instantly when in doubt to the English, directly opposite. Six volumes, quarto, Cloth, $60.00; Sheep, $70.00; half Morocco, $90.00.

The texts are those of the highest authorities. The Hebrew is that of Van der Hooght, carefully revised. The Greek in the old Testament is Dr. Tischendorf's latest edition, with gaps supplied in brackets, from various sources, and in the New Testament, Dr. Tischendorf's eighth edition similarly supplemented. The Latin of the Old Testament is the Clementine edition of the Vulgate, and in the New Testament, Dr. Tischendorf's edition of the Codex Amiatinus, with gaps supplied in brackets, from the Clementine edition. The Syriac (in the New Testament only) is based on the noted "Biblia Sacra Polyglotta." The English is the Authorized Version; the German, Martin Luther's translation, and the French is the translation by David Martin with revisions.

It is not only a sumptuous book for a library, but is also a book of comparative versions which will be of incalculable convenience and value. . . . Each version has been committed to a scholar specially qualified for editing it, and the whole has been produced in a style of printing which places the work at the head of the Biblical texts of this country.—British Quarterly Review.

"The Hexaglot Bible is, I am satisfied, the most satisfactory available presentation of the Scripture in parallel versions of the six great languages. As the great Origen in Alexandria more than fifteen hundred years ago magnified the value of the Scripture by presenting it in several versions, so does this great work promise to do."—Chancellor H. M. MacCracken, D.D., of New York University.

HILL, ROYAL

The Stars and Constellations. A simple and practical guide-book of the heavens intended specially for those who are not proficient in astronomy. It gives easy helps with charts which will enable any one to learn the names and positions of all the important stars and constellations. HILTON, WARREN, A.B., LL.B.

Basic Reading Course in Applied Psychology. (New Revised Edition.) A practical series of books on the application of psychology to the problems of personal and business efficiency, designed to make clear to the average man or woman the principles underlying mental operations and their utilization as a means to achievement in life. 12 volumes. Issued under the auspices of the Society of Applied Psychology. Apply for terms. (See page insert of detachable post cards facing inside back cover.)

"I consider the 'Basic Course of Reading in Psychology' the most remarkable books ever issued. I find them as fascinating as so many novels and read them as eagerly as I would the popular fiction of the day. Already I have experienced great benefit through application of the simple principles so clearly expounded. The world has been waiting for these books and the world will surely profit by them."—William Wallace Cook, Author, Marshall, Mich.

"The Society's books on Applied Psychology I consider the most valuable of any books on the subject that I have seen. I have read Spencer's Psychology, Munsterburg's Psychology, William James' Phychology, and many others, but from the view-point of usefulness these books, to my mind, are much more valuable. They are especially adapted to the purposes for which they are intended—the application of psychology to the affairs of every-day life."—Hudson Maxim, Inventor.

"In my opinion these texts should be taught in all the higher schools, thus insuring a century's advance to the present generation. Blindly I have groped for just this knowledge. The promulgators of these volumes should be hailed as benefactors of the race."—Dorothy Zimmerman, District Manager, The Supreme Tribe of Ben-Hur, Huntington, W. Va.

"I want to say that the twelfth volume alone is worth far more to me than was paid for all the volumes of Applied Psychology. You are making the world brighter and better."—John Benjamin Strasburger, City Statistician, Chicago, Illinois.

"I have been reading some of the best works on the subject of Psychology, but find it put up in the easiest form to read and understand in the Basic Course. It's just like A, B, C, the subject is made so reasonable and simple. I believe that younger students of this science who have found some of the best writers on the subject dry, uninteresting, and unintelligible, will not find this work so. My prediction is that a good many people are going to read and be benefited by this course who have never before given the subject any serious consideration or who have passed over it very lightly because it was not interesting."—M. W. Cook, Cortez, Pa.

HIRSCHFELD, I. H., M.D.

The Heart and Blood Vessels: Their Care and Cure and the General Management of the Body. A general guide in the prevention of disease, for the public at large. Written after long medical practice, from a scientific basis and an intelligent appreciation of common needs. Breathes a benignant human spirit. It outlines in plain language the correct management of the body with regard to work, recreation, sleep, exercise, food, sex instinct, climate, and shows the way to reconstruct one's system after it has been mismanaged, at once removing nervous depression and irritability; tells how to lead a happy and efficient life even when the heart is sick and blood vessels are hardened; and helps in the choice of a physician, nurse, hospital, sanitarium, and places for recuperation in America and in Europe. 12mo, Cloth. $1.75.

"If the family library consists of but two or three books, this is a work that should be in the home."—Denver News.

"Tells in clear, understandable English, the surprisingly interesting story of the human heart, and how easily it may be kept sound without sacrifice of pleasure or money."—The San Francisco Call.

"There can be nothing but commendation for so sane and practical a treatise. He says nothing that can encourage hypochrondria or an adverse auto-suggestion. He tells us that nature intends us to be healthy and happy, and that we need do no more than obey her laws to be both."—Argonaut, San Francisco, Cal.

HOLLOPETER, WILLIAM C., M.D.

Hay Fever, Its Prevention and Cure (Revised Edition). The new fourth edition of this widely used work contains information on the latest methods of treatment and the most recent well-substantiated facts regarding the causes of Hay Fever. The Immunizing method receives extensive attention. Several sections of the book have been entirely rewritten, bringing the volume down to date and in harmony with the best practise of the day. For all who are annually sneezers this book can not fail to have special interest. It comes from the pen of an expert, and should command the confidence of all who suffer from the summer's widespread scourge. Dr. Hollopeter was graduated from the University of Pennsylvania in 1877; served as interne in the Presbyterian Hospital of New York; and thereafter had large experience in private practice and as college professor, making a special study of diseases of the throat, eye and ear, with particular attention to Hay Fever. In this book he has written for laymen as well as physicians, and every Hay Fever victim should know what is the history, what are the causes, and what is the proper treatment of a disease which has been so baffling, so afflictive, and so inadequately understood, as told by one who in handling it has had great success. 12mo. $2.00.

"Self-interest alone should make its pages precious to all hay-fever sufferers as well as to physicians who have groped uncertainly for an efficient treatment for the scourge."—The Press, Philadelphia.

The contents include sermons and outlines, poetry, historical data, illustrations, descriptive data, etc., and are arranged in the most convenient and accessible form, and the volume includes an exhaustive bibliography, a topical index, index to authors, and index to texts. Compiled by Edward M. Deems, A.M., Ph.D. 8vo, Cloth, 768 pp. $6.00.

"This work is a treasure to which the preacher and speaker will resort for material wherever sermons or addresses are to be made suitable to the recurring anniversaries."—Zion's Advocate, Portland, Me.

HOMILETIC REVIEW, THE

An International Undenominational Illustrated Magazine devoted to an exposition and discussion of living issues and subjects related to all branches of religious and pulpit activity. Issued monthly. 8vo, 80 pp. Subscription per year, $3.00; single copies, 30 cents. Foreign postage, 50 cents a year. Vols. I and II (Metropolitan Pulpit), and III to VIII, inclusive (Homiletic Monthly), out of print; also Vols. IX and X and XXIX to LXVII. Vols. XI to XXVIII, inclusive, and LXVIII to XCIII, inclusive, bound in cloth, each $2.00. Subscribers' copies for six months (January-June or July-December) bound for $1.25, carriage charges in both directions payable by customers. Covers for respective volumes, suitable for regular binding, 75 cents, carriage paid.

The Homiletic Review contains discussions and information on all the important practical topics and problems in theology, the pulpit, religion, and pastoral work. It secures the best contributions from the leading thinkers, writers, and preachers of the Christian world. The attitude of the Church and pulpit toward all the live issues of the day receives full attention in its pages. The Review is a practical help to ministers, theological students, and other religious workers.

REGULAR FEATURES

EDITORIAL COMMENT discussing subjects of first importance in religion, theology, ecclesiastics, and social, ethical, and political movements as related to the minister and his thought and work.

THE GENERAL ARTICLES every month are from distinguished authorities and are of vital interest to the preacher and Christian worker.

THE WORK OF THE PREACHER: This section contains each month articles on preachers and preaching; on the manner and matter of the pulpit, and on every related theme of interest to sermon-makers and pulpit occupants.

THE WORK OF THE PASTOR furnishes articles on every approved and every possible new method in the work of the Church, discussing the pastorate in all its manifold relations, and dealing with every phase of the pastor's activity.

THE MID-WEEK PRAYER AND CONFERENCE MEETING SECTION contains thoughtful and inspirational material for each week in the year.

STUDIES IN SOCIAL CHRISTIANITY appear each month. Facts, information, and suggestions on the problems of our time are given by experts.

STUDIES IN THE BOOK comprise exegetical expository, and hermeneutical articles and hints, explanations of texts, side-lights of Scripture, analytical studies of passages, and exposition.

THE SERMONIC LITERATURE: This section presents a monthly array of the very best utterances of the modern pulpit of the world. It also includes a large array of suggestive outlines, sermon hints and themes for all occasions, suggestive themes and texts. Under this head may also be found ILLUSTRATIONS FOR PULPIT USE supplying feathers for the preacher's arrows, all fresh, especially selected from new sources and comprising in the course of the year nearly a new cyclopedia of homiletic illustration.

RECENT BOOKS gives the preacher a summary account of the best books as they appear, and furnishes him a guide to his reading.

"The Review made its welcome appearancce this morning. It is the most welcome magazine of its kind I have found on either side of the Atlantic Ocean. From its pages I have found more sermon helps than from all the rest put together."—Ernest Barber, Pastor, M. E. Church, Scituate, Mass.

HOYT, J. K.

Hoyt's New Cyclopedia of Practical Quotations. (Completely revised and greatly enlarged by Kate Louise Roberts.) A rich treasury of 21,000 of the choicest of usable quotations, drawn from the speech and literature of all nations, ancient and modern, classic and popular, in English and foreign text, including outstanding phrases coined during the momentous years of the recent World War. While based on the latest former edition of a world-known work of reference and retaining its most valuable features, this NEW edition, based on the simpler plan of one topical alphabet throughout, is virtually a new work, for it has been entirely reset, contains 4,500 more new quotations and has new features of its own. Hundreds of the old quotations have been replaced by others both newer and more valuable. Contains 21,000 quotations from 3,000 Authors; 1,036 Topical Headings; 115,620 Entries in Concordance—Index; 1,374 pages. Royal 8vo. Cloth, $7.50; Buckram, $8.50; Three-quarter Morocco, $12.50; Full Morocco, $15.00. Patent Thumb-index, 75 cents extra.

Among the most important features of the work are the quotations from foreign writers, Latin law maxims, and an extensive list of French and Latin mottoes. All foreign quotations are always followed by their English translations. The Cyclopedia contains quotations from the Greek and Roman classic authors, from the great writers of the East, of Germany, Italy, Spain, Portugal, etc. A complete list is given of all authors quoted, with the full name, the nationality, a few words of characterization, such as "statesman," "poet," "historian," the date of birth, and, if dead, the date of death. The three distinct reference keys which are afforded for finding quotations in English are: (1) The topics; (2) the entry of each significant word in the concordance, and (3) the name of the author, with the number of the pages containing his quotations. Foreign quotations can be found under: (1) the topic; (2) the author; (3) some word in the original, or (4) some word in the translation. The quotations are classified under subjects.

"The most the present reviewer can claim for himself is that he has dipt into this portly tome here and there and that he has done what he can to plumb its depths. He has found himself so agreeably allured that he has now and again abandoned his casual browsing to read a score of consecutive pages, finding many old friends, familiar as household words, and making many new acquaintances whom he will be glad to meet again."—Brander Matthews, in an article, "A Treasure House of Lost Quotations," printed in The Literary Digest International Book Review.

"It seems to me the most useful and best contrived book of its kind ever published."—Booth Tarkington.

HUDSON, H. N. (See Aldus Shakespeare.)

HUGO, VICTOR.

An Intellectual Autobiography. Translated by Lorenzo O'Rourke. It was recently brought to light from Hugo's papers and manuscripts, and is the only volume of his prose writings not heretofore published. 12mo, Cloth, 400 pp. $1.20.

"The volume is sure to awaken wide interest among readers who are in any way concerned with the mind and writings of the great French poet and novelist. Coming as it does from an epoch in his life, which is perhaps of the most vital interest in any study of his genius, the volume may be described as a sort of mind-biography. It has a literary quality which French critics have accepted as on a level with the best of Hugo's prose writings."—News, Detroit, Mich.

HUNT, THEODORE W., Ph.D., Litt.D.

Ethical Teachings in Old English Literature. The book contains 24 papers designed to emphasize the ethical and Christian element in our Old English authors. 12mo, Cloth, 385 pp., $2.00.

Literature: Its Principles and Problems. This book is especially commended to all students of literature, with the assurance that they will find its conclusions substantially sound. 12mo, Cloth, 427 pp. $1.20.

ILLUSTRATIONS FOR PUBLIC SPEAKERS, CYCLOPEDIA OF

Edited by Robert Scott and W. C. Stiles. The illustrations are entirely new; every one is fresh and drawn from an original source, from nature, from common life, from recent events, from science, from biography, from religious experience, from anecdotes, etc. The matter is arranged alphabetically under topical headings, with a thorough system of cross references. For the convenience of preachers, textual indexes are given, arranged in Biblical order and also in the alphabetical order of the topics. Large 8vo, 844 pp., Cloth, $5.00.

"A large, important, and useful work that will help enhance the utterances of men who speak in public; also after-dinner speakers, who desire to be at all times well equipped to arouse enthusiasm."—Boston Globe.

"The selections are admirable, and the books will prove useful to every one who has occasion to occupy the platform."—Chauncey M. Depew, LL.D.

"There is good evidence all through that the editors were able to discriminate between a real illustration and mere quotation or citation. All the entries in this volume are distinctly suited for public speakers' use."—Salt Lake Tribune, Salt Lake, Utah.

"The work represents wide research and shows an admirable practical arrangement of contents which should commend it to every class of speakers."—News, Chicago, Ill.

Child Training as an Exact Science. A treatise based upon the principles of modern psychology. Covers a field no other work does. 12mo, Cloth, 384 pp.; with 15 full-page illustrations. $1.50.

The Unsound Mind and the Law. A Presentation of Forensic Psychiatry. By an expert along this line of discussion. Discusses at length the various types of mental abnormality and the degrees of responsibility that may be assigned to persons classified under the different categories. The book opens with a careful examination of the general relation between jurisprudence and the treatment and restraint of those suffering from mental disorders, goes on to describe in detail the various methods of diagnosis and discrimination between different types, and, after considering hypnosis and sexual anomalies, closes with advice as to the manner in which opinions should be rendered. To those who are interested in the medico-legal aspects of crime and the degrees of moral responsibility that we are justified in assuming in various grades of mental deficiency this book will prove a most valuable assistance and authority. 8vo, Cloth, 438 pp. $3.00.

JEFFERSONIAN CYCLOPEDIA, THE

Including the important writings and utterances of Thomas Jefferson, conveniently arranged under topics, in alphabetical order and thoroughly indexed, on government, politics, law, education, commerce, agriculture, manufacture, finance, science, art, literature, religious freedom, morals, and other topics. The plan on which the Cyclopedia has been compiled is entirely new and original. The classification shows at one glance Jefferson's views, opinions, etc., at different periods on all the momentous subjects which he discussed. The writings of no other American or even English statesman have been arranged in this way. The quotations are all arranged under topics in alphabetical order, thus placing his wealth of thought, suggestion, and information within immediate reach of the user. The Cyclopedia is strikingly simple, complete, and easy of reference. Contains 9,228 extracts, besides an appendix including a number of historical documents, chronology of Jefferson's life, etc. With ten illustrations. Edited by John P. Foley. 8vo, 1,031 pp., Cloth, $7.50; Sheep, $10.00; Half Morocco, $12.50; Full Morocco, $15.00.

JENKS, PROF. J. W., PH.D., LL.D., and LAUCK, PROF. W. JETT

The Immigration Problem. A Study of American Immigration—Conditions and Needs. (Thoroughly revised and enlarged by Rufus D. Smith, M.A., Associate Professor of Public Economy, New York University.) Dr. Jenks, now Research Professor of Government and Public Administration in New York University, was an active member of the United States Immigration Commission, appointed in 1907, and Prof. Lauck, now Director of the Bureau of Applied Economics, at Washington, was officially connected therewith during the Commission's four years of searching work. Based upon the extended Report of that Commission, in forty-two volumes, this book's Fifth Edition has been revised, enlarged, and brought down to date by Prof. Rufus D. Smith, for this Sixth Edition. All available new data has been added to the text. The appendices now contain all Immigration Laws and Regulations from those of 1917 to the Immigration Act of 1924, together with all of the latest statistics. The three chapters written by Prof. Smith are of great importance—Immigration Problems of Other Countries, The Race Problem in the Pacific, and Present and Future Restriction. This Sixth Edition is thus made the standard compact authority on Immigration, in accordance with latest official figures and facts, holding place absolutely abreast with conditions affecting our nation's present and future. Cloth, 8vo. 744 pages. $4.00.

"This book will continue to hold its position as the authoritative digest of the reports of the Immigration Commission, and as such will serve a widely useful purpose."—The Evening Post, New York.

"The book is the most exhaustive study of the immigration problem in compact form that we have."—The Transcript, Boston, Mass.

"A non-partizan, clear-cut, authoritative presentation of a problem of pressing importance and of vital interest to all classes of citizens of the United States."—Tribune, Salt Lake City, Utah.

LAUCK, W. JETT

Political and Industrial Democracy: 1776-1926. The author, who was formerly Professor of Economics and Politics at Washington and Lee University, begins his book by describing the political evolution in America from the adoption of the Declaration of Independence on July 4, 1776, to the present time. He then tells the story of industrial reconstruction—how wage earners are now given a voice in determining working standards to an extent undreamed of before the World War. The author names twenty of the largest railroads and industrial concerns in America that have entered into cooperative plans with employees in late years, and describes the plans in full detail. The book affords much tangible evidence of how Capital and Labor are getting together in this country and solving the great industrial problem. It will interest every man who works for or employs some one else. 384 pages. Crown 8vo. Cloth. $2.

"A very needed description of trends in American life."—Prof. Wm. F. Ogburn, Barnard College.

LAUCK, W. JETT and SYDENSTRICKER, EDGAR

Conditions of Labor in American Industries. An authoritative study of the results of Federal and State investigations as to the conditions of wage-earners in the principal industries of the United States. Mr. Lauck was formerly associate professor of economics in the Washington and Lee University, and co-author with Jeremiah W. Jenks of "The Immigration Problem." Mr. Sydenstricker has done work along similar lines as expert investigator for the Federal Immigration Commission and the Commission on Industrial Relations. Crown 8vo, 416 pp. $1.75.

LAUCK, W. JETT, and WATTS, CLAUDE S.

The Industrial Code. W. Jett Lauck was Secretary of the National War Labor Board, and associated with him as joint author is Claude S. Watts, who was Chief of the Division of Investigation of the same board. A history of industrial development during the war and since the armistice was declared, a presentation, in an unbiased and non-partisan way, of the problems in the present relations of labor and capital, the principles that apply, and the enlightened opinion of different social and economic groups. The book is written with due regard for the claims of both sides and is a constructive one, taking up such questions as "collective bargaining," the Kansas Industrial Court, the Esch-Townsend Railroad Act, the "right of labor to a living wage," the "right of labor to a voice in the control of industry," "the work of women," etc., and furnishes a code of principles for the future working relations between labor and capital. It is a book that will appeal to men on both sides, to all economic students, and to libraries. 8vo, Cloth, 579 pp. $4.00.

"Without question, the whole work of industrial reconstruction during the next few years will revolve about the questions so thoroughly and so interestingly handled in 'The Industrial Code.' "—Bulletin, San Francisco, Calif.

"The progressive executive, even though he may take exception now and then to assertions made in some of the chapters, will do well to add this volume not only to his personal but also to his plant library." —Journal of Commerce, New York City.

MENTAL EFFICIENCY SERIES

Ten Volumes of uniform 16mo size, made up in the most careful manner from the writings of Aristotle, Socrates, Darwin, Spencer, William James, Muensterberg, Jastrow, Schofield, and other accepted authorities on mental science practically applied. But though in a broad way these men are the authors of these books, those who have done the actual work of collecting the material and putting it into this unusual form are a group of scientists and practical men prominent in this sort of work, not only in this country but abroad, where the study of mental efficiency has really reached a much higher plane. The great service they have performed has been to point out the practical day-by-day application of all this knowledge. The topics treated in these ten volumes are:

Poise: How to Attain It. Starke, D.

Force of Character: How to Develop It. Starke, D.

Timidity: How to Overcome It. Yoritomo-Tashi.

Influence: How to Exert It. Yoritomo-Tashi.

Common Sense: How to Exercise It. Yoritomo-Tashi.

Practicality: How to Acquire It. Nicolle, R.

Opportunities: How to Make the Most of Them. Charley, L.

Personality: How to Produce It. Laurent, H.

12mo, Cloth. Price, $10.00 the set; $1.00 a volume. In half leather, or "Luxart." Price, $15.00 the set; $1.50 a volume. Sold separately.

MERTON, HOLMES W.

How to Choose the Right Vocation. Designed to help boys and young men in making their vocational decisions. In this book Mr. Merton records the results of his unrivaled practical acquaintance with the subject, and his simple, direct, and sympathetic treatment of this most important question can not fail to be of great help to all young men and women who are striving to "find themselves" vocationally. To employers, teachers, students of business problems, and all who are interested in this comparatively new field of human effort, it will also appeal strongly. 12mo, Cloth, 322 pp. $1.50.

"By following the instructions given by Mr. Merton, young men and women may be saved years of wasted effort and disappointment."—Atlanta Constitution.

MODERN SERMONS BY WORLD SCHOLARS

Ten volumes of over seventy sermons, Edited by Robert Scott and W. C. Stiles, with introduction by Newell Dwight Hillis, D.D. Each sermon, given entire, was selected (oftentimes by the preacher himself) as most representative of the authors' style and force. In every instance, where the author was living, an approval of the selection was sought and obtained, so that the ten volumes are fairly representative of the modern pulpit as characterized by these world scholars. The topics embraced are of timely interest and furnish excellent reading for the layman, as well as for the clergyman. The following are a few of the many scholars whose best pulpit efforts are included in the ten volumes:

Lyman Abbott, Walter F. Adeny, Willis J. Beecher, Llewelyn D. Bevan, Hugh Black, Borden P. Bowne, James Denny, Canon S. R. Driver, James Drummond, A. M. Fairbairn, W. H. P. Faunce, George A. Gates, David Gregg, George Hodges, Franklin Johnson, Henry Churchill King, George Trumbull Ladd, James G. K. McClure, A. C. McGiffort, Edouard Montet, A. T. Pierson, James Orr, M. B. Riddle, James Stalker, George E. Reed, Milton S. Terry, Josiah Strong, Henry Van Dyke, G. Frederick Wright, and many others.

Daintily and substantially bound, small 12mo size. In a Box. Bound in cloth or half leather. Sold only by Subscription.

MOORE, DOROTHEA

†An Adventurous School Girl. This story of a schoolgirl of the days of the Jacobites opens with the news of the coming of the rebels, and the flight of everybody—except Lettice Fairfax and a maid, who are kept fast there by the illness of Lettice, with the result that she finds herself unwillingly embroiled in high affairs which carry her to London—and to Newgate itself. It is a good story in which every girl will revel. 12mo, Cloth, 286 pp., with several full-page illustrations in black and white and frontispiece in colors. $1.50.

MOQUÉ, ALICE LEE

Delightful Dalmatia. An intimate narrative of recent experiences in Dalmatian travel, with full appreciation of the great scenic and historic interest attaching to Pola, Sebenico, Gravossa, Spalato, Ragusa, and other towns, and the way between. All the places of importance are visited; their points of historic interest are described; their legends and folk-lore are explained; the characteristics and customs of the people are disclosed. 12mo, Cloth, with colored frontispiece and 48 other illustrations. $2.50.

MORGAN, WILLIAM S. (See under Pollock, Horatio M.)

MORRIS, SIR MALCOLM, M.D.

†The Nation's Health: the Stamping Out of Venereal Diseases. Intended especially for sanitary authorities in cities and towns, for members of hospital boards of management, managers of public institutions, etc. 12mo, Cloth. $1.50.

The Story of English Public Health. A complete history of the public health movement in Great Britain from its inception to the present time, when it has culminated in the establishment of a ministry of health. An interesting discussion of bacteriology from a popular standpoint adds much to the value of the book. Crown 8vo, Cloth. $1.50.

MOSHER, ELIZA M., M.D.

Health and Happiness; a Message to Girls. These friendly letters carry the weight of unusual authority; are written in a spirit of delicate refinement, combined with real friendly interest, and are pervaded by an atmosphere of singular charm. 12mo, 225 pp. Illustrated. $1.00.

NEWMAN, E. M.

Seeing Italy. An intimate story by an experienced traveler, covering the chief places and objects of interest in Italy. It is neither guide nor history nor an academic description but a sympathetic and intensely interesting narrative which includes something to meet every personal preference—for those who prefer art, architecture, ruins, history, human interest, and scenery. Read in advance of the trip it will prepare travelers in an ideal manner for what they are to see; carried by tourists in Italy it will prove invaluable as a reference. 8vo. Cloth. 298 photographic illustrations. $5.00.

Seeing Russia. The only uncensored pictorial and written account of present-day Russia since the Soviet Government came into power. The unprejudiced story of a great human experiment, told in breezy narrative, illustrated with hundreds of superb photographs such as: the bedroom of the late Czarina; playroom of the little Czarevitch who was shot to death with his parents; how the wild boys of Moscow go to bed; Jewish colonists; women of the former nobility selling home-made hats to workers' wives; inscription placed near the shrine of the Iberian Virgin reading "Religion—Opium of the People," etc. 8vo, Cloth, 410 pages, 309 illustrations, with Maps in Color, showing Russia as it is to-day. $5.00.

"It is good to know that there exists at least one book on post-czarist Russia which contents itself with seeing Russia and leaves the business of predicting, theorizing and propaganding about Russia to others."—Hartford Times.

Seeing Egypt and the Holy Land. A delightfully readable account of the things and places most worth seeing, together with many practical suggestions of great value to travellers, enlivened on almost every page with anecdotes and personal experiences of the author. Among the three hundred photographic illustrations, all original, are some superb views of forbidden Mecca and its sacred Kaaba; probably the best existing photographs of Petra; views of Tel Aviv, near Jaffa, and other Jewish colonies in Palestine; the Holy Sepulcher at Jerusalem, etc. 8vo, Cloth, with 300 illustrations from original photographs. $5.00.

OEHLER, DR. GUSTAV FRIEDRICH

†Theology of the Old Testament. A scholarly and comprehensive exposition. Edited by Prof. Geo. E. Day, D.D. 8vo, Cloth, 522 pp. $4.00.

OGILVY, JAMES S.

†Relics and Memorials of London City and London Town. In two volumes, each containing over fifty finely reproduced illustrations in color from paintings by the author. A permanent and worthy record, in picture and text, of many buildings and places of great historic interest, now fast disappearing, in that older London soon to be chiefly a memory—that London of the Great Fire, of the terrible Plague, of Goldsmith and Johnson, of the Tower and the Strand—also a like enduring and attractive record of the newer London, of Sir Christopher Wren, and Westminster Abbey, and Buckingham Palace, and Dickens and Thackeray, and other places and people too numerous to mention. 4to, Cloth. Boxed. $15.00 the set.

OXENHAM, ELSIE JEANETTE

†Patience Joan, Outsider. This is the story of the adventures of a lovable little lass while attending the school of "Ups and Downs," as it is nicknamed. The adventures Patience Joan goes through prove enthralling reading and carry one through an intriguing plot and a maze of incidents. A splendid book for girls. 12mo, Cloth. $1.75.

PADOVAN, ADOLFO

†The Sons of Glory. A study of genius as manifested in the world's greatest poets, artists, philosophers, prophets, scientists, and explorers. Translated from the Italian by Duchess Litta Visconti Avese. 12mo, Cloth, 306 pp. $1.50.

PALMER, JOHN WILLIAMSON

For Charlie's Sake, and Other Lyrics and Ballads. Sixteen poems embracing lyrics of pathos and sentiment and ballads of war. 12mo, Cloth, deckle edges, gilt top, 95 pp., ornamental cover. $1.00.

PARKER, JOSEPH, D.D.

†The People's Bible. This twenty-eight volume library, by one of the greatest preachers and theologians the world has ever known, is both guide and interpreter to the treasures of the entire Bible. It throws a clear light on the beauty and significance that are so frequently hidden behind the ambiguities of the text. It is so arranged as to meet the wants of the ordinary Bible reader as well as the requirements of students and ministers. In the ordinary sense it is not a Bible Commentary. Its scope is broader and less technical. It is essentially a guide to Biblical wisdom. As a distinctly pastoral exhibition it furnishes a careful and thorough analysis and application of the spiritual meaning of the scriptures. It is a work as valuable for the home circle as for the library or study. Exhaustive special indexes in each volume and a complete Index volume make the contents easily accessible. Each volume complete in itself. In 28 vols. 8vo, Cloth. $1.75 per vol.

†The Pulpit Bible. The entire text of the Bible is printed in large, clear type, with bright and suggestive illustrations in an ample margin opposite each significant verse. The author's notes alone run to over 750,000 words. The notes are all original and they indicate the special pulpit use of each verse (where available) in the Bible. Each note is thus a suggestion for a sermon. Where space has not permitted a sufficient treatment of any passage, a copious detailed index indicates in which of Dr. Parker's other books the particular interpretation is provided. 4to, Full Morocco, 1,351 pp., one vol. $20.00.

†Studies in Texts. Six volumes containing new sermons, outlines, suggestions, etc., designed to be of value to preachers, Bible students, teachers, and other active religious workers, and useful for home and family readings. 6 vols., 12mo, Cloth. $1.75 per vol.

PARTRIDGE, WILLIAM ORDWAY

The Czar's Gift. This is an addition to the "Hour-Glass Series" by the well-known Sculptor who will be remembered as author of "The Angel of Clay," "Nathan Hale," etc. Cloth. 40 cents.

PARIS, W. FRANCKLYN

Napoleon's Legion. (Honeur et Patrie.) A complete history of the Legion of Honor, the most famous of the orders of Napoleon, together with the record of the establishment of the American Society of the French Legion of Honor of which the author is one of the founders. The older orders of French chivalry are traced, the present national order described from its conception to the present time, and special chapters devoted to Foreign Légionnaires, the American Society of the Legion of Honor, etc., including records of regiments having won the right to carry the Legion of Honor with the regimental colors and the cities entitled to incorporate the insignia of the Legion in their Coats-of-arms. The law governing admission into the Order, promotion, the wearing of insignia, privileges and obligations attached to the quality of Légionnaire are gone into at length, together with descriptions of the educational institutions of the Legion, the Grand Chancellerie of the Order, the New Museum, women Légionnaires, etc. The only work of its sort in print. Profusely illustrated.

Subscription Edition. Superbly bound in imported green polished Morocco leather, artistically pressed and tooled in the Empire style, printed on specially-made pure rag fiber book paper, illustrations on double-coated white plate paper, except the Honor Diplomas which are produced on white parchment. Two plates of Napoleon and the Legion of Honor decoration are in color. All copies of the Subscription Edition are signed personally by General Dubail, the Grand Chancellor of the Legion of Honor. Of an edition limited to 600 copies bearing General Dubail's signature, only a few are now available. Price $50.00.

Popular Edition. 8vo. Richly bound in green silk cloth. Gold stamping with impress of Napoleon's imperial coat of arms on the front cover. 240 pages, 54 full-page illustrations. $7.50 net.

PETITMANGIN, PROF. H., and FITZGERALD, JOHN A., A.B. (With the collaboration of Ernest Dimnet, author of "French Grammar Made Clear," etc.)

Latin Grammar Made Clear. An outstanding grammar for school work—one that is complete enough without being crowded, one that gives an unmistakable impression of clarity by its logical arrangement, and one that is genuinely interesting. The exercises will be found to be of valuable service in helping and practically compelling the student to think, not memorize, and to acquire familiarity with the spirit of the Latin language by vital imitation. 12mo, Cloth, 333 pp. $1.50.

PETRE, EDWIN ROBERT

When You Go to Europe. In order that every tourist to Europe could have available an adequate and unbiased handbook, the 25 leading transatlantic steamship companies commissioned Edwin Robert Petre to write a volume which would accurately outline all the matters that any one who contemplated a trip to Europe should know. The result is this exceptional volume which treats of 150 subjects, contains an atlas of all lands in Europe, describes 29 countries, and is the only book of its kind with a distance map. Tells cost of ocean passage, of travel in Europe, and of ordinary living abroad; outlines what to see; gives details of how to get passports and visés; describes baggage regulations and insurance; explains the Immigration law—in fact, information about everything necessary to see any tourist through an extended trip through Europe. 16mo, semi-flexible Fabrikoid, 160 pages. Distance map; maps in colors. $1.50.

Shrines of the Great in Europe. What wanderer through storied Europe has not wished for a pocket guide to the most interesting literary or artistic landmarks? This is the only book to meet the need—a unique tourist directory of the birthplaces, homes, story scenes and working background of more than two thousand authors, painters, sculptors, musicians, dramatists, scientists, explorers, philosophers, and others—past and present—who have left their mark on modern culture. The entire contents are arranged alphabetically for quick and easy reference; first by countries and cities, so that when the traveler is in a certain town a glance at the proper page will show whether the place contains any shrine which should be visited: then alphabetically by names, so that, if following the trail of some great master, a glance at his name will show the places he helped to make famous and recall the outstanding facts about his life and work. It is the only handbook of the kind in existence, and no well-informed tourist will be content to leave it out of his kit-bag. Small 12mo. (Pocket Size.) Fabrikoid. $2.00.

POE, EDGAR ALLAN

The Cameo Edition of Poe's Complete Works. A dainty and handy edition, including all of Poe's prose and poetical works, with numerous explanatory notes and a striking frontispiece with each volume. "Poe's works will always remain," says Hamilton W. Mabie, of The Outlook, "one of our most precious literary possessions." European critics regard him as the greatest of American writers. About one-thirtieth of his work consists of his poetical writings; by far the major part is vivid, intense, highly imaginative romance. Ten volumes. 6⅜ x 4 inches. Tastefully bound in Cloth and in dainty Half Leather. Sold only by subscription.

POLLOCK, HORATIO M., and MORGAN, WILLIAM S.

Modern Cities. An important record of Progress in the World-Wide Awakening for Their Betterment. Treats every topic connected with City Building and City Life as related to Social Improvement. 12mo, Cloth. With 16 full-page Illustrations. $1.50.

"I think the authors have written a remarkable book. . . . I know of nothing that has been written, or printed, that would make a more valuable text-book on this whole vital problem."—Hon. Brand Whitlock.

POMEROY, H. S., A.M., M.D.

The Ethics of Marriage. Frank and earnest discussions of the present abuses of marriage and parenthood, with helpful advice and suggestions for the integrity, purity and happiness of married life. 12mo, Cloth. 192 pp. $1.25.

POST, EMILY

Etiquette. ("The Blue Book of Social Usage." Entirely new 1928 Edition. The accepted authority. Besides embracing all of the topics treated in previous editions, there are many entirely new subjects in this new 1928 edition, such as: "The Woman in Business," "American Neighborhood Customs," "When You Are a House Guest," "Etiquette in Washington," "Flat Silver and Its Usage," new material on weddings, embracing Catholic and Jewish weddings, the wedding where both bride's and groom's parents are divorced, etc. The author's position in American society, her achievements as a novelist and essayist, and her wide acquaintance with social and diplomatic circles of the European capitals, enable her to write on the subject of etiquette with ease and accuracy. There are scores of books on etiquette which are the product of practised writers who have no inside knowledge of their subject or of writers not so facile who set down the most obvious ordinances of social intercourse in a manner dull, trivial, and not infrequently erroneous. Here we have authority, literary skill, and something that no book of etiquette now before the public contains, namely, the welding of the form and spirit of social life in so ingenious a fashion that we not only learn the rules of social intercourse in society, business, politics, and at home, but we actually live them out in the reading of the book. Crown 8vo. Cloth. Many new illustrations. $4.00. Full Leather, $7.50.

"It covers with an almost incredible minuteness of detail every contingency into which a social being may be plunged."—New York Evening Post.

Parade. One of the most revealing books of fiction published in recent years, not only because it deals with the aspirations and ambitions of every woman who has or craves the opportunity to get into society, and to climb after she gets in, but equally because of the charm and power and skill which the author displays in its composition. 12mo, Cloth. $2.00.

POSTGATE, PROF. J. P., M.A., Litt.D.

The First Latin Primer. Crown 8vo, 112 pp., Cloth. 50 cents.

The New Latin Primer. 216 pp. 90 cents.

mentary on the Old Testament. Cloth, 10 vols. (and index volume), 6,000 pp., $40.00; per vol., $4.00.

FEATURES OF THE CONTENTS

IT BRINGS TO THE PREACHER'S ATTENTION hundreds of texts heretofore almost wholly passed over by the pulpit. Spurgeon, in his Commenting and Commentaries, says: "We have next to nothing on Kings." In the Homiletic Commentary we have on Kings alone 743 treatments of texts. The same is true of other books, as Jeremiah. New expositions, critical notes, illustrations, etc., are poured in upon neglected texts, and additional light thrown upon old texts.

IT IS THE ONLY "COMMENTARY that supplies a sermonic treatment of homiletic suggestion on every verse of both the Old and New Testaments that can be used to advantage as a sermon text.

IT CONCENTRATES THE LIGHT of all ages and of all countries on the text.

IT IS WHOLLY FREE FROM DENOMINATIONAL BIAS, being strictly evangelical.

IT SUGGESTS THOUSANDS OF THEMES AND ILLUSTRATIONS for sermons, also many hundreds of useful illustrations.

IT THROWS NEW LIGHT upon the present controversies over the Old Testament.

THE COMMENTARY IS WHOLLY IN ENGLISH, avoiding Hebrew and Greek, except here and there in the critical notes.

RICHMAN, JACOB

Laughs from Jewish Lore. The only book of its kind in the English language—a representative collection of Jewish wit and humor. These folk-tales and anecdotes give the reader an insight into true Jewish character and habit of mind and though genuinely funny and witty, they are not to be confused with the familiar "Hebrew yarn" which is offensive and not Jewish, but merely about Jews. The introduction throws most interesting light on the subject of Jewish humor. 12mo, Cloth, 397 pp. $2.00.

From this volume, written in easily understood language for the layman, business men, engineers, young patent solicitors, recruit patent examiners, inventors and mechanics, students of patent law, lawyers with but occasional patent cases, assistants in patent law-offices, and foreign patent agents or solicitors will gain a splendid knowledge of the essential facts regarding the protection of patents, how to secure them, what is patentable, and the procedure of the Patent Office. This new edition contains also the 1927 revisions of the Patent laws; amendments to the rules of practise of the Patent Office putting into effect the 1927 changes in the Patent statutes; the 1927 amended Patent statutes themseives together with certain new forms of value; and material bringing the law of employer-employee rights up to date. The author is a patent attorney of wide experience, who writes interestingly and authoritatively on his subject. Crown 8vo, Law Buckram, 467 pp. $5.00.

"Any one seeking to learn the rudiments of patent soliciting will find therein a systematic statement of the rules and a very illuminating discussion of the art of drafting claims. To the already established practitioner, it will convey many valuable suggestions."—Thomas Ewing, Attorney-at-Law, New York City.

A thoroughly safe, scientific, and sensible work by an authority—the result of 20 years' research and practice. 12mo, Cloth. $2.00, net.

ROSENTHAL, DR. RICHARD S.

The Rosenthal Linguistry System in French, German, Spanish, and Italian. This system has met with world-wide success because it is the natural method of learning a language. It commences by associating words with ideas. By this means the student wastes no time with unnecessary rules of grammar and syntax, but begins to use the language itself at once by saying things that mean something and will be of practical use to him. Every minute devoted to this system results in usable knowledge. The distinguishing feature of this method is the proper selection of a vocabulary that can be employed to advantage in every-day life. This common-sense system of learning foreign tongues in the easiest and most natural way is supplied in four languages, French, German, Italian and Spanish. 12mo. Price for any one language, $6.00.

"This is, without doubt, the simplest, quickest, and most practical method in existence."—N. Y. Times.

"The Rosenthal Method makes study a pleasure and no task, enabling one to make practical use of everything learned."—The Herald, Boston.

The Language Phone Method

The one best means for learning a language successfully. The Rosenthal Linguistry volumes, in conjunction with a phonograph and the recently created Language Phone New Process records—which insure the most perfect reproduction of the human voice yet developed—the student is enabled to hear in the clear, cultured voice of a native professor the right pronunciation of every word as he learns its meaning. This gives him a speaking as well as a reading knowledge of the language from the very first lesson, something that can be obtained by no other system of home instruction. Terms and descriptive literature will be sent on application. (See page insert of detachable post cards facing inside back cover.)

"If there is such a thing as a royal road to language study that road is certainly the Rosenthal Language Phone Method. I have examined dozens of textbooks, as well as all of the phonograph methods of linguistry study, but the Rosenthal is the peer of them all. I have always thought that I possessed a complete literary knowledge of French but I have learned more practical French after devoting three weeks to the Rosenthal method than I learned in four years of college and three years of French study. The enunciation is perfect, and one simply absorbs the verbs, usually the 'bete noire' of language study. For training eye, ear, tongue, memory, the Rosenthal Language Phone Method is unsurpassed, and I cordially recommend it to those who are studying languages by themselves or in class."—Paul R. Martin, Washington, D. C.

SALEEBY, C. W., M.D., F.R.S., Edin.

†The Progress of Eugenics. In 1909 Dr. Saleeby, under the title of "Parenthood and Race Culture," told the story of the Eugenic movement up to that date. He now reviews its progress; deals many a blow at the open opponents of eugenics; and protests vigorously against those who seek to identify the science with theories which he regards brutal in spirit, immoral in principle, and impossible in practise. Crown 8vo, Cloth. $1.50.

"Discussion of the three primary divisions of the subject—Positive Eugenics, or the encouragement of worthy parenthood; Negative Eugenics, or the discouragement of unworthy parenthood; and Preventive Eugenics, or a study of racial poisons—constitutes a study of this subject which should be read by every parent and public-spirited person in the country, to say nothing of its relation to the whole religious and social problem."—Christian Standard, Cincinnati.

SCHAFF-HERZOG ENCYCLOPEDIA OF RELIGIOUS KNOWLEDGE, THE NEW

Embracing Biblical, Historical, Doctrinal, and Practical Theology, and Biblical, Theological, and Ecclesiastical Biography from the Earliest times to the Present day. Based on the celebrated German Hauck-Herzog Realencyklopädie für Protestantische Theologie und Kirche. Prepared by more than six hundred scholars and specialists under the supervision of Samuel Macauley Jackson, D.D., LL.D., Editor-in-Chief, Associate Editor with Dr. Philip Schaff, of the First Edition, Professor of Church History in New York University, with the assistance of Charles Colebrook Sherman, Managing Editor, and George William Gilmore, M.A., Bibliographical Editor; and the following Department Editors: James Frederick McCurdy, Ph.D., LL.D., University College, Toronto; Clarence Augustine Beckwith, D.D., Chicago Theological Seminary; Henry King Carroll, LL.D., Corresponding Secretary Methodist Missionary Society; Henry Sylvester Nash, D.D., Cambridge Theological School; Albert Henry Newman, D.D., LL.D., Baylor University, Texas; John Thomas Creagh, D.D., Catholic University of America, Washington; James Francis Driscoll, D.D., St. Joseph's Seminary. Complete in twelve 8vo volumes, aggregating about six thousand pages and an Extended Index, forming a Supplementary 8vo Volume of 211 pages, compiled with great care, by Prof. George William Gilmore, Associate Editor of the work, to make available, with the least possible expenditure of time to the reader, all its rich treasures of knowledge. In this Index, vocabulary titles are printed in Small Capitals; and all entries are intended to register passages where actual information is given upon the topic suggested. It is notably a working Index, which the student will appreciate for its frequent convenience and its great practical value. Price of the 13 volumes in Buckram, $72; in Half Morocco, $102; in Full Morocco, $128.

"It contains the best and latest information, put together in a catholic spirit, free from rash theorizing and immature conclusions."—Prof. A. H. Sayce, D.D., LL.D., Oxford University.

"Its extent, variety, and accuracy of information are notable. Its digest of facts and its tabular statistics make it indispensable for reference."—M. Woolsey Stryker, D.D., LL.D., Pres. Hamilton College, Clinton, N. Y.

"In its original form this work has been familiar to students for many years. In this edition the original articles have been reconstructed and brought up to date by distinguished American theologians, under the able editorship of Dr. Jackson. Two features are specially worthy of note: The insertion of hundreds of biographies of men of the present generation on the same pages as those of ancient and Scripture history, and the remarkable and extensive bibliography attached to the articles. The latter is probably the most useful feature of the present edition, and could hardly be excelled."—Rev. F. B. Meyer.

"Throughout the entire work there is manifested a spirit of fairness and broad-minded charity towards all. Where a subject admits of discussion, both sides, or all sides, are usually represented by their best available advocate, and this same spirit is evidenced in all articles of a sectarian character."—Herald, Rochester, N. Y.

"It offers a great variety of information, clearly and compactly given, and more interesting to general readers than those who never meddle with reference books can easily understand."—Times, Hartford, Conn.

"It is universal in its scope, embracing all religions, all sects, all creeds, and all variations of religious thought and philosophy, and it covers every phase of ecclesiastical and theologiccal discussions."—Record, Los Angeles, Cal.

SCHARLIEB, DR. MARY

SCHENCK, FERDINAND S., D.D.

Modern Practical Theology. A manual of homiletics, liturgics, poimenics, archagics, pedagogy, sociology, and the English Bible, for the use of preachers, instructors, and students. In each main division of the subject, reference-books and practical studies for students are indicated, the main object of the book being to put theories into practise. 12mo, Cloth, 330 pp. $1.00.

The Ten Commandments and the Lord's Prayer: A Sociological Study. These are striking applications of the everlasting truth contained in the Commandments and the Lord's Prayer. In an original treatment of the great maxims of civilization, the author has been successful in attaining the medium between overstraining a statute and abating its force. 12mo, Cloth. $1.00.

SCHODDE, PROF. GEORGE H. (See Commentary on the New Testament—Weiss.)

SCHOFIELD, ALFRED T., M.D., M.R.C.S.

†Nerves in Disorder. This work aims to dispel ignorance regarding all functional nervous diseases and to set forth scientific principles for successfully treating these troubles, not only by physicians, but also by the sufferers themselves. Present-day life tends to constantly work the brain harder and the body less. This tendency is resulting in an increase of nerve disorders, in a growing menace to bodily health and strength. Dr. Schofield shows how to find out the causes of this wear and tear of the nerves. He cites many cases of sufferers. He explains many cases of remarkable cures. In regulating the economy of health, in attaining the even balance between body and mind vigor, in avoiding, checking, or curing all forms of nervous troubles this work will be found invaluable. 12mo, Cloth, 218 pp. $1.50.

"Dr. Schofield tells in understandable language what functional nervous diseases really are, and the reading of this book will do much to relieve the needless sufferings of nervous people which are due to a lack of understanding of the disease."—Boston Transcript.

SCHOFIELD, ALFRED T., M.D.—Cont'd.

†The Home Life in Order. This book deals with subjects of pressing and every-day interest to us all. Dr. Schofield writes not alone of the household and its hygiene, but of the human body as to its organization, functions, and needs in the matter of care. The author is a prominent physician and lecturer of London. 12mo, Cloth, 345 pp. $2.00.

"Dr. Schofield is a good example of the highest type of modern physician, broad-minded, scientific, clear-headed, and equipped with an enormous fund of information bearing upon the subjects of which he writes."—Good Health, New York.

"Dr. Schofield has a very clear way of putting facts and theories that are generally credited with a sort of inherent obtuseness."—The Springfield Republican.

†The Force of Mind; or, The Mental Factor in Medicine. The action of the mind in the cause and cure of many disorders is considered from new and scientific standpoints in this work, with suggestions for the practical use of this knowledge by physicians and laymen. The author shows that the mental factor is the one out of many ever present in some form in all diseases and how this information can be used by physicians and patients. This volume is endorsed and used as a text-book by the founders and practitioners of the Emmanuel Movement. 12mo, Cloth, 325 pp. $2.00.

"The sanest attempt we have seen to deal with the mental factor in disease. It is a book that every physician ought to read. It will help him to understand why the personal factor counts so much toward the physician's success or failure."—The Medical Standard.

†The Springs of Character. A study of the scientific sources and qualities of character. All that concerns the training of the young and the perfecting of our own lives in every-day professional or business life is treated by the author. 8vo, Cloth, 259 pp., topical index and list of books on the subject. $2.00.

"All the subtle and occult as well as educational and outside agencies that tell upon the developing character are exhaustively considered."—St. Louis Globe-Democrat.

†The Unconscious Mind. Fourth Edition. Its object is to establish the fact of an unconscious mind in man, and to trace in brief some of its powers and the various ways in which they are exhibited. The work seeks to show that this mind is the seat of character and of conscience and spirit-life, and a most important factor in psychical and physical life. The subjects of habit, memory, muscular action, therapeutics, education, sensation, disease, character, sex, etc., are discussed in their relation to the unconscious mind. 8vo, Cloth, 453 pp. With diagram. $3.00.

"It is one of the best works that has been our privilege to examine on the application of the principles and results of the New Psychology. . . . The work has a therapeutic as well as psychological value. It is a work that every college professor and every public-school teacher, as well as every physician and minister, will enjoy."—Baptist Commonwealth, Philadelphia.

SCHUYLER, WILLIAM

Under Pontius Pilate. New Edition. 12mo, Cloth, 352 pp. $1.50.

"The book has the merit of making the events in the life of Christ seem like actual history and as being connected with the great Roman Empire in an intimate way. We can never fully understand Christianity until we give Palestine and its events in Christ's day an exact historical perspective."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

SCOTT, ROBERT. (See under Illustrations for Public Speakers, Cyclopedia of; see under Modern Sermons by World Scholars; see under Church, The People, and The Age, The.)

SCOTT, ROBERT, and GEO. W. GILMORE, Editors

The World's Devotional Classics. Selections forming a set of ten volumes born in the hearts of consecrated men, lived in their lives, and redolent of their saintliness. From the writings of sixty-four such men, covering a wide range. All periods between the old Jewish congregation and the modern Christian Church, all branches of the historic church—Western and Eastern, Latin, Greek, Coptic, Jacobite and Protestant—have been drawn upon. Under different conditions of time, culture, and environment, these writers are seen to be united in breathing and magnifying the life lived in the Spirit of God. For inspiration to private and public devotion these volumes will be found ever abounding and helpful. 16mo, Cloth; in a box. Sold only by subscription.

"Little jewels in any minister's library. They have a real and vital mission."—Rev. K. E. Irvin, Dubois, Pa.

"The selections must approve themselves to all who have religious insight and literary sensibility."—President Charles M. Stuart, Garrett Biblical Institute.

"The richness, beauty, and wealth of thought contained in these volumes make them lasting fountains of inspiration."—Rev. F. W. Tingley, Acton, Mass.

"I have often felt the need of books on devotions and in these ten volumes I find my need supplied."—Rev. W. C. Martin, Pastor M. E. Church, South Durham, N. C.

SERGIEFF, MOST REV. JOHN ILIYTCH

†My Life in Christ. Extracts from the Diary of the Most Reverend John Iliytch Sergieff (Father John). Demy 8vo, Cloth. $3.50.

SERMON BIBLE, THE

A sermon library, containing 4,800 sermon outlines with more than 24,000 homiletical references and embracing the whole of the Sacred Scriptures. It gives the essence of the very best homiletic literature of the present generation, and it is a source of inexhaustible help to the preacher, student, or other Christian worker.

The supreme value of The Sermon Bible lies in its fertility of suggestiveness. Many a preacher or speaker grows weary at times of "seeking for suggestive hints." He wanders over acres of miscellaneous writing and can hunt up nothing pertinent. The process is an exhausting preliminary to the making of a discourse. It will be entirely obviated by judicious resort to the volumes of The Sermon Bible. Upon thousands of text-topics the desired aid will be instantly discovered, and the mind will be set going in the right direction, with an initial impetus toward original thought.

In 12 volumes. 12mo, Cloth. $2.00 per volume; $24.00 per set.

FEATURES OF THE CONTENTS

The plan of the work, in general, gives under each text, each being in its consecutive order from Genesis to Revelation: (1) Outline of important sermons by eminent preachers which exist only in manuscript or periodicals, and are thus inaccessible; or, (2) less full outlines of sermons which have appeared in volumes that are not well known or easily obtained; or, (3) reference to or very brief outlines of sermons which appear in popular volumes such as are likely to be in a preacher's library; and (4) full references to theological treatises, commentaries, etc., where any help is given to the elucidation of the text. Thus the preacher, having chosen his text, has only to refer to the Sermon Bible to find some of the best outlines and suggestions on it and very helpful references to all the aids available.

ARRANGEMENT OF VOLUMES

SHIRLEY, THE HON. RALPH

A Short Life of Abraham Lincoln. The arrangement of peace with the Central Powers has called up so many allusions to Lincoln's handling of the Southern States at the close of the Civil War that this concise and authoritative account of the part he played in preserving the Union and suppressing slavery meets a considerable popular demand. 12mo, Cloth, Illustrated. $1.25.

". . . The bulk of Lincolniana is marred by a tendency to make a god of our great war president; and out of our intense admiration for the man, we have insisted that the bare facts, far from belittling him, tend rather to show more clearly than does panegyric what a moral giant he was. It appears that Ralph Shirley also holds some such view as is here expressed; for there is not a touch of the usual delirious praise in the compact yet comprehensive volume before us. Throughout this story of Lincoln's life is almost bald in its simple factuality; yet we have never read anything on Lincoln that left a more distinct impression of greatness than does Mr. Shirley's work. . . . The book ought to be valuable for supplementary reading in schools."—Journal, Minneapolis.

SHRINER, CHARLES A.

Wit, Wisdom, and Foibles of the Great. Together with Numerous Anecdotes Illustrative of the Character of People and Their Rulers. A fascinating collection of stories that introduce the great men and women of history in a most intimate way. The personal lives of these people, whose public acts form such an important part of history, have been hitherto largely sealed books. But their contents are now revealed in surprizing and interesting form in this authoritative work. Royal Octavo, 696 pp. $5.00.

"A book that is a whole library in itself of the most fascinating reading is 'Wit, Wisdom and Foibles of the Great.' For the person who finds pleasure in reading there can be no more fascinating book, and, of course, it is a gold mine for quotations and witty and humorous stories for public speakers and writers."—San Francisco Call.

"A veritable treasury of interesting pictures of the men we desire to know."—Dr. F. W. Gunsaulus.

"A most entertaining, informing, and useful book. It is filled with apt illustrations of a wide range of subjects of human interest and many most dramatic incidents."—Augustus Thomas, Famous Dramatist.

SMART, ISABELLE THOMPSON, M.D.

The Mysteries of Life. Four volumes that tell plainly and purely the story of sex that is so often difficult for parents to explain and that develop in children a wholesome contempt of impurity. These volumes will counteract the sordid ideas of sex which children many times receive from vague unwholesome whisperings from sources outside your home and will enable you to win their confidence and impart to them the mysteries of life in a clear, understandable way. Warmly recommended by Judge Ben B. Lindsey, of the Juvenile Court of Denver, Colo.; Edwark Bok, of the Ladies' Home Journal; Rev. C. H. Parkhurst, New York; Rev. Francis E. Clark, President United Society for Christian Endeavor; Charles W. Eliot, ex-President of Harvard, and many other prominent authorities.

BOOK I. What a Mother Should Tell Her Little Girl.

BOOK II. What a Mother Should Tell Her Daughter.

BOOK III. What a Father Should Tell His Little Boy.

BOOK IV. What a Father Should Tell His Son.

Small 12mo, Cloth. 75 cents each. $3.00 per set, boxed.

"I have long contended that it was important to teach parents how to advise their own children concerning the mysteries of life, and the set of books—'What A Father Should Tell His Son,'—'What A Mother Should Tell Her Daughter,'—etc., seem to me to be especially well prepared to this end. The four volumes are well prepared and deserve a wide circulation, especially among parents. I hope these books will meet with the reception they deserve."—Judge Ben B. Lindsay of the Juvenile Court of Denver, Col.

"I have now had an opportunity to read the four little books by Dr. Isabelle Thompson Smart, and they seem to me to cover the ground in a very direct way, and yet with that self-restraint that I feel should be characteristic of books on this general subject. I hope they may have a wide sale."—Edward Bok, Editor of The Ladies Home Journal.

SMITH, ISABEL COTTON

The Blue Book of Cookery and Manual of House Management. (Introduction by Emily Post.) This is not "just another cook-book," but an original and authoritative guide for the preparation of foods and for house management. All the originality and importance of this volume would be of limited value unless it were written by so capable and practical an authority as Isabel Cotton Smith. It contains more than 2000 recipes; gives complete information on the management of house and home, with invaluable suggestions for table economy, and includes everything for every season and every day in the year, for every possible repast from breakfast to late supper and from teas and picnic meals to specially designed menus for children at home and at school, as well as menus for vegetarians. Crown 8vo, Washable Fabrikoid, 665 pp., $2.50. Dark blue full flexible Morrocco leather binding, round edges, gold-edged paper, $5.00.

"The Blue Book of Cookery appeals to me as encouraging to the art of American cooking. It contains the most distinguished array of delicate and dainty recipes for the home that I have seen here."—Joseph Boggia, Chef de Cusine, Hotel Plaza, New York.

"I went over all the recipes and I find them so attractive and wonderful. I extend to the authoress my admiration for her accomplishment."—L. Paquet, Chef de Cuisine, Hotel McAlpin, New York.

"I have never seen an American cook-book as comprehensive as The Blue Book of Cookery. Every recipe is so good, so easy to make, that even an amateur cook could not make a mistake. The illustrations, the table service, and the fancy dishes are as excellent as the menus."—Frederick Guillot, Chef de Cusine, Hotel Astor, New York.

"It is the most complete and interesting book of its kind. Every menu and explanation of recipes is so nicely and plainly presented. I gladly recommend the book."—Roger Cretaux, Chef de Cuisine, Hotel Roosevelt, New York City.

"It seems to me a very good book for the housewife and contains many excellent sugestions."—Eugene Thomann, Chef de Cuisine, Waldorf-Astoria, New York City.

SPENCE, EXELL, and NEIL

†Thirty Thousand Thoughts. Thirty thousand choice illustrations, gathered from the best literature of all ages and all countries. For enforcing and enlivening written or spoken words this work aims to be useful to all classes of writers or speakers. Edited by the Very Rev. H. D. M. Spence, D.D.; Rev. Joseph Exell, M.A.; and Rev. Charles Neil, M.A.; with introduction by Rev. Dean Howson, D.D., assisted by a large corps of collaborators. In six volumes. Royal 8vo, Cloth, 3,230 pp., per volume, $6.00; per set, $36.00.

FEATURES OF THE CONTENTS

This Cyclopedia of Illustrations supplies material found in no other reference or other work. It has placed the entire range of literature under contribution. The volumes contain an immense variety of illustrative extracts and quotations, choice and carefully selected literary gleanings of the highest order, anecdotes aiding to define moral and religious truths; historical parallel similitudes—in brief, useful and suggestive thoughts gathered from the best available sources, on all subjects. THE CHURCH.—Church Seasons, Hymns, Ascriptions, Canticles, Sermons, Beatitudes, Commandments, etc. MAN AND HIS LAWS.—His Nature, Constitution, Character, Actions, Influences, Ethics, Sociology, Philosophy, etc. SCRIPTURE.—Bible History, Biography, Geography, Natural History, Ceremonies, Laws, Times, Seasons, Events, etc. THEOLOGY.—Christians, Dogmatics, Prophetics, Miracles, Superstitions, Saints, Divine Attributes, etc.

"It is a veritable thesaurus of valuable information and beautifully expressed thought."—The Interior, Chicago.

"In the spirit of the largest catholicity, and yet without sacrifice of religious fidelity, extracts are taken from ancient and modern preachers of every church and school; from books and from periodicals; from theologians and philosophers, like Prof. Huxley."—British Quarterly Review.

SPURGEON, CHARLES HADDON

†The Treasury of David. An original exposition of the book of Psalms, containing also a collection of illustrative extracts from the entire range of literature, a series of homiletic hints upon almost every verse, and a reference list of writers upon each verse. Mr. Spurgeon considered this the great literary work of his life. It necessitated almost twenty years of research and original writing. Its object is to bring within easy access a profusion of entirely new and original information and light on all the Psalms, without partiality to any single one or group. Its illustrations aim to meet every requirement of the Bible or theological student and to supply homiletical suggestions and illustrations which shall offer the best assistance to the preacher. To laymen in reading the Psalms, this work will disclose new beauties and meanings. It will be of great value when used in connection with home devotional readings. Complete in seven volumes. 8vo, Cloth, per volume, $2.50; per set, $17.50. Sold separately or in the set.

ARRANGEMENT OF THE VOLUMES

(With index to 7 vols.)

"It contains more felicitous illustrations, more valuable sermonic hints, than can be found in all other works on the same book put together."—The Christian Herald, New York.

"This work will prove a storehouse of perpetual spiritual suggestions to the thoughtful preacher."—Zion's Herald, Boston.

"It is surpassed by no other work we have seen on the Psalms."—Louisiville Christian Observer.

"It will prove a standard work on the Psalms for all time . . . invaluable to all preachers and indispensable to every minister's library."—William Ormiston, D.D., New York.

"It is the life-work of the Prince of Preachers. No minister of the Church of Christ for 1800 years has drawn and held such a number of hearers so long. If the secret of his power is here revealed, it will be a Treasury priceless in value for centuries to come."—W. H. Vandoner, D.D.

"It is not too much to say that, as sermons, they stand alone, combining with their pure evangelical doctrine a directness, a simplicity, a transparency, and an effectiveness of style unequaled by any other published sermons by men now in the pulpit or by those of other generations."—The Standard, Chicago.

"Spurgeon's sermons are full of the Gospel and they are full of wise and well-illustrated suggestions as to how one may most effectively preach the Gospel."—Bishop John H. Vincent, D.D., LL.D.

"There are no sermons better worth a preacher's study than Spurgeon's. Preachers ought to study the great models of preaching as artists do their masters, in order to learn their art. Certainly a preacher-peer among the great models was Spurgeon. No preacher can afford to be without his sermons."—Wayland Hoyt, D.D., LL.D.

STANDARD DICTIONARY, THE FUNK & WAGNALLS NEW

A new Creation from A to Z. Four years of time and more than $1,500,000 of money were spent in its production. Over 380 Editors and Specialists were engaged upon it. It has about 3,000 pages; gives over 455,000 living vocabulary terms; contains more than 7,000 illustrations; has dozens of important features not found in any other dictionary; and is as far ahead of the old "Standard" as that was ahead of every other dictionary twenty years ago.

By a system of grouping applied to the names of fruits, coins, weights, measures, stars, trades, etc., the facts concerning this class of words are given with very great fulness. For example, under "African" are given the names of the principal African tribes; under "constellation" are given the names of all the constellations; under "apple" and the other fruits are given the names of the different varieties, often running into hundreds; under "architecture" a list of all architectural terms is given. This feature is exclusive with the Funk & Wagnalls New Standard Dictionary. For the first time in any dictionary lists of Americanisms and Briticisms are given under these words, and each of these is also defined in alphabetical place. (For example, see "aeronautics"; "agriculture"; "bridge-whist"; "gourd.")

The custom in lexicography heretofore has been to arrange a dictionary into several separate and distinct departments—the main vocabulary, a department of proper names, one of geographical names, another of noted names in fiction, and still another of Bible names, and a section of encyclopedic matter, etc., etc. In the arrangement of the Funk & Wagnalls New Standard Dictionary, every word is given its own place in the vocabulary, so that those who consult the book are required to look in only one place for the word that they seek—its proper alphabetical place in the vocabulary. This, it is believed, is the first time that this has been done in any English dictionary.

EXCLUSIVE POINTS OF SUPERIORITY

The Funk & Wagnalls New Standard is the ONLY Dictionary that

1. Covers its entire contents under One Alphabetical Order—a great saving of time.
2. Gives the common, present-day meaning of words first, the obsolete meaning last.
3. Carries two keys for pronunciation on every page of its vocabulary.
4. Uses as one of these the key recommended by the Department of Superintendence of the National Education Association for adoption by that Association.
5. Presents a consensus of correct pronunciation by the decisions of 25 Experts from the leading educational institutions of the English-speaking world.
6. Makes a point of definition by definitive statement.
7. Includes in its vocabulary the simpler spelling of English words recommended for adoption by the Simplified Spelling Board.
8. Follows a systematic method of compounding words.
9. Gives the key-words to the contents of all pages, for aid in consultation.
10. Contains rules governing grammatical and rhetorical construction.
11. Gives the rules for the simplification of spelling.
12. Employs the best and shortest system of respelling for pronunciation—the Revised Scientific Alphabet, 42 symbols for the 42 sounds of the English language.
13. Gives the rules governing the formation of the plurals of nouns, correct forms of address, etc.
14. Gives the name of the female of the principal animals under the name of the male, as, horse, mare.
15. Gives the antidote for each poison under the poison itself, and repeats them all under the antidote.
16. Makes a point of systematically correcting the common errors of speech.
17. Gives 32,000 quotations, in the author's own words and spellings, crediting author, volume, page, section or stanza; publisher and date of publication.
18. Gives 7,500 separate lists of synonyms, with discussion of more than 23,000 synonymous terms.
19. Gives antonyms—nearly 5,000 of them.
20. Gives the exact date of an event, if obtainable, in biographical, historical, geographical, and other entries.
21. Shows the latest change in form of government of territorial divisions in America and Europe.
22. Records a day-by-day history of the world, covering 31,000 facts in this record alone. In subscription editions only.
23. Presents the most authoritative and latest data on Geological Science as a result of consultation with experts of the U. S. Geological Survey.
24. Shows pictorial illustrations carefully directed by experts in specialties—such as Orville Wright in aviation, Frederick Sammis in wireless telegraphy, etc.
25. Has made a feature of illustrations representing appliances for protecting human life.
26. Locates Bible-names by book, chapter, and verse, so as to be easily found.

"There is no single book of reference so useful and so accurate as the Funk & Wagnalls Standard Dictionary."—Edward S. Holden, Librarian, United States Military Academy, West Point, N. Y.

"I am really astonished at the amount of information compressed into so small a volume. You have given us a biographical dictionary, a geographical gazetteer, and an encyclopedia under the guise of an English dictionary. Your dictionary will for me supersede several dictionaries that I have been obliged to use together in order to gain the information now furnished in this one volume."—W. H. P. Faunce, D.D., LL.D., President, Brown University.

"It is the most complete and useful lexicon of the English language yet published."—Guy Potter Benton, D.D., LL.D., President, The University of Vermont.

STANDARD DICTIONARY, THE PRACTICAL

Also published as The College Standard Dictionary. Edited by Frank H. Vizetelly, Litt.D., LL.D. An unparalleled achievement in abridged dictionary making. Outranks the Funk & Wagnalls Desk Standard Dictionary as the largest abridged dictionary published. It is, in reality, only semi-unabridged, for it contains 140,000 vocabulary terms—about 40,000 more than its nearest competitor. One outstanding feature is the ample treatment given to faulty diction. The subjects specially edited for this volume, so as to provide the latest material, are Anatomy, Biology, Botany, Chemistry, Church Terms, Engineering, Entomology, Forestry, Geology, Medicine, Mineralogy, Pathology, Physics, Physiology, Psychoanalysis, Psychology, Radiotelegraphy, Radiotelephony, Therapeutics, War Terms.

SIMPLE PRONUNCIATION SYSTEM.—The system of pronunciation is simple and easily understood.

ACCURATE ILLUSTRATIONS.—Over 2,500 tasteful illustrations of high definite value.

COMPOUNDING FEATURE.—The difference between compound words and broken words at ends of lines is invariably indicated.

FOREIGN WORDS AND PHRASES.—There are eleven pages at the end of the book devoted to Foreign Words, Phrases, etc., current in English Literature.

CAPITALIZATION FEATURE.—Only such words as require capital initial letters are capitalized, thus providing a sure guide for capitalization.

FULL AND EXACT DEFINITIONS.—All words are defined by definitive statement, and the meanings of terms are given in simple words instead of by abstruse and often ill-defined synonyms.

CLEAR ETYMOLOGIES.—All etymologies are traced back in direct line, there being no guesses or incursions into cognate languages.

ERRORS IN SPEECH AND WRITING.—It makes a point of systematically correcting errors in Speech and Writing.

PREPOSITIONS, SYNONYMS, AND ANTONYMS.—It provides over 1,000 prepositions, illustrating their correct use, and furnishes 8,000 synonyms and antonyms.

ENGLISH CLASSICS FEATURE.—Meanings of all reputable words used in the English Classics by the Fathers of English Literature: Chaucer, Spenser, Shakespeare, Bacon, Jonson, Milton, and others of like fame.

"In its scholarship, convenience and usefulness one of the best dictionaries now existing."—E. A. Alderman, Ph.B., LL.D., D.C.L., President, University of Virginia.

"It is so far superior to any other American dictionary of its size that it will be welcomed by every one who wants a handy reference book."—Philadelphia Public Ledger.

"For every one who speaks or writes the English language this Standard Dictionary will prove a most helpful and unfailingly accurate guide to correct speech and writing."—Portland Oregonian.

"None may question the scholarship and executive ability which have gone into the making of this new and remarkably comprehensive work of reference."—Providence Journal.

"A wonderful volume! We have been studying it carefully, off and on, for about six weeks, and have not yet found it wanting under any test we have applied."—London Methodist Recorder.

"These two essentials—handy size and wide-ranging vocabulary—have been met in this new volume in a manner never approached by a dictionary not of unabridged size."—Portland (Ore.) Express.

STANDARD DICTIONARY, THE DESK

Abridged from the Funk & Wagnalls' New Standard Dictionary. Contains 83,000 terms of all kinds in its one vocabulary order; 7,200 Proper Names of all kinds; 11,700 lines of Synonymic Treatment and 754 Antonyms; 1,200 pictorial illustrations, 1,200 foreign phrases. In addition to its other features, many of them exclusive, the Funk & Wagnalls Desk Standard Dictionary contains numerous full-page illustrations, scientifically correct and unusually attractive, which visualize for you the information sought, such as the page plates of Agricultural Implements—Bark of Trees—Examples of Architecture—Types of Land and Water Birds—Types of Cattle—Types of Dogs—Food and Game Fishes—Types of Flowers—Types of Horses—Types of Fowls—Common American Leaves, etc. James C. Fernald, L.H.D., editor. Large 8vo, Cloth, 902 pp. $2.00; Indexed, $2.25; Leather back, $2.50; indexed, $2.75. Flexible Leather, Indexed, Boxed, $6.00. Exquisitely bound in full crushed Levant, gilt edges, hand tooled, raised bands, boxed, $12.00.

SOME EXCLUSIVE FEATURES

ONE ALPHABETICAL ORDER.—The only Dictionary arranged for Secondary School use in one alphabetical order throughout.

A DOUBLE KEY.—The only Dictionary that uses the key recommended by the Department of Superintendence of the National Education Association and the Text-Book Key used for indicating sounds in primers, spellers, readers and text-books generally.

SIMPLER ENGLISH SPELLINGS.—The only Dictionary for such use that includes in its vocabulary the simpler spellings of English words recommended for adoption by the Simplified Spelling Board and the American Philological Association.

COMMONEST MEANINGS FIRST.—The only Dictionary for such use that gives the commonest meanings first, following with the less common, archaic and obsolete.

SYLLABIC DIVISION.—The only Dictionary for such use in which the syllabic division of words at the ends of lines has been systematized as an aid to writers and printers.

IN ITS ETYMOLOGIES.—The only Dictionary for such use that in its etymologies systematically transliterates all Greek, Arabic, Hebrew, Sanskrit and other terms, for greater ease of consultation, that they may be readily read by persons having no knowledge of the original languages.

COMPOUNDING SYSTEMATIZED.—The only Dictionary for such use that follows a systematic method for the compounding of words, and indicates all hyphenated compounds by the double hyphen (=) to distinguish them from words divided at the end of lines by the single hyphen (-).

"The Desk Dictionary is excellent in its arrangement, in its mechanical devices, in its recognition of simplified spelling, and in its admirable adaption for daily use (as distinguished from occasional consultation)."—Professor Brander Matthews, Columbia University.

"This is a dictionary that should be in every man's office today, and of which Sir Gilbert Parker, the novelist, writes from London: 'I have been delighted to see that this new Desk Standard Dictionary contains innumerable examples of information usually absent from books of reference.' "—Constitution, Atlanta, Ga.

"I admire its compact and convenient arrangement, its listing of all words under one head, its clear indications of pronunciation, its recognition of modern spellings."—Professor Hall Grandgent, Harvard University.

STORY, MARGARET

How to Dress Well. (The Blue Book of Personal Attire). A valuable treatise by an authority which considers dress for women from both the artistic and the practical view-points, and provides sound information on the principles of tasteful and attractive apparel. Not only does this book give details for enhancing one's personal appearance, for slenderizing the stout, for broadening the slender, for the selection of head-wear and other accessories, but also practical guidance for the selection and testing of materials, choosing of laces and furs, budgeting the dress allowance, and for the care and up-keep of the wardrobe. 15 illustrations and two full-page color charts. 8vo, Cloth, about 400 pages. $3.50.

"'How to Dress Well' is a veritable encyclopedia of clothes. Colors, fabrics, design, clothes for occasions, shopping manners and proportionate expenditure are supplemented by detailed directions for the care of the body."—Evening Post, Chicago, Ill.

"The book is enjoyable to dip into at any time. Its appeal is not only to those of great wealth but to any woman regardless of the amount she may have to spend on her attire."—News, Buffalo, N. Y.

"I think you have summed up a technical subject in a wonderfully constructive and entertaining way."—Carolyn T. R. Lewis.

WORLD'S GREAT SERMONS, THE

(See under Kleiser, Grenville.)

WRIGHT, LEWIS

†The New Book of Poultry. Gives the origin of and full data on all important breeds, and fully explains the standards of perfection by which you can judge each as to color, size, etc.

In addition, it gives you chapters on such all-important topics as, Mendelism and Its Application to Poultry-Breeding; The Science of Feeding Poultry; Practical Management and Feeding of Fowls; The Egg and Sitting Hen; Artificial Incubation; Rearing and Care of Chickens; Poultry for the Table; Poultry Farming; Exhibition Poultry and Utility; Pedigree or Line Breeding; Practical Breeding and Rearing of Prize Poultry; Exhibiting; Shows — Judging — Trimming—Technical Terms; Poultry Diseases and Lice, Vermin, etc. Also three chapters on Turkeys, Guinea Fowl and Pea Fowl, Ducks and Ornamental Water Fowl, and Geese and Swans.

Contains 30 full-page illustrations in colors true to life. Profusely illustrated with drawings, wood-cuts, half-tones and plans. 4to, Cloth, Gold Lettering. $8.50.

XANTHES

(See "Mental Efficiency Series.")

YEZIERSKA, ANZIA

Children of Loneliness. A collection of vivid, gripping short stories which describe as no other author has done the loneliness, the aspirations, and the struggles of the immigrant. Herself an immigrant, Anzia Yezierska is one of the few to make the fight from the tenements to success and retain the imagination and the will to write of the innermost aspirations and the deepest sufferings of these newcomers to our shores. There is a vigor and intenseness about these stories that can scarcely fail to make a profound impression upon the reader. 12mo, Cloth, $2.00.

"'Children of Loneliness' pictures vividly that tragedy which is the gulf between the immigrant parents, still clinging to the old ways, and their Americanized children. The book has color and a dramatic quality."—New York Times Book Review.

YORITOMO-TASHI

YOUNG, LILLIAN E.

Pussy Willow's Naughty Kittens. A fascinating story and picture book. The story is simply and delightfully told, with plenty of happy and amusing incidents, to insure enraptured attention. The 19 multicolor illustrations are not only beautiful but through a new and unique arrangement are especially appealing to children. Prominent in several of the full-page illustrations are doors so arranged that they may be opened, exposing the characters in the illustrations on the following page. In this way the child's interest is kept at fever heat for finding out what new surprize awaits behind these closed doors. 8¾ inches wide and 10¾ inches high. Beautifully illustrated. Aluminum cutting panel included. Cloth. $2.00.

YOUNG, ROBERT, LL.D.

†Young's Analytical Concordance to the Bible. (New and Revised Edition.) Unquestionably the greatest Bible Concordance ever issued. Exhibiting 311,000 references, marking 30,000 New Testament readings. It gives the original Hebrew or Greek of any word in the English Bible with the literal meaning of each, together with parallel passages. This is the only authorized edition in America.

THE 20th EDITION marks a great advance on all editions previous. Thoroughly revised with scrupulous care. Valuable and important SUPPLEMENTS in the shape of Index Lexicons to the Old and the New Testaments have been made, which will prove of great service to those unacquainted with Hebrew or Greek, including a Complete List of Scripture Names and a Sketch of Recent Explorations in Bible Lands.

In one volume, 4to, Cloth, 1,244 pp., $7.50; Half Morocco, $15.00. With Denison Thumb-Index, 75 cents extra.

Bible Paper Edition. Full limp Morocco, $24.00; Cloth, $17.00, both styles with Thumb Index.

FEATURES OF THE CONTENTS

Its Analytical Character.—It gives at a glance the various shades of meaning of related words represented in the English by one word. Arrangement of Proper Names.—The proper names of all persons and places, unlike most concordances, are given in their alphabetical order with meanings. Dates and areas of all persons are also given, so that they may be distinguished from others of the same name.

YOUNGHUSBAND, MAJ.-GEN. SIR GEORGE, K.C.M.G., and DAVENPORT, CYRIL, F.S.A.

The Crown Jewels of England. A sumptuous volume, giving the history and antecedents as well as a complete description of the various famous jewels in the possession of the British crown and their settings. Beautifully illustrated in color. Large 8vo, Cloth. $20.00.

ZABRISKIE, FRANCIS N.

Horace Greeley: The Editor. Vol. II. of "American Reformers" Series. With portrait and copious index. 12mo, Cloth, 398 pp. $1.75.

ZENOS, PROF. ANDREW C., D.D.

The Elements of the Higher Criticism. Does not advocate or oppose any set of theories. 12mo, Cloth. $1.00.

ZIMMERN, ALICE

ZWEMER, SAMUEL M., D.D., F.R.G.S.

Raymond Lull. From the dissolute gay knight he became a monk; wrote uncounted volumes; made daring missionary trips; and served as a Christian hero fifty years. 12mo, Cloth. 75 cents.

COMPLETE PRICE LIST

This list is arranged alphabetically by authors and, in addition, under subjects or series. For greater convenience a few books are listed also by title.

The code words, in italics, which may be used in ordering by telegraph, are from Bentley's Complete Phrase Code, Improved. The original meanings of the Bentley Code have been disregarded, and our own titles have been substituted. The Bentley Code, therefore, should not be used in messages containing orders for our books. Our cable address is Eginn, Boston, New York, or San Francisco.

The conditions under which keys for teachers' use may be obtained will be furnished on application to any one of our offices.

A CONCISE CATALOGUE

of the Publications of

The Publishers invite the careful attention of all interested in the dissemination of good literature to the contents of this catalogue, as it is the most important offering ever made of good books at modest prices.

GROSSET & DUNLAP, Publishers

140 BROADWAY (at 26th Street) NEW YORK

FOREWORD

IN this catalogue you will find listed not only the best works of fiction, but a splendid assortment of clean, wholesome books for boys and girls, and delightful series of children's books of decided educational value, entertainingly written.

In building the home library nothing could be better than the Grosset & Dunlap books, for they enable the reader to purchase two books for the price of one. And moderate prices do not mean that these books have been compelled to suffer either as to workmanship, durability or attractiveness, for they will be found in every way desirable volumes to add to the library.

Wherever books are sold, Grosset & Dunlap publications may be obtained; but where bookshops are not available, any books will be sent on receipt of price by the publishers.

Keep this catalogue where it will be easy to refer to it.

GROSSET & DUNLAP, Publishers
1140 Broadway (at 26th Street)
NEW YORK

THE aim of the publishers in compiling this INDEX OF GOOD FICTION has been to furnish the book-lover and the book-buyer with a list of nearly all of the fiction successes of recent years, now available at popular prices. Popular Copyrights are re-issues of books that have been on the market in the higher-priced editions for a period of about two years. They are not books upon which the copyright has expired. The same copyright protects both the original edition and the Popular Copyright. These books are printed from the same plates as the original editions. All are complete and unabridged and are reissued by a special arrangement between the author, the original publishers and Grosset & Dunlap to be sold at a popular price.

CHUCKLES AND GRINS....F. K. Mathiews

It is a book boys can grow up with, for there is something a boy can turn to in this big jumbo book every day in the year. Perhaps you would like to know how to do magic tricks, or how to make a skate sail, or how to do the squirm dance, or how to make bows and bow strings. This book tells you how.

WILD ANIMAL TRAILS....F. K. Mathiews

Let's take the trail, boys, that leads through this big jumbo book. First we'll have some wonderful adventures—all about the "thousand dollar reward," "the quest of the diamond cave" and other red-blooded thrills. Then we'll meet a lot of wild animals in stories by Dr. Hornaday, "Grizzly" Smith and others. You'll find them the best wild animal yarns you've ever read!

The Tom Swift Books

By Victor Appleton

Every boy possesses some form of inventive genius, and there is no real, live boy who has not planned at some time to invent a marvelous machine which will revolutionize the world.

It is the purpose of these spirited tales to portray in a realistic way the wonderful advances in land and sea locomotion and the conquest of the air, and to interest the boy of the present in the hope that he may be a factor in the development of the future. Tom Swift is a bright, ingenious boy, and his inventions and adventures make the most interesting kind of reading.

The Tom Slade Books

(Endorsed by the Boy Scouts of America)

By Percy Keese Fitzhugh

"Let your boy grow up with Tom Slade," is a suggestion which thousands of parents have followed during the past, with the result that the TOM SLADE BOOKS, by the same author as the ROY BLAKELEY STORIES, are the most popular boys' books published today. They take Tom Slade out of the unwholesome surroundings of Barrel Alley and carry him through a series of typical boy adventures through his tenderfoot days, through his manly experiences as a scout, through his gallant days as an American doughboy in France, back to his old patrol and the old camp ground at Black Lake, and so on.

Beautiful individual picture wrappers in colors. Handsomely illustrated.

The Roy Blakeley Books

By Percy Keese Fitzhugh

In the character and adventures of Roy Blakeley are typified the very essence of Boy life. He is a real boy, as real as Huck Finn and Tom Sawyer. He is the moving spirit of the troop of Scouts of which he is a member, and the average boy has to go only a little way in the first book before Roy is the best friend he ever had, and he is willing to part with his best treasure to get the next book in the series.

The books are all beautifully bound, with fascinating illustrations, and with irresistible wrappers showing Roy Blakeley and his famous grin.

MARCHING ALONG

Recollections of Men, Women and Music

By John Philip Sousa

John Philip Sousa, musician extraordinary, has written the story of his life. Modestly and simply he tells it, full-flavored with incident and anecdote, with mellow humor and kindly wisdom.

The life-story of this remarkable man—from baker's boy to "March King"—is the romance of a patriot through the years from the Civil War to the World War and after, of a staunch American and a world-citizen. Author, teacher, conductor, composer, musician, trap-shooter—the only living man who has served in every branch of the United States Service. More than a book for music lovers; this is an epic of struggle, triumph, of friendship with actors, artists, sportsmen, presidents and kings. In brief, the half-century's adventures of a man who is still a vital figure in contemporary American life.

"Uncommonly interesting, important and readable."—Boston Herald. "The great musician is as skilled with his pen as he is with his baton. There is not a dull page in the volume. Told in a manner which wins the hearts of the readers from the opening pages. A book of interest to every American."—Boston Globe. "Mr. Sousa's book belongs with Mark Sullivan's 'Our Times' as supplementary reading on the turn of the century."—Harry Hansen in New York World. "The truth is, Sousa has probably shot more delightful shivers up more people's backs than any other man in the world, alive or dead. Writes as entertainingly as he conducts or composes."—Walter Yust in Philadelphia Public Ledger. "To those who have seen him leading his band, all that is necessary to say regarding this autobiography is that it is just as compelling—he writes with relatively the same intent directness and sense of values as he conducts. Its indomitable optimism and courage cannot but hearten and inspire. This is precisely the 'laurel of Delphi' which John Philip Sousa would desire above all others."—Boston Transcript.

THE CANTERBURY TALES of GEOFFREY CHAUCER

Illustrations in Full Color After Twenty-four Paintings by W. Russell Flint, A. R. A.

This edition of one of the classics of all literature will at once take its place as the most beautiful book of this year—and of many years. Produced jointly with The Medici Society of London and Jonathan Cape of London, it presents to the thousands of American admirers of Mr. W. Russell Flint, A. R. A., the English water-color painter, twenty-four exquisitely beautiful reproductions in full color, illustrating the intensely human pages of Chaucer's great poem. The Wife of Bath, the Knight, the Man of Law, the Shipman, the Prioress—they and the others live again through the interpretation, at once vigorous and sensitive, of Mr. Flint's brush.

"It is not, one acknowledges," writes Mr. Morton Dauwen Zabel, in an article on Mr. Flint and his work, in Art and Archaeology, "outside the limits of an individual appraisal to allow that in the wide scope which modern art embraces—a scope proud in promise, discovery, and revolt—there are heartening signs which have already led to fulfillment and even to accepted and complete triumph. But the artist of our time who recognizes with analytical soundness the surer merits of a tradition, and is able to achieve beyond them his own individuality, is the one we are safe in acclaiming as real. Mr. Flint's ranking in this light makes his position secure and the interest he offers unquestionable. Safely beyond the fickle judgment that accompanies ever-changing modes in art, his technical contribution to water-color painting gives special point to that position and to that interest.

"His sincerity and purpose have brought to Mr. Flint honors, recognition, and rewards, so that his pictures, unhappily rare in American museums, hang in public and private galleries in many cities of Europe and the British Empire."

THE JUSTICE OF ALLAH

By William Ransted Berry

This is not a detective story nor a problem novel. Perhaps it is something better —or at least as good—with a difference. Its mystery is the mystery of Love, its charm that of old Romance. Its setting is the Levant, in that part of Asiatic Turkey which to the Greeks was once Ionia.

Some seventy years ago a little English lad, Tommie McAdam, climbed over the side of the old square-rigger which had brought him to visit his uncle, a merchant in the busy port of Sykia, and though his voyage had been long and strange it was but the first chapter of a story stranger still. Love was to come to him, and adventure, peril, and, finally, as it should, happiness. The story of this lad, growing to manhood in Sykia, and of the daughter of a Pasha, is told by the old Consul, with such command of the story-teller's art that the most jaded reader of modern fiction should follow the conflict that comes in these pages, when East meets West, with an interest sustained to the very end, and, with a satisfied glance at the mysterious skull of Nouri Bey, close the book convinced—for the tale is as one founded on fact—that he has taken part in events that really came to pass.

INDIAN STORY AND SONG FROM NORTH AMERICA

By Alice C. Fletcher

A standard collection revealing the wealth of musical and dramatic material to be found among the natives of our country—aboriginal songs with their stories, or with the ceremonies which gave rise to them, gathered directly from the people, in their homes or at their ceremonials, by Miss Alice Fletcher, a distinguished American ethnologist. The melodies, thirty of them, are exactly as sung by the Indians. "These songs are like the wild flowers that have not yet come under the transforming hand of the gardener."

Cloth. Small 12 mo. $1.50.

THE LAST VOYAGE OF THE KARLUK

By Robert A. Bartlett and Ralph T. Hale

The Karluk was the flagship of Vilhjalmar Stefansson's Canadian Arctic Expedition of 1913–18 and was under the command of Captain Robert A. Bartlett, already famous as the master of Peary's ship, the Roosevelt, and as having reached a higher latitude (88° N.) than any other white man who ever lived, excepting only Peary himself.

In "The Last Voyage of the Karluk" is told the story of the ship's wonderful drift, of her sinking, of the life of her company in "Shipwreck Camp" many hundreds of miles out on the ice of the Arctic Ocean north of Behring Strait, of their journey to Wrangell Island, of Captain Bartlett's crossing to Siberia and his seven-hundred mile walk with his young Eskimo companion to bring help to his marooned comrades—a story which Theodore Roosevelt said "demands the serious consideration of all who are interested in adventure and scientific work in the Far North. It is a very striking and interesting series of adventures."

"The narrative, from the terse sentence, 'We did not all come back,' with which it opens, is told with striking directness and simplicity. It is a story of heroism which will have an enduring place in the literature of polar exploration."—Living Age.

Illustrated from charts and photographs.

WE VISIT OLD INNS

By Mary Harrod Northend

Miss Northend takes her readers on a pilgrimage to historic inns of New England, more than twenty of them. The picturesque life of Colonial days, of stage-coaches, and "ordinaries" is revived and the lover of antiques—of clocks, tobies, mirrors, four-posters, lanterns, pewter and old glass—finds them here in abundance, in their appropriate setting.

Profusely illustrated with photographs.
Cloth. Octavo. $3.00

MERRY ANDREW

By F. Roney Weir

A wholesome love story that reflects the fresh out-of-doors setting, a group of people who make us like our fellow men, and a plot that develops naturally and delightfully. It is the kind of book that can be read with enjoyment by a boy or girl of thirteen—and with equal enjoyment by men and women—admiring the sturdy courage with which "Mary Ann" Drew, capable and confident, brings order out of chaos on her grandfather's farm.

FROLICS WITH UNCLE YULE

By A. Hugh Fisher

Once upon a time (all good juveniles begin thus) a young English artist found time, in an absorbingly busy life, to toss off daily letters "from Uncle Yule" to a child friend. These bubbled with droll description, wonderful rambling stories and merry nonsense verses. And with them—such pictures! Drawings with pen, pencil or brush, whatever came to hand. Tigers that yawned delightfully, fishes that wore straw hats, monkeys that fairly winked at you, lions going out for a walk in top hat and cane! No wonder the little boy watched eagerly for the postman.

With the appearance this fall of "Frolics with Uncle Yule" other children are to share that keen delight and to shout over these very same drawings that went prancing through the British mails in envelopes adorned with dragons and bulldogs!

Today Mr. Fisher is known to grownups in England and America as a master-etcher, a man whose artistic interpretations are always powerful, beautiful and sympathetic. In this, his lighter and more careless mood, he is lovable and informal, his appeal being essentially to the child-heart which he well understands.

By Captain Charlton L. Smith

Every boy who sails a boat, and loves the ocean, will want to know sturdy Gus Harvey. An orphan at fifteen, he was adopted by the big-hearted captain of a Gloucester fishing vessel and taken from New York to Cape Ann. He learns much of the sailor's lore and builds his own skiff. The author, formerly a deep-water man, with the experience of many years at sea, not only tells a real story but also weaves into it an astonishing amount of practical information about ships and seamanship. There are diagrams and a full glossary of nautical terms.

THE NEW WORLD LOOSE LEAF ATLAS

The world is ever moving, changing, progressing. Each passing month leaves its mark upon the map. New cities are born; new counties are created; even new nations sometimes spring into existence. Railroads extend their lines; new water routes are opened; new lands are discovered, and every change makes the old-fashioned, permanently bound atlases more and more out of date, less and less accurate and dependable.

The New World Loose Leaf Atlas

is not bound in the old-fashioned way. It is in reality a collection of maps held firmly together by a loose leaf binder from which individual maps, when they become obsolete, may be removed and replaced by new ones.

It is generally recognized that maps have become indispensable in business, in school, and in the home. They are essential to complete understanding of the newspaper dispatches we read each day and of the great international questions which are constantly arising. The maps, however, must be down to date and complete, otherwise the false impressions will result in worse confusion than if no maps at all were consulted. Since bound atlases become old within a few months after their p chase, the New World Loose Leaf Atlas alone vides a satisfactory, convenient and econom solution.

Each owner of the Atlas receives twice a y sets of Correction Maps to be inserted in his A in place of the old ones which have become obso through recent changes. These maps are printe single pages, uniform in size with those in the A so that when they are inserted, the book is as c plete and down to date as on the day of purcha

Not only is the New World Loose Leaf A under constant revision and improvement but i TO-DAY

Graphic Pictures Of Actual Conditio

The Physical and Economic maps are full vital information, enabling one to visualize existi conditions in all parts of the globe. The maps sh relief, climate, temperature, vegetation, populati mining and agricultural products, and many oth phenomena.

THE ATLAS THAT NEVER GROWS OLD

The World In Maps

The maps of Foreign Countries show the world as it is today. Every country is shown on large scale and in great detail. For instance, five pages of maps are devoted to France, three to China, seven to South America, nine to Canada, etc. These maps, show the mountains and hills in gray, water areas on the 78 Historical Maps in the New World Loose Leaf Atlas. This series of maps will enable you to trace the whole course of events from ancient times to the present day.

History Is Graphically Told

The Maps Of The United States

are exceptionally fine ones, being engraved on large scales with a vast amount of detail. Many of the states are shown on double page plates. With very few exceptions, these maps show every post-office and railroad station in the country, as well as all counties, rivers, reservoirs, parks, etc. Every mile of railroad, both steam and electric, is shown.

Complete And Usable Indexes

The index of each map appears on the pages immediately preceding and following the map, so that a place may be located quickly by means of the index references. The indexes include every county, or other minor sub-division, city, town, village, and hamlet with latest population figures.

The 390 Maps In The Atlas

vary in size but most of them measure 11 x 18 inches. The pages are uniformly 13½ x 19½ inches and have four holes punched along the inner edge, to fit over the posts of the binder. The removable front cover holds the sheets firmly in place and is itself fastened to the back cover by screws at top and bottom. When new sheets are to be inserted, these screws are easily loosened by twisting them with a silver coin.

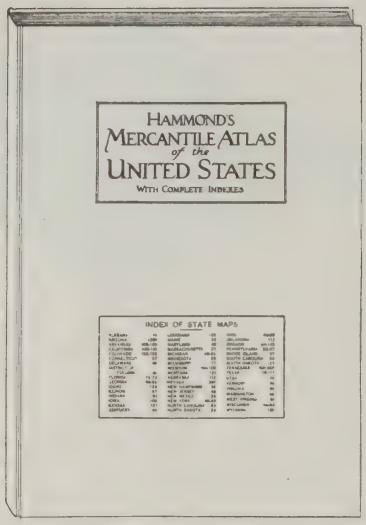
The loose leaf binder is covered with handsome, red crash and stamped in gold and blue.

The Necessity For Such An Atlas

is best illustrated by the rapidity with which important changes have occurred in the past. Every year since the New World Loose Leaf Atlas was first published, changes have affected from 64 to 128 of its pages, and Correction Sheets have accordingly been mailed subscribers for insertion in their books. This clearly shows how quickly a bound atlas becomes obsolete and unreliable, and how economical and essential are this Loose Leaf Atlas and its Correction Sheet Service.

PRICE, including two installments of Correction Sheets, $50.00.

HAMMOND'S MERCANTILE ATLAS OF THE UNITED STATES



This large, new atlas has been produced from an entirely new set of plates containing the latest information collected from Government, State, and private sources. It is especially designed for the business executive, manufacturer, shipper, and sales manager.

THE MAPS

show in one or more plates for each state, all cities, towns, villages, post-offices, railroad stations, counties, rivers, railroads, and interurban electric lines. Because of the great importance of transportation this new series of maps indicates the railroad routes by special red plates bearing numbers designating the different railroads.

The indexes give the latest population statistics for counties and incorporated places, and locate every city, town, village, post-office and railroad station.

THE POSTAL AND SHIPPING GUIDES

The Postal Guide gives under one alphabetical arrangement by states every post-office in the United States, followed by the name of the county. The parcel-post unit number of each post-office is given. In connection with this Postal Guide, a detailed parcel-post map with transparent zone plate centered on the user's post-office and fastened securely enables the user to determine immediately the zone and the amount of postage required to carry any parcel-post package to any post-office in the United States or its overseas territories. No other single compilation applicable to any one of the 60,000 mailing points gives this information in such comprehensive form.

The Shipping Guide is indispensable for quick reference to railroad and express information. It names in alphabetical order all railways in operation and the express company or companies operating over same.

SPECIAL MAPS

in this atlas include such useful subjects as the Standard Time Divisions, Inland Waterways, Airmail Routes, and Distance Tables, our Overseas Territories, a new series of Highway Maps showing distances on intra- and interstate routes, and naming the principal routes, an invaluable series for use in locating Motor Bus and Freight Hauling Lines.

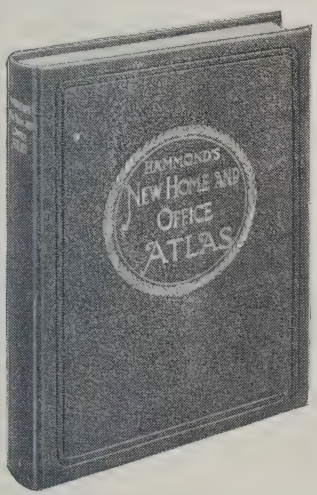
BINDING

The 212 pages in the MERCANTILE ATLAS are bound in serviceable dark blue canvas crash with gold stampings. The size of the book is 14 x 20 inches.

PRICE $24.00

HAMMOND'S HOME and OFFICE ATLAS

This splendid new book contains a complete series of political, historical, physical, and economic maps. Among them are 99 pages devoted to the countries of the World, the Canadian provinces, and the states of the United States as they are today. The maps are most complete in detail including all railroads and practically all cities and towns. Many of the maps occupy two or more pages.



SPECIAL MAPS

History is graphically told on the historical maps in the Home and Office Atlas. This series enables one to trace the whole course of events from ancient times to the present day. By examining the maps depicting political boundaries at various periods of the world's history, it is possible to read a fascinating romance of the rise and fall of empires, of conquest, exploration, colonization, commerce. There are 32 pages of these historical maps.

Sixteen pages are devoted to physical and economic maps of the World, the Continents, and the United States, printed in colors to show economic, physical, climatic, vegetation, and population features.

THE ILLUSTRATED GAZETTEER

This thirty-two page section of the atlas describes the countries of the World and is profusely illustrated by halftone reproductions of some of the World's rarest and fairest views. The gazetteer starts with Afghanistan and proceeds alphabetically, telling, in concise but comprehensive paragraphs, of the physical characteristics, principal mining and agricultural products, communications, and government of each country.

THE INDEXES

These include a very complete index of foreign cities arranged alphabetically for the whole world, an index of cities of the United States having 100 or more inhabitants, and an index of Canadian cities. The latest population figures are used in all these compilations. There is also a two-page Gazetteer-Index of the countries, states, and colonies of the World, giving area, population, and capital.

A HANDSOME BOOK

Substantially bound in blue leatherette, a beautiful new binding material more durable than either cloth or leather. The title is embossed in gold on front and side. The top of the book is handsomely gilded.

SIZE OF BOOK, CLOSED, 10 x 12½ inches. 250 PAGES.

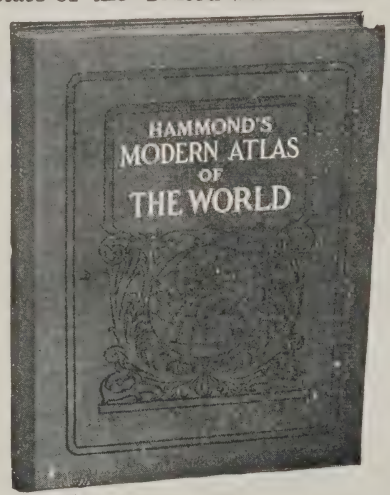
HAMMOND'S MODERN ATLAS OF THE WORLD

THE RECOGNIZED STANDARD FOR TWENTY-FIVE YEARS

The new and enlarged edition of this fine atlas contains 194 pages of colored maps and complete indexes. Every map plate has been thoroughly revised to date or entirely re-engraved, so that the atlas shows THE WORLD AS IT IS TODAY.

The book includes separate maps of every foreign country, every state of the United States and every province of Canada. They show all counties (or minor sub-divisions), railroads, cities and towns, and include the latest changes in names and boundaries.



In addition to the 128 pages of down to date political maps, the Modern Atlas contains 16 pages devoted to PHYSICAL and ECONOMIC MAPS of the World, the grand divisions, and the United States. This new feature is of unusual value, because it presents graphically much information that cannot be obtained elsewhere. These maps, printed in 6 to 14 colors, show at a glance physical features, annual range of temperature, industrial, agricultural, non-productive regions, and natural resources. There are also maps showing the notable long distance air flights of the past year or two, as well as other helpful and interesting aviation information.

A very COMPREHENSIVE INDEX OF CITIES AND TOWNS is included in this splendid atlas. This compilation, alphabetically arranged for the whole world, contains the latest population figures for each place, the index references and the plate where it will be found. The advantage of having one A. to Z. index is apparent, for a town may be found instantly, even though the country in which it is located is not known.

Other indexes give the latest population figures and index references for all incorporated cities, towns, and villages in the United States and Canada. Another helpful compilation is a GAZETTEER-INDEX of the World. This is an alphabetical list of grand divisions, countries, states, colonial possessions, etc. with area, population, capital, and index references of each.

Size of book when closed, 10 x 12½ inches, 194 Pages of Maps and Index.
Durably Bound in Red Silk Vellum DeLuxe with attractive stamping.

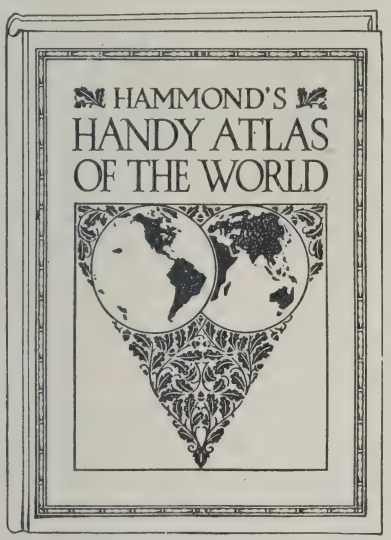
HAMMOND'S HANDY ATLAS OF THE WORLD

THE IDEAL DESK ATLAS WITH COMPREHENSIVE INDEX

The most remarkable feature of this atlas, and the one in which it surpasses all others of its size and price, is its COMPLETE INDEX OF CITIES AND TOWNS, alphabetically arranged for the entire World. Here is a compilation so comprehensive that every city of importance may be found instantly, together with its latest population figure and index references for locating it on the proper map of the atlas.

OTHER VALUABLE COMPILATIONS, occupying 60 pages, include a Gazetteer-Index of the World, Index of Cities and Towns of the United States, Population Statistics of States, and Distances Between Larger Cities of the United States. The Gazetteer-Index gives the area, population, capital and index references of all grand divisions, countries, states, colonial possessions, etc.



The Handy Atlas, in addition, contains 100 pages of the FINEST MAPS OF THEIR SIZE that have been issued. They include individual plates for each state of the United States, each province of Canada, all new and old nations of Europe, and every other portion of the World.

These maps, printed in three or four colors, show accurately the topographical features, the railroads, stations, cities and towns. The maps of states are arranged alphabetically and indicate the NAMES OF THE DIFFERENT RAILWAYS.

HAMMOND'S HANDY ATLAS OF THE WORLD contains 160 pages. The size is 6 x 8 inches when closed.

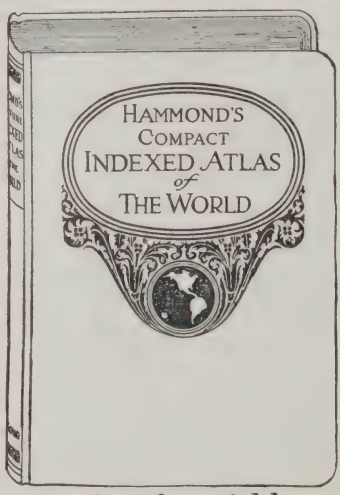
HAMMOND'S COMPACT INDEXED ATLAS OF THE WORLD

CONVENIENT IN SIZE, COMPLETE IN SCOPE

This handy little reference book is a marvel of condensation, containing a vast amount of information about the World, arranged so skilfully that facts may be instantly ascertained. Its clear, accurate maps and comprehensive indexes are IDEAL FOR QUICK REFERENCE, and many owners of large atlases prefer to use this Compact Atlas, because it answers most of the questions which arise when an atlas needs to be consulted.



The Atlas is 4⅛ x 6⅛ inches in size and contains 320 pages. Nearly all the map plates OCCUPY DOUBLE PAGES and measure 5x7 inches. They are printed in colors and show railroads with their names, mountains, lakes, rivers, cities, towns, and villages. In the collection are included new maps of all countries of the World, all of our own states and all the Canadian Provinces. In addition, there is a series of special large scale maps of the environs of all the larger cities of the United States, showing greater detail in the densely populated areas.

A very valuable feature of the atlas is the EXCELLENCE OF THE INDEXES. One of them occupies 63 pages and includes the names, alphabetically arranged, of all cities and towns appearing on the maps. It gives the country, plate number, and exact point where each place is to be found, and the population figures, according to the latest census reports.

The state maps are arranged alphabetically and are accompanied on adjacent pages by indexes of all cities and towns of 1,000 or more inhabitants, with population figures and index references.

In all three styles of binding the COMPACT INDEXED ATLAS is attractive in appearance and permanent in construction.

Hammond's READY REFERENCE HISTORICAL ATLAS

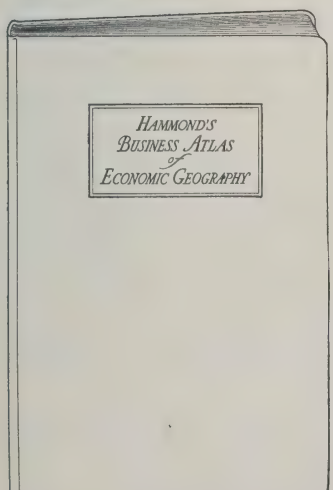
THE Ready Reference Historical Atlas contains a new collection of reliable historical maps, affording the student of history an invaluable reference work at a low price.

The contents of this book include over 70 maps illustrating different parts of the world from the time of the Chaldeans in 3800 B. C. down to the present day. There are maps of the ancient empires of Babylonia, Persia and Syria and the Roman Empire, maps of the Holy Lands, ancient Greece and Italy with plans of the ancient cities and maps illustrating the changes in Europe down to the close of the Great War. There are also detailed maps of the Western Front showing the several battle lines. The various periods in the history of England, France, Poland and Italy are portrayed by groups of maps. The history of the United States is illustrated by a series of maps showing each period, from the days of the earliest explorers and grants down to the present time.

The maps are accompanied by a valuable index which enables one to locate instantly any tribe, region or country shown in this collection.

Size 10¼ x 13½ inches, 32 pages, board binding. Price 75 cents.

HAMMOND'S BUSINESS ATLAS OF ECONOMIC GEOGRAPHY



THE maps in this new work do not confine themselves to political features, but embrace many sides of physical, commercial and economic geography, and present in a concise and graphic way information not readily secured elsewhere. Nothing is of greater importance to the student of geography than the connection between such phenomena as climate, temperature, rainfall, vegetation, and relief of the land.

The Atlas contains PHYSICAL MAPS showing relief and temperature; CLIMATE MAPS showing rainfall, atmospheric pressure and the prevailing winds; NATURAL VEGETATION MAPS showing the forests, grasslands, deserts, tundras, etc.; ECONOMIC MAPS, showing the agricultural and mineral products, industrial areas, etc.; POPULATION MAPS, illustrating the density of population, also POLITICAL MAPS, LANGUAGE MAPS, RACIAL MAPS and OIL AND GAS MAPS.

PHILIP'S COMMERCIAL MAPS

These new maps are the largest ones that have been published and show many details that cannot be included on those of smaller dimensions. For instance, mail steamship routes are distinguished from other steamship routes, while all distances between ports are given. Coaling stations, oiling stations, and wireless stations are located. Railroads are emphasized and, on some of the maps, are shown in different colors to indicate the gauges. The maps are correct as regards new international boundaries, new countries, railroad developments, etc.

The engraving is of the highest type, while the beauty of the maps is enhanced by the attractive color work.

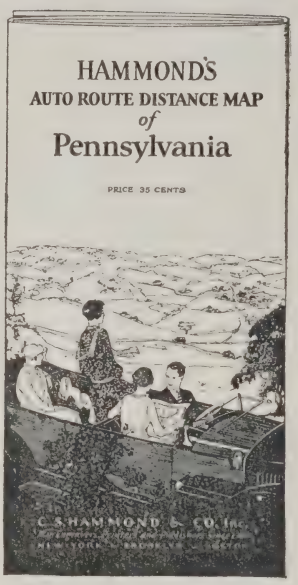
HAMMOND'S AUTO ROUTE DISTANCE MAPS



Size,
when folded, 5x9½ inches

These maps have been especially prepared for the motorist: only information that is essential and valuable to him has been included, thereby making these new road maps the most useful series he can secure.

The two route questions most frequently asked by motorists are "Which Way?" and "How Far?"—and these are the questions which these new maps answer fully. The through auto routes, that is, the long distance highways most frequented by tourists, and the shorter auto routes alone are shown, together with the towns along the roads. The distances between these towns are indicated in small figures, while the total distances between the larger cities and route junctions are designated in large red figures.

On maps of those states which have adopted a highway numbering system, the routes are numbered to correspond with the numbers on the poles or posts along the roads. Remarkable legibility has been obtained by the elimination of all non-essential detail. However, many features of value to tourists are included and several of these appear on no other road maps now on the market. These include state parks, airports, forest fire lookout stations, automobile ferries, etc. Large scale maps of congested areas are printed on the reverse side of the map. Especial attention has been given to lake, mountain, and seashore resorts.

Each map is completely indexed. Not only are cities, towns and villages included in this index but rivers, lakes, reservoirs and other points of interest to tourists. The maps are printed in dark blue and red on blue paper and are folded to convenient pocket size. Each map measures 24 x 36 inches.

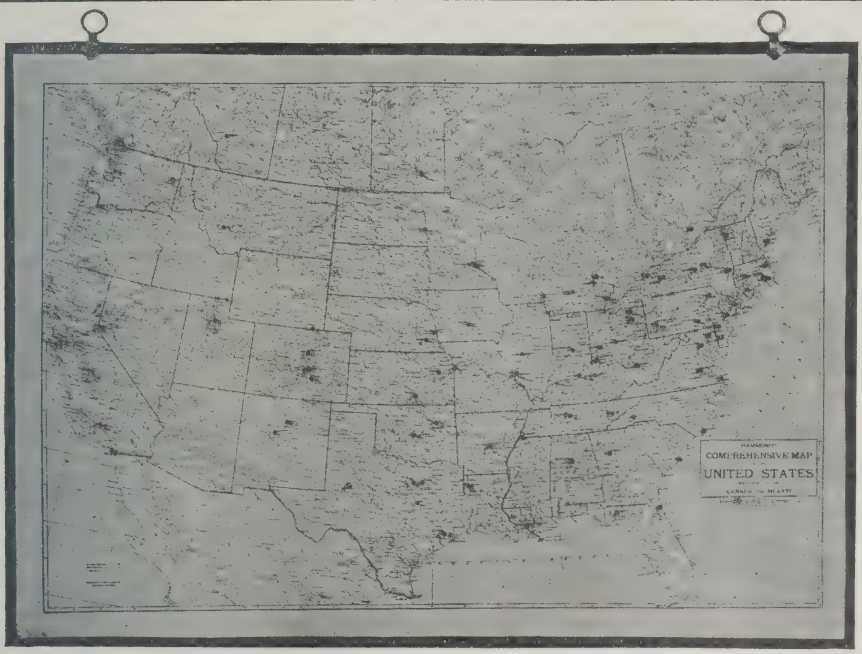
COMPREHENSIVE MAP OF THE UNITED STATES



A COMMERCIAL MAP RIGHT IN SIZE FOR THE BUSY MAN—SIZE 38 x 25 INCHES

THIS map is just right in size and subject matter for the use of the man of affairs who wishes to have in portable form a comprehensive view of the commercial centers and principal transportation routes of the entire continental portion of the United States and the adjacent parts of Canada and Mexico. It is not overloaded with detail or marred by the excessive use of color but portrays in most legible form, the information about "high spots," railroad lines, etc. needed by every executive and sales manager. When mounted on compo-board with edges bound and rings attached as is shown in the above illustration, it becomes at once a wall map, a miniature "map tack system" and a handy desk map as well.

Cities and towns are shown in black, the size of type indicating the relative importance of places, so that the larger commercial places in any state or province may be readily selected.

Railroads are shown and named in a separate color, and even in the most congested regions these lines of communication are clearly portrayed. State boundaries are shown in a light border tint and the interior of each state is uncolored. This layout permits of advantageous use of colored marking by crayon or water colors for the separation of territorial limits or the employment of map tacks. In the assignment of sales territory and sales routing work, this map mounted on compo-board is unexcelled. In sheet form it is just right to fit under a glass-covered desk-top; folded in pocket form, it is indispensable to the traveler. The map may also be had mounted on cloth with wooden rollers top and bottom.

SALES RECORDING OUTLINE MAPS

These maps are printed in black only, and are ideal for the display of temporary or permanent records of distribution. The number of customers, subscribers, or policy-holders in each country, state, or county may be noted; the territory allotted different salesmen, distributors, or collectors may be readily outlined; the gross volume of business in the different civil divisions may be recorded and compared. Health and mortality statistics, church and school attendance, when noted on these maps will convey conditions more graphically than tabulations or charts.

OUTLINE MAPS OF STATES

In this collection, there is a separate map of each of the 48 states, showing and naming the counties but omitting all other details. The county name in each case appears in small type near one of its boundary lines thus leaving blank the major portion of the county to permit the addition of special data.

The boundaries and names of counties are printed in blue upon a good grade of white bond paper, upon which notations can be made in ink, crayon, pencil or water color. The maps measure 8x10½ inches, and are printed on paper 8½x11 inches, the size of a business letterhead.

SMALL SIZE GENERAL MAPS OF STATES

These maps are printed in color and in full detail, but on account of their convenient size, 8x11 inches, they are used extensively by sales executives and statisticians. The maps show the counties in different colors; the railroads are indicated as well as cities and towns. There are two plates containing two states each, viz., Massachusetts and Rhode Island; and Maryland and Delaware. With these exceptions, each state is shown on a separate 8x11 map printed on paper 11x13½ inches in size.

MISCELLANEOUS MAPS

In the following compilation are included brief descriptions of many (but not all) of the maps in our vast stock—the largest assortment of geographical publications to be found in any establishment in the World. In order to include as many maps as possible, only the character, size, scale, and price of each one are given, but a more detailed description of any item will be promptly furnished by telephone or letter, upon request

EXPLANATION OF ABBREVIATIONS

The descriptions are grouped under nine general headings, namely: Series of Maps, The World, Africa, Asia, Europe, North America, United States, Oceania and South America, in the order named. Under these headings are compiled the descriptions, first, of maps of these divisions, and then, alphabetically arranged, those of the countries and states in them. Individual maps, issued as part of a series, of uniform size and nature, are described only under the heading "Series of Maps," but cross-reference by number to this series is given below the names of the individual countries or states. For example, we have 14 different maps of Kentucky; four are given special descriptions under that heading, followed by reference numbers to ten series, in each of which a map of Kentucky is published and sold separately.

CHARACTER OF MAP

For the sake of brevity and simplicity, the maps have been assigned descriptive terms, according to the features they emphasize or the manner in which they show them. Some of these descriptive terms are defined below. It should be explained, however, that these descriptions apply only to this compilation and are intended merely to differentiate between the various maps of the same area.

A General Map shows the political sub-divisions, the routes of railroads, simple topographical features, cities and towns.

A Railroad Map is one on which the railroads are named, and, on some, are printed in individual colors.

A Road Map shows the automobile routes and is of especial value to the motorist.

An Orographical Map is one on which the different elevations are shown in different tints.

A Topographic Map is one on which the elevations are indicated by contour lines.

An Outline Map is printed in black only and generally shows no detail except country, state or minor division boundaries.

A Base Map is printed generally in black but contains some detail, more or less complete.

A Geological Map shows the geologic formations and strata by different colors.

An Economic Map locates the principal mining operations, designating the mineral produced and also indicates the chief agricultural products of the different regions.

Other terms will be self-explanatory.

The figures immediately following the character of the map represent its dimensions in inches, the first figure being the measurement from top to bottom and the second figure, the measurement from left to right.

PRICE OF MAP

The price in each case is preceded by a letter which indicates the style in which it is furnished at the rate given, viz:

C—Mounted on cloth, flat.

D—Dissected on cloth and folded to pocket size. The paper map is first cut into sections of equal size, and then they are mounted on cloth with blank spaces between the different sections, so that the finished map folds readily and compactly. A very durable format.

F. M.—Mounted on cloth with plain wooden rollers top and bottom.

P—Printed on paper, and folded in pocket cover.

P. C.—Mounted on cloth, and folded in pocket cover.

S—Printed on paper, and furnished in flat sheet.

At the prices quoted we will pay transportation charges to any point in the United States or Canada.

MAP MOUNTING

The demands for this class of work have been steadily increasing and have necessitated enlarging our facilities until we now have the largest and best equipped Map Mounting Department in the country. Here we delicately mount the torn fragments of some rare map or parchment for some collector and execute quantity orders for the trade and for large corporations. Our workmanship is invariably of a superior quality; satisfaction is guaranteed.

STYLES OF MOUNTING

PLAIN BACKING. The map is mounted upon muslin that has been dampened and stretched across an oak frame. When removed from frame and trimmed neatly, the reinforced map lies flat. Rates: three square feet or less, 75c; larger maps 25c per square foot.

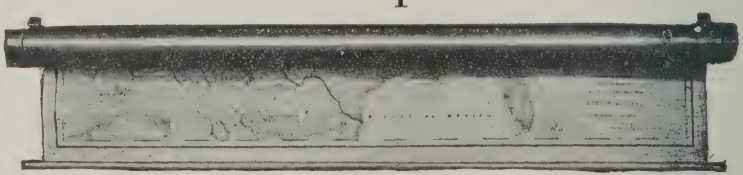
FULL MOUNTING. The map is backed on muslin as above, then wooden rollers are fastened by strong brads to the top and bottom of the map. Rings are attached to the top roller so that the map may be suspended. Rates: three square feet or less, $1.25; larger maps 40c per square foot.

STEEL CASE MOUNTING. The map is backed on muslin with wooden roller at the bottom and an extension of one to three feet of white paper mounted across the top. To this extension is attached a spring roller (similar to a window shade roller) which is then inserted in the steel map case described below. Rates may be readily calculated by adding the price of the case as given below to the cost of full mounting as stated above.

DISSECTING ON CLOTH. The map is first cut into sections of equal size, which are then mounted on cloth with blank spaces between the different sections, so that the finished map folds readily and compactly. Rates: three square feet or less, $1.20; larger maps 40c per square foot.

COMPO-BOARD MOUNTING. Maps are frequently mounted on compo-board, which is a preparation of wood and cardboard. It is then possible to insert map tacks for special designations as described on pages devoted to Map Routing System and Map Tacks. After mounting the map on the compo-board its edges are bound with tape and eyelets are punched for suspension purposes. Rates: three square feet or less, $1.50 larger maps 50c per square foot, except that maps longer than 10 feet or wider than 4 feet require a frame and hence the charge is 60c per square foot.

Steel Map Case



The Steel Map Case has more points in its favor than any other design for containing individual maps. It is made of heavy sheet steel, in a single piece, with edges turned over, japanned in dark green. When map is rolled up, the moulding on bottom fits snugly into slot, thereby making it dust-proof. Because of its construction, it is exceedingly strong, and so light that a child can easily carry the largest sizes, and, also takes up less room than any other unit. By removing cap at right end, adjustments may be made without the use of any tools. Being made of metal, it is not affected by moisture, or other climatic conditions. These unit cases may be hung one above the other, without interfering with the operation of any one.

THE NEW PHYSICAL GLOBE

FOR THE SCHOOL AND LIBRARY

THIS latest addition to our large line of globes is designed to fill a special need which has been felt for a long time. This globe which shows the height of land and depth of water as well as the political boundaries, is being extensively adopted for school and library use.

THE NEW 12-INCH PHYSICAL GLOBE

The teaching of geography embraces a wider field to-day than ever before, and this globe has been designed to meet some of the new requirements not shown on the ordinary globe. Physical features are especially prominent. The height of land from below sea level to 12,000 feet and over is shown by means of seven different tints of brown and green, and the depth of water down to 3,000 fathoms and over is shown by five distinct tints of blue. The coast-lines, river courses and lakes are well defined in a blue tint and the principal railways, cities and towns and all names are in black. Ocean distances aregiven, currents named and the direction of their flow is indicated by arrows. The political boundaries are distinctly over-printed in carmine and embrace all of the latest changes.

THE NEW PHYSICAL GLOBE IS MADE ONLY IN THE POPULAR 12 INCH SIZE

PLAIN STAND GLOBE

ALL of our globes are of the very highest grade. The maps are carefully engraved, beautifully lithographed in ten permanent colors and are down-to-date in every particular. The balls are finished with an extra fine grade of varnish and, hence, can be washed without injury. The mountings are attractive and substantial, and the entire product presents a striking appearance; we guarantee satisfaction. All twelve and eighteen inch globes are equipped with Metal Hour Discs, and each is accompanied by a manual, fully explaining the various features of the apparatus.

COMPARISON OF SIZES

(8, 12 and 18-inch sizes)

Though not usually known, the superficial area of an 18-inch globe is over five times that of an 8-inch globe and more than two and one-quarter times that of a 12-inch globe. On account of the clearness of the engraving which is correspondingly larger, we strongly recommend the 18-inch globe for general purposes.

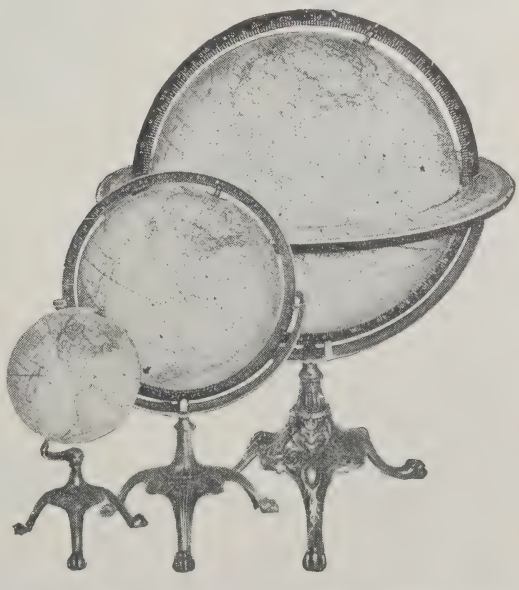

TABLE STAND GLOBES

The globes illustrated on this page are mounted somewhat more substantially than the popular priced ones on the preceding pages. All the globes in these new series are 12 inches in diameter. The maps are down to date, are lithographed in nine attractive, fadeless colors and perfectly fitted to the balls. The surface of the globes is treated with a special scratchproof and waterproof varnish. The bases are made of heavy metal and are beautifully finished. A piece of felt at the bottom of each base protects table, stand or desk from being scratched or marred.

At the left is a globe that is readily adaptable to any type of home or office. It measures 25¼ inches from the bottom of the base to the top of the globe ball. All metal finished in sprayed dark bronze, high lighted with gold.

No. 220-7 Plain Mounted.....$19.50
No. 223-7 Movable Meridian 23.70
No. 225-7 Full Mounted, Movable Meridian 28.00

The Table Stand Globe shown at the right is an exceptionally attractive one. It measures 25 inches from the bottom of the base to the top of the globe ball. The metal parts are finished in sprayed light statuary bronze, high lighted with green antique.

LIBRARY TABLE GLOBE

A LOW STAND GLOBE OF HANDSOME APPEARANCE

To those who are satisfied only with the best in library and office furniture, yet lack the floor space for a high stand globe, this handsome new product will have an irresistible appeal. It may be placed on the desk or library table and, because of its low stand, may be examined by one while seated in a chair. It is probably the only globe of its size that may be satisfactorily examined in this way.

Every part used in its construction is of a superior quality. The imported map and horizon circle printed in ten beautiful colors, the wrought brass meridian, hour disc and other fittings, and the American walnut stand with soft, oil finish, altogether present a rich, pleasing appearance.

The globe ball is 12 inches in diameter; its map is down-to-date, showing all the latest changes in international boundaries, etc. In order that the surface may be washed, high grade varnish has been applied, which adds a permanent and attractive luster to the bright colors of the map.

The solid walnut stand, a superb example of the cabinetmaker's art, occupies a space only 17½ inches square; its height is 16 inches.

SPECIAL STAND GLOBES

Nos. 800 and 1200

The globe shown at the left differs only in mounting from our regular 8-inch and 12-inch globes. The ball is exactly the same but the stand is of lighter construction.

WIRE STAND GLOBES

These popular globes are frequently used in classroom work, each pupil having one on which to follow the demonstrations by the instructor on one of our larger globes. For children commencing the study of geography, these wire stand globes will be found as serviceable as a larger globe.

Since the eight inch size is very nearly as detailed as those on the heavier stands, it is often found satisfactory for office and home use. Many of the features included in our larger globes appear in smaller scale on both sizes of the wire stand globes.

Mounted on very substantial wire bases, these globes present a very good appearance. The maps show all the principal countries and cities, including the latest geographical changes. The surfaces are varnished. Each globe is packed in a separate carton.

SPECIFICATIONS

BALL—Thirty inches in diameter; scale, 264 miles to the inch. The volume of this ball is about five times that of an 18-inch, and about fifteen times as great as a 12-inch globe.

MAP—Is imported; shows all of the latest geographical changes, also steamship and cable lines. On account of its size it is very clear and distinct.

MOUNTINGS—Has horizon, and is full-mounted, with movable meridian, double-faced, and hour circles at poles. Globe and horizon may also be rotated on the pedestal.

DIMENSIONS—Stand 38 inches high to top of horizon. The globe is 55 inches high and 38 inches wide over all.

FINISH—Metal work either nickel, antique copper, or brass-plated, highly polished. Gold-plated meridian furnished on order at additional cost.

FINISH—Woodwork selected quartered oak of beautiful figure, golden oak polished or mission finish. Birch mahoganized or genuine mahogany may also be had at an advanced price.

SPECIAL FINISHES—Prices will be quoted on specially finished globes and on special designed stands at additional cost. This is the finest globe ever produced.

Price $600.00

THE MERCHANT SHIPPER'S GLOBE

FOR THE OFFICE AND LIBRARY

THIS globe embraces many new and novel features heretofore not embodied in a similar work. The map is entirely new and gives all the latest boundaries throughout the world, including the new boundaries in Europe, the Mandatories in Africa and the Pacific, etc. These boundaries are shown in a distinct tint, thus eliminating the heavy colors so objectionable on a high class globe. The ball, 18 inches in diameter and surrounded by a hand-cut brass meridian, is mounted in a beautiful polished solid mahogany stand. In the center of the stand, below the ball, is an accurate compass 8½ inches in diameter and covered by a glass plate. The horizon circle surrounding the globe is in colors and shows all the divisions with greatest precision. On the top of the ball is a brass hour circle which enables the user to tell the exact time of any place in the world. Ocean distances between ports are given in nautical miles and distances between principal cities are given in statute miles. Cities, towns, railroads and rivers are also shown. The finish on the ball is of such high quality as to permit its being washed with a damp cloth. The height from the floor to the top of the brass meridian is 45 inches and from the floor to the horizon circle is 34½ inches. Only the highest grade of workmanship is put into this beautiful and useful globe and it will make a worthy addition to the finest office or library.

CELESTIAL GLOBES

SHOWING the configuration of the stars and the constellations. The stars are shown up to the ninth magnitude on these globes. This is an important thing to be taken into consideration when ordering celestial globes. The mythological figures are printed in gold while the stars printed in white against a deep blue back-ground, present a very pleasing and striking appearance.

CELESTIAL GLOBES furnished in the same mountings as TERRESTRIAL GLOBES at 20% addition in price, and are supplied only in 12 inch and 18 inch sizes.

Mounted on terrestrial pole unless otherwise ordered.

HAMMOND'S
IMPROVED PLANISPHERE

Size, 16 x 16 inches

This apparatus shows for every hour of the year, the principal stars that are visible at that time. It is substantially made of heavy board and is attractively printed in colors, with the heavens in a pale blue. On the front is a circular opening, representing the horizon. A series of other openings form a semi-circle about the horizon opening, and along the sides of these smaller openings are printed at even intervals the hours of the day from 4 P.M. to 8 A.M.

Beneath these openings is a movable disc bearing a map of the sky and a circular calendar of the days and months of the year. By revolving this disc until the day of the month is adjacent to the hour on the front, a star map for that particular hour appears in the circular opening. If the northern point of the planisphere is then held in that direction, it is possible to identify easily all the more important stars and constellations, for the planisphere is in effect a mirror of the sky containing the names of constellations and the stars of the 1st, 2nd, and 3rd magnitudes.

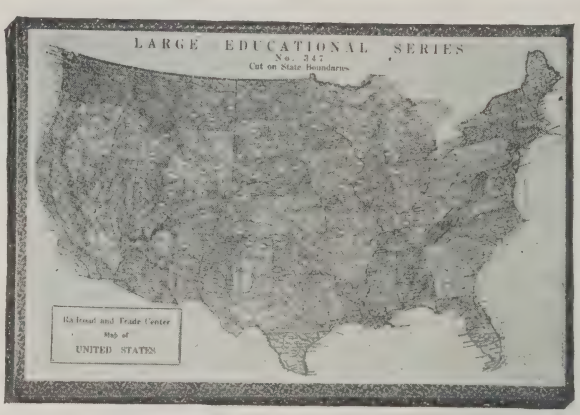
On the sky map, the constellations are printed in blue and are connected by broken blue lines. Stars of the first magnitude are shown and named in red; those of the second and third magnitude in black. The Ecliptic is shown by broken red lines.

On the back of the planisphere is printed a list of the stars with their right ascension and declination. This list forms in reality an index for locating the different stars, and is a valuable feature to be found on very few other planispheres.

The planisphere is enclosed in an attractive box 16 inches square, and ½ inch deep. An explanatory book and a set of tacks representing the planets are included.

PRICE $5.00

HAMMOND'S MAP PUZZLES



These are jig-saw puzzles of maps that are dissected on county or state lines. Accurate maps printed in bright colors are carefully mounted on a special composition board. They are then sawed into many intricate pieces, most of them representing the size and shape of the sub-divisions.

Assembling these pieces into complete maps is both entertaining and instructive as it encourages the study of geography.

With the exceptions of Puzzles Nos. 247 and 256, each box has as a label the same map used for the puzzle within. Puzzles Nos. 247 and 256 are enclosed in a box bearing a beautiful cover design in four colors. The puzzle pieces are protected from loss by a seal of glassine paper entirely covering the open box.

HAMMOND'S PICTURE PUZZLES

This attractive line of puzzles is very popular with youngsters who delight in their charming pictures and handsome containers. The subjects have been carefully selected to appeal to children of different ages and there is a wide assortment of sizes and prices.

TWO PUZZLE PICTURES IN EACH BOX

There are pictures on both sides of the puzzle pieces, so that each box really contains two puzzles. Great care is exercised in their preparation. The pictures mounted on composition board, 3/16ths of an inch thick, are carefully sawed into many pieces, which are immediately packed in the boxes and sealed with glassine paper to prevent loss. The cover of each box bears a duplicate of one of the puzzle pictures.

In each of the nine series listed below, there are six different boxes containing two puzzle pictures.

THE POPULAR GEOGRAPHICAL GAME

AMERICAN CITY LOTTO

Here is a game that is more than a mere pastime for children; more than an idle means of amusement. American City Lotto possesses all the elements of a good game, arousing interest, excitement and friendly competition, but in addition it teaches the players many helpful facts of geography. The leading cities and their locations, the state capitals, state flowers and nicknames are examples of the knowledge acquired while playing. Furthermore, it entertains adults as well as children. It is easy to learn and so fascinating to play that youngsters and grown-ups become intensely interested in the game.

American City Lotto consists of twelve playing cards, each bearing the names of five cities in four states and 240 small cover tickets, each containing one of these city names and with one, two or three stars added in the cases of state capitals and largest cities. The players hold one or more cards before them and the cover tickets are placed face down on the tables. One at a time these are picked up and read aloud by one player, who gives the ticket to the player having that city on his card. It is then placed at the proper place on the playing card, and the round terminates when one player gets a complete state covered. Each player is credited with a point for each star he has exposed and the winner gets five extra points. Another round then commences; this continues until one player makes 49 points which ends the game.

The playing cards are heavy yellow board, 9 x 5½ inches, printed in green and brown; the cover tickets are red and blue 8-ply cardboard. Enclosed in box 10x6x1½ inches with title printed over map of the United States in four colors.

OTHER ATTRACTIVE GAMES

PERILS OF THE GALE

This enticing title appears on an exceptionally handsome box, 12x18x1 inches in size, which, when opened, discloses a beautiful playing board and eight small metal ships. The board represents an ocean divided into many square spaces. Four players strive to move their vessels to the harbors on the opposite side of the ocean, the movements being governed, not by dice or by finger spinner, but by an ingenious device known as "The Gale" which revolves when the players in turn blow upon it. "The Gale" whirls about above a compass and when it stops, the player may move one of his two vessels, one, two or three spaces in the direction indicated.

The game is very fascinating to play and appeals to young and old.

FIRESIDE BASEBALL

Just as "Ping Pong" is an indoor variation of Lawn Tennis, so is "Fireside Baseball" a small size duplicate of the real game, for here is a game where the pitcher really pitches the ball, where the batsman really bats the ball and sends it out to left field for a three base hit. The Fireside Baseball Game is won by the most skillful player; luck is of secondary importance.

The game is enclosed in a box 30 x 15 inches, representing a regular baseball field. Around the sides are divisions marked, "Base Hit" "Out", etc., and at the Home Plate is a bat, 3 inches long, swinging on a tension spring. When the pitcher rolls the marble over the plate, the batter releases the bat and makes a hit or is put out according to the division in the outfield when the marble lands.

The game is substantially made of wood and cardboard with the field lithographed in four bright colors.

PRICE $1.50

UNIVERSAL PEACE

This timely game may be played by four persons. It consists of four playing cards showing the different steps that must be taken by the nations to gain the goal of Universal Peace. Flags of the different nations are moved up through these steps. In attractive box.

LEISURE HOUR PICTURE PUZZLES FOR ADULTS

In addition to the large assortment of Picture Puzzles for young children described on another page, there is a series of more intricate ones for grown-ups and older children. The solving of a puzzle, when sufficiently difficult, fascinates all ages, and for this reason, the various puzzles in the Leisure Hour Series have as popular an appeal as the smaller and simpler ones. The pictures, generally landscapes or historical subjects, are mounted on best quality three-ply wood veneer, then sawed into numerous, odd-shaped pieces. These are enclosed in a plain box without sample picture.

The pictures vary in size from 10½ x 14 to 14 x 28 inches.

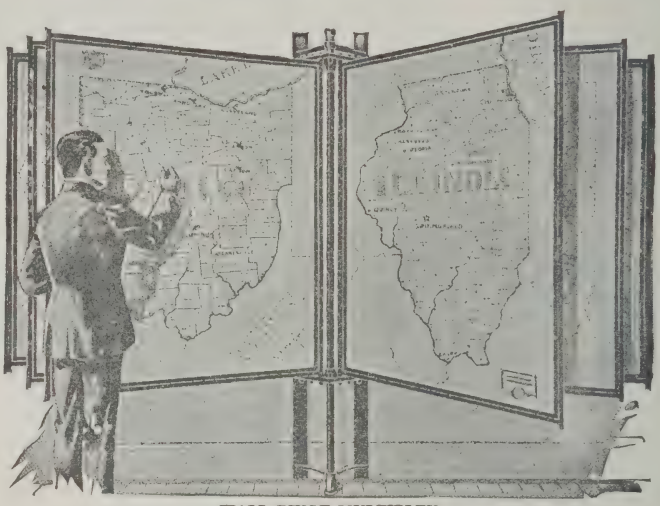
The Wall Pivot Multiplex

The Loose-Leaf Idea Applied to Large Maps

Makes Large Maps More Useful and Saves Space



WALL PIVOT MULTIPLEX

All wings of this fixture pivot or swivel from left to right or vice versa, and when not in use the wings can be compactly bunched together and closed flat against the wall.

The multiplex comes attached to two strips of hardwood ready for fastening to the wall.

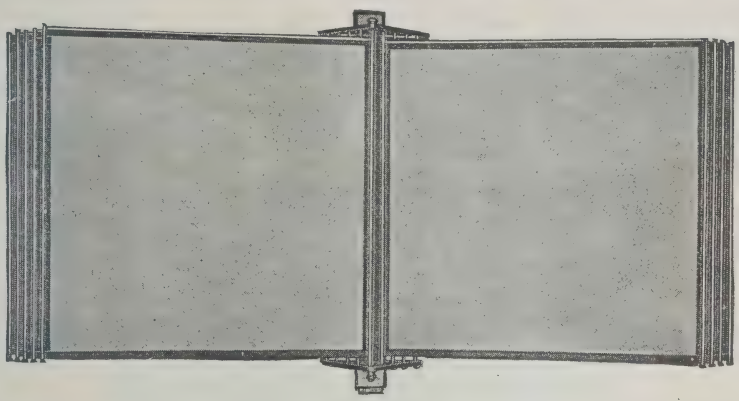
The fixture is built of strong steel castings with one inch steel tubing upright extending to the floor around which the wings swing. All metal parts of the fixture are finished in hard baked black enamel.

The full capacity of the WALL PIVOT MULTIPLEX is ten wings in the three sizes given below. These wings are of half inch steel tubing electrically welded at joints and the filler is of composition board ready for mounting of maps and is especially adapted to use of map tacks.

STYLE	WING SIZE	CAPACITY	PRICE COMPLETE	PRICE OF EACH WING
No. 6 a	40 x 48 Inches	10 Wings	$123.25	$ 9.75
No. 6 b	50 x 48 "	10 Wings	134.25	10.45
No. 6 c	48 x 60 "	10 Wings	150.75	12.10

If fixture is desired with fewer wings, deduct from total cost, the price of individual wings not required. Wings may be purchased separately at rates given.

MULTIPLEX WALL FIXTURE



This outfit is designed on the loose-leaf principle and provides complete visibility of sales and territory maps at the proper eye level. It will place your entire territory before you so as to enable you to visualize it, analyze distribution, and plan economical routing of your sales force so that they may work to best advantage at lowest cost. The wings are removable so that any map can be taken out and used separately. Each wing holds two maps.

These fixtures are built according to tested designs, which have been used for years in the offices of the foremost selling executives in the United States. All frames are black enameled and wings are steel, electrically welded, and black enameled, double baked.

This wall style comes in the variety of sizes and wing capacities listed below:

MAP TACKS

THERE is almost no limit to the possibilities for using these tacks on maps and diagrams to indicate special details. There is nothing more graphic or interesting than statistics represented by these indicators of attractive and well contrasted colors, which catch and hold the eye. They have been used in municipal budget and health exhibits to show, for instance, the proximity of houses and factories, the prevalence of certain diseases, and the comparison of present and proposed transit facilities. In business enterprises they may be used to indicate the routes of traveling salesmen, the territories allotted to agents, sections controlled by competitors, etc.

Lowest Prices and Efficient Service on Your Magazine Subscriptions

REALIZING the need of an Agency through which booksellers could route to the publishers the magazine subscriptions they received, Harper & Brothers twenty-two years ago organized The Franklin Square Subscription Agency.

The need for such an Agency has been proven by the steady growth of The Franklin Square Agency.

We are serving now a very large majority of the bookstores and department stores of the United States and Canada and handle for these bookstores and department stores almost $1,000,000 worth of subscriptions each year.

In addition to granting very liberal commissions to booksellers on their magazine subscriptions, we have developed an exceptionally rapid, accurate service in the forwarding of subscriptions to publishers. Our triplicate subscription order book makes the handling of subscriptions by the booksellers exceptionally easy and eliminates complaints.

The Franklin Square Agency also cooperates with booksellers in building up their magazine subscription business by supplying them with very attractive subscription catalogues and circulars for distribution to their customers. This promotion material as well as the subscription supplies are furnished without charge.

We gladly extend our services to all booksellers. If you wish further information, write to

WORDSWORTH IN A NEW LIGHT

By Emile Legouis

"Here we have a story which explains a good deal in Wordsworth's poetry and in Wordsworth's life; it was certain to be told some day or other, and we may add we are fortunate, and Wordsworth is fortunate, in that it is told by so kindly and grateful a critic as M. Legouis."— London Times. $1.00

PROPHETS OF YESTERDAY AND THEIR MESSAGE FOR TO-DAY

By John Kelman

"No one can read these lectures, with their keen analysis of the messages of Carlyle, Arnold, and Browning, and illustrated by Dr. Kelman's wide reading and insight into life's deepest meanings, without an enrichment of mind and soul."— The Expositor. "A useful piece of work finely done is this little book, and you will go to the end once you begin it."— Hartford Times. $1.50

THE WRITINGS AND LIFE OF GEORGE MEREDITH

By Mary Sturge Gretton

"A sympathetic and discriminating book."— London Times. "Much compactly written and finely felt critical comment is here."— The English Journal. "It is a sincere study, well written and carefully arranged, and is therefore well worth perusal by everyone who is interested in a great writer."— Birmingham (England) Post. $2.50

CHANGING IRELAND

By Norreys J. O'Conor

"A series of essays on Irish literature and the principal literary figures in modern Ireland. They form an admirable study of the Celtic Renaissance, and of literary developments of the last thirty years against a background of Irish history, legend, politics, and the changes that preceded and followed the rise of the Irish Free State."— The Landmark. $2.50

WILLIAM DEAN HOWELLS

By Oscar Firkins

Selected by the Committee on Intellectual Coöperation of the League of Nations as one of the forty most important American books of 1924. "Any book by Mr. Firkins is a literary event of prime importance, and his study of Howells is no exception to the rule."— Yale Review. "The volume must be accounted a worthy contribution to American criticism." — Virginia Quarterly Review. $5.00

HARVARD UNIVERSITY PRESS

POPULAR SCIENCE

MAN AND WEATHER
By Alexander McAdie

"The fund of information contained, combined with the literary style of the author, makes it a desirable addition to any library."—Coast Artillery Journal. Fully illustrated. $2.00

WHAT EVOLUTION IS
By George Howard Parker

"A good book for non-scientific readers who wish to know just what evolution is and what the men of science think of it."—Auburn Seminary Record. Third Impression. $1.50

INSECTS AND HUMAN WELFARE
By Charles Thomas Brues

"Though popularly written, the reader is surprised on completing the book to find what a wide range of useful as well as interesting information he has acquired."—Journal of Home Economics. Illustrated. $2.50

DELUSION AND BELIEF
By Charles Macfie Campbell

"A very thoughtful presentation, showing how wishful thinking results in delusional thought and how the same comforts sought in this way might be reached in a better way."—Life and Health. $1.50

THE MENTAL HEALTH OF THE CHILD
By Douglas A. Thom

"A pity that more of our child health books do not deal with problems of youthful well-being in some such sane and simple fashion."— The Survey. $1.00

DREAMS
By Percy G. Stiles

"Anyone who is interested in the problem of the significance of dreams, and especially anyone who has dipped into psychoanalysis either actively or passively, will find this little book suggestive and illuminating."— New York Times. $1.50

MISTAKES

To avoid mistakes in ordering, customers should always

1. Give full and exact titles.

   When ordering from a series, state explicitly which numbers in the series are desired.

2. State definitely whether you wish editions with answers or without, with vocabulary or without.

   We cannot hold ourselves responsible for your neglect to specify when editions with answers or vocabularies are wanted.

3. State which binding is desired — paper, boards, or cloth.

   Books not otherwise described in this list are bound in cloth.

4. When books ordered are for introduction, this fact should be stated, with the name of the school or college into which they are to be introduced.

SHIPPING DIRECTIONS

Shipping directions should be given with great care, and it should be distinctly stated whether books are to be sent by mail, express, or freight. If by express or freight, state by what line.

REMITTANCES

Remittances should be made by post-office orders, express orders, or checks on New York, Boston, or Chicago.

NOTE

That goods sent as ordered are not returnable, except by previous agreement.

That all claims for deduction should be made on receipt of goods.

That books sent by mail, or sent to others for enclosure, are at purchaser's risk.

OUT OF THE SILENCE is an extraordinary book in conception, in plot and in style.

An absorbing, enthralling tale that we recommend to every reader.

Erle Cox

OUT OF THE SILENCE $2.00

WHAT would be the result if the world were in the absolute control of one superhuman individual in whose hands had been placed scientific secrets for good and evil such as we have not even begun to dream of?

That is the thesis of OUT OF THE SILENCE, an original and highly absorbing novel that is certain to arouse nation-wide discussion.

The person in whom rests the knowledge that might mean the destruction of our civilization is a woman of a super-race as far beyond ours in learning, art and ethics as we are beyond the aborigines of the African wilds. The discovery of Earani by Alan Dundas comprises one of the most thrilling adventures in modern literature, and her introduction into the world of today, the love that grows between her and Dundas, her plans for molding civilization along the lines of her ideals, the certainty that she has the power to carry her program through to completion, and the effect of forcibly imposing such an idealism on humanity in this age provides a story of tremendous sweep and power.

We know of no recent fiction comparable to it in even its minor elements of mystery and adventure, but its real interest lies in its incisive analysis of the weaknesses of our age and the unimagined possibilities of scientific and ethical development.

The author, Erle Cox, is an Australian of great reputation in the antipodes who will be widely acclaimed in America for this extraordinary work.

THE COAST OF INTRIGUE $2.00

THE author of "Don Coyote" and numerous other popular novels of adventurous life here writes a thrilling tale of revolution and romance.

Putting his last penny into a mining concession in a small Latin-American republic, a famous college football star goes from the States to carve fortune out of the jungle. Before he leaves the ship which is taking him to his new adventure he discovers that sinister forces are at work against him. He saves his machinery from sabotage, escapes from a prison hole with the assistance of a mysterious and beautiful young Spanish woman, fights a desperate fight against almost overwhelming odds and finally is the means by which a revolution is blocked and a stable government is kept in power.

An adventurous, colorful, romantic tale that is reminiscent of some of the best work of Richard Harding Davis.

DON COYOTE $2.00

THE story of a quixotic young engineer who never could stay neutral when he came upon a good fight. This one was for the control of a valuable gold mine and it involves adventures which will thrill the most blasé reader. A stirring, lusty and intriguing tale.

ANGEL CHILD $2.00

The Author

BETWEEN seasons, Lola Finnegan, twelve-year-old ingenue of an intermittently successful theatrical troupe reigns as "Queen of the Flatbush Juveniles." She awes her subjects with absorbing tales of her journeyings and travel experiences; but so much has to be deleted from her stories of stage and green-room happenings when related to these very, very nice children that the "Angel Child" finally decides to write for an older, more sophisticated and sympathetic public the things she couldn't tell to her youthful audience.

ANGEL CHILD is an unexpurgated chronicle of life on the road and behind the scenes, of intimate friendships and professional jealousies, of temperamental outbursts and sullen grumblings, and more particularly of the development and emotional crises in the romantic love affairs of mama and mama's dearest friend in this group of strolling players.

Too wise to misunderstand her elders, too young for emotional sympathy, but always careful to preserve an outward appearance of disinterested and naive simplicity, little Lola overheard many confidential secrets and gathered much information both illuminating and intriguing, on which she comments with disconcerting candor.

ANGEL CHILD is an amusing and absorbing tale, with an atmosphere of poignant and appealing sincerity, presenting a keen picture of life as it is lived in New York's "Roaring Forties" and "on the road."

LORD BYRON OF BROADWAY $2.50

BRILLIANT, handsome, lionized, temperamental, idolized by thousands, the hero has become more and more unpleasantly known for his philanderings. But he falls in love with a girl who loves him yet who suspects she is just another of his long list of "flames." She marries him, distrusting him, to save him from himself, and leaves him the same day. His search for this girl who means more to him than career, and the circumstances of their reunion constitute extraordinary drama.

A vivid novel against an equally vivid background.

THE CONSTANT SIMP $2.00

THE highly amusing story of a pushing, pert, self-possessed young stenographer, whose unfailing loyalty to a struggling young attorney leads her into doing the most amazingly wrong things which somehow always come out right and always redound to the credit of her employer.

Clean, wholesome and bubbling with humor.

"Highly and heartily recommended."—Detroit Free Press.

"Always in good taste, it is authentic in its slang and throughout wins us by its breezy ingenuity."—Sat. Rev. of Literature.

BRIGHT AVENUES $2.50

A BRILLIANT novel of sophisticated Boston and Bohemian San Francisco.

It is the story of Christine Merrick, finished with school and preparing for life. Starting out with a capital of $500 left from her frivolous mother's fortune, she is ambitious and eager for success. She finds hunger and loneliness instead, and never the glowing things she wanted. She faces life with gaiety, however, and makes a sort of philosophy for herself which she never states in phrases but which makes her actions memorable. No novel of the season has had a more enthusiastic reception from discriminating critics.

"Gaily written, packed with witty and memorable phrases, singing with a clean kind of youthful zest."—N. Y. Eve. Post.

"A sparkling affair."—The Bookman.

"It has veracity and real beauty. . . . Some brilliant writing in it, some clever—and a much greater proportion of both than most highly touted novels have."—Chicago Tribune.

"It plots the life-graph of a girl of today. . . . Brittle and witty. . . . Varied enough to stimulate the most jaded story reader."—Saturday Review of Literature.

"Admirable, pungent, forthright, vigorous, charming."
—N. Y. Times

"Polished, suave, gay, charming, wistful."—San Francisco Argonaut.

George Delamare

THE MIDNIGHT KING $2.00

THE romantic and dramatic story of Ludwig II of Bavaria, his futile passion for an opera singer-adventuress and the tragedy of his ultimate downfall. A vivid picture of a period and a man which left a deep impress on the latter years of the last century.

A striking story done in the style of the younger school of French writers.

"Intensely interesting, true to life, and full of action."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

A DAUGHTER OF VENICE $2.00

THE story of Bianca Cappello and the lusty days of medieval Italy. Her elopement from Venice with a scapegrace of humble parentage, her escapades and romances, her interferences with church and state, and her triumphal return as the wife of the reigning duke of the House of Medici are true to history and are here woven into a gloriously colorful, swashbuckling tale, vigorously wrought and exquisitely scened.

"Well done and fascinating."—Boston Globe.

THE MONK of HAMBLETON $2.00

SIMON VARR is found stabbed to death in the garden of his home in a New England village. Hated by everyone in the little community which centers around his factory, virtually every character in the story logically may be suspected of the murder. The search, however, becomes one for a mysterious, eerie faceless figure in a monk's robe.

The sixth of this author's gripping mystery tales—and the best.

"Recommended!"—The New Yorker.

THE MOSAIC EARRING $2.00

A MOSAIC jewel is the badge of authority worn by the mysterious chief of an international band of criminals. It comes into possession of a wealthy young idler who immediately becomes the central figure in a huge robbery plot. He plays the game with the band, meanwhile cooperating with the police in a wholesale round-up of its members, which is brought about after hair-raising adventures.

"One of the best tales of criminal activity."—Boston Globe.

THE LIFE AND TIMES OF COLLEY CIBBER $5.00

AS actor, manager, playright, poet laureate and the greatest dramatic critic the stage has ever seen, Colley Cibber holds a unique place in history and—strangely enough—this is his first real biography.

THE Careleſs Husband.
A
As it is ACTED at the THEATRE ROYAL BY Her MAJESTY's Servants.
Written by C. CIBBER.
Pro. to Sir Fop.
Qui capit, ille Facit.
The Second Edition.
LONDON:
Printed for W. Davis, at the Black Bull near the Royal-Exchange in Cornhill. 1705.

They are all here, his confreres and associates: Pope and Dryden, Dr. Johnson and Horace Walpole: Farquhar, Congreve, Gay, Warburton, Fielding, Dennis, Dick Steele, Betterton and Booth, Mrs. Barry, Mrs. Bracegirdle, Nance Oldfield, Peg Woffington; and many others that made a brilliant picture of Eighteenth Century London.

When Cibber wrote his APOLOGY for his own life, Swift told a bookseller that he had sat up all night to finish it, and Miss Senior's book makes Swift's comment understandable. For Cibber epitomized the literary and theatrical London of his day. Not only was he the greatest comedian of his time, he was also a pioneer in the development of comedy, and a dominant personality in theatrical management. The sentimental comedy, unknown before him, was his valuable contribution to English literature.

"Old Cibber plays tonight," wrote Walpole in 1742, when the actor was seventy, "and all the world will be there."

It is the sufficient ENVOI for a delightful book.

Liberally illustrated, it contains in addition, the full text of Cibber's best known comedy, "The Careless Husband."

PLEASURE—IF POSSIBLE $2.50

(A Passport to the Gay Life Abroad)

THE sort of travel book this famous "Mr. Manhattan of Broadway" might be expected to write. Mr. Kitchen has made at least one trip abroad each year for eighteen years, always seeking "pleasure—if possible." Now he reveals the engaging results of this busy research into the haunts of pleasure.

If you would like to know the street and number of the most famous cafes, the correct hour to appear at the Lido, the proper routine of the Deauville baccarat table, the sophisticated approach to the "inside" of Biarritz, San Sebastian, St. Moritz, Marienbad, Scheviningen or Monte Carlo—if you would acquire a large slice of that delightful savoir faire which is the mark of the experienced traveler, you have only to possess yourself of PLEASURE—IF POSSIBLE. Of cathedrals and museums there "has been so much said and on the whole so well said" that Mr. Kitchen has left them to the guide books.

A book for those who have been abroad, for those who are going, and for those who hope to go.

Gayly amusing illustrations and a pleasure map by the inimitable Herb Roth, a foreword of agreement and recommendation by the observing Will Rogers and the text by the famous cosmopolite make PLEASURE—IF POSSIBLE the indispensible guide to the play spots of Europe.

"It is filled with excellent reading—accounts of experiences such as many a man on vacation would like to have."—Harry Hansen.

THROUGH THE HEEL of ITALY $5.00

A DELIGHTFULLY informal but informative narrative of travels in an out-of-the-way section of Italy almost untouched by tourists, a section where medieval customs and costumes are still to be found. Mrs. Hooker has known Italy and the Italian villagers intimately for many years and presents them in an unusually fresh and human style.

"For anyone who contemplates a trip to Italy this book would be a joy."—Chicago Evening Post.

"Best book on Europe that I have seen."—Thomas L. Masson.

THE ROMANCE and LEGENDS OF THE RIVIERA $2.75

A BOOK to supplement the guide books to the Riviera. The author who has lived many years at Mentone has devoted herself largely to the country lying back of the famous coast resorts. The picturesque little mountain villages, looking down on the centers of life and fashion have been made to give up their histories and legends to a writer of sympathy and understanding. The volume will add immensely to the pleasure of a Riviera sojourn if the traveler is interested in the people and places off the beaten track.

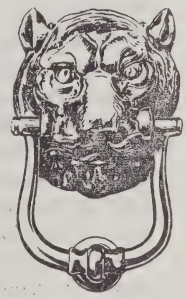
BEAUTY IN HOME FURNISHINGS

(What to Choose, and Why) $3.50



THE author, who is one of the country's recognized authorities here presents a furniture book of knowledge, for everyone who is furnishing or refurnishing a home. Whatever its type or wherever it is located, here is an authoritative manual of what to choose and why. Furniture, rugs, fabrics, draperies, floor and wall treatments and hangings, lighting fixtures, lamps and decorative accessories, each in its turn is exhaustively treated, individually and in relation to the other furnishings with which it will most suitably combine. And again, the author shows how furnishings drawn from varying periods and styles can be combined most effectively in delightfully harmonizing modern interiors. The story of chests, to take only one of the many illuminating sections of the book, tells the history of their creation, the variety of types and their decorations, their development and varied uses, and then the part they play in the modern home as useful and decorative features. The reader becomes acquainted not only with the practical uses of period furniture but learns their romantic histories and the peculiar cultural or artistic conditions that brought about their development.

BEAUTY IN HOME FURNISHINGS is not only a valuable text book for the home owner and householder, but is of inspirational aid for the professional decorator, the artist, the student and the artisan.

Profusely, helpfully and beautifully illustrated.

FARM PRODUCTS IN INDUSTRY

$3.50

THIS is the first book to be published on the utilization of farm wastes by industry. It is written by one of the world's greatest agricultural authorities. The book is the result of a six-months survey conducted by the author under the auspices of the Department of Agriculture by invitation of Secretary Jardine. Thirteen Federal Bureaus, thirteen State Experiment Stations, fourteen National Scientific and Trade Associations and thirty-five industrial organizations cooperated in the survey. It is an exhaustive discussion of farm economics covering forestry, live stock, and all field crops, and points out how the American farmer can add $1,500,000,000 a year to his income by working with industry to utilize his waste materials. It is a book every farm owner, banker, manufacturer, agricultural student and economist must read if he wants to be familiar with the future possibilities of the land.

We are publishing FARM PRODUCTS IN INDUSTRY on a paper made of cornstalks as a practical demonstration of how an outstanding farm waste can be utilized.

This is the first time in the history of printing that cornstalk paper has been put to commercial use. Both the text paper and the highly coated paper on which are printed the 31 illustrations are made of cornstalk pulp.

A special edition of 499 numbered copies has been prepared with a distinctive binding made from cotton seed hulls. Of this edition 450 copies were offered for sale at $7.50 the copy.

Edwin Ware Hullinger

THE NEW FASCIST STATE $2.50

THE NEW FASCIST STATE is the result of a conviction that the American public will welcome a book on one of history's great political phenomena; a book that is neither pro-Fascist nor anti-Fascist; that tells of its origin, growth, present accomplishments and future aims, and that assesses from the unbiased American point of view, the record of its dictatorship.

In a previous book, "The Reforging of Russia," the author examined the processes of the Communist State and it is logical that the inquiring mind of the trained investigator should turn to an exhaustive study of a political theory that is the direct antithesis of Communism. In his new book these two outstanding experiments in molding the life of a great nation to a new political thought are sharply contrasted.

Mr. Hullinger is a lecturer of note and has written extensively on the economic, political and social problems that continue to confront post-war Europe. His discussion of Fascism is based on an intimate study that brought him into contact with all grades of society and shades of opinion from Premier to peasant.

THE WORLD TALKS IT OVER $1.75

HERE for the first time is a factual account, from the American point of view, of the world peace movement culminating in the League of Nations and the World Court. Noncontroversial, it traces the peace idea for one hundred and fifty years, explains the machinery of the League, outlines its work and lists the conferences held under its auspices in which the United States has been a participant.

BUT, ON THE OTHER HAND $1.00

A BOOK of short, amusing argumentative essays from which the debater on any popular subject can find material to maintain and justify his particular point of view. Mr. Kelly argues humorously on every conceivable subject from "Our Need for Wasting Time" to "Why Pretty Girls Have Dull Husbands" and the "Advantages of a Forlorn Face." Human foibles philosophically and delightfully exposed by an outstanding American humorist. Booth Tarkington in a warm commendation calls Mr. Kelly "the most interesting man in the country."

YOU AND YOUR DOG $1.50

(A Book of Dog Psychology)

DO you know why your dog wags his tail? Why he barks? Why he shows his teeth? Why the bristles rise on his back? Why some dogs are "one man" animals?

These are some of the items Mr. Kelly discusses in this chatty and informal volume about dogs and their acquired and inherited traits.

"The first book of the kind ever published," says Albert Payson Terhune. "I like it. I like it much. Every dog owner will like it. You will understand your dog better from this book, which means that your dog will be a little more than ever, your chum."

DAVID THE INCORRIGIBLE $1.75

AN adventure tale for boys vividly scened against the contrasting backgrounds of the hectic streets of New York and the almost unfathomable fastnesses of the Kentucky highlands.

The unusual experiences, the ability of the city lad with his superior knowledge and Boy Scout training to overcome obstacles in ways undreamed of by the native poor whites, are of the essence of this thrilling story. Here are encounters with primitive conditions, with uneducated and hostile people, with unknown prowling animals and strange men who lurk in ambush and fight bitter feuds, of enmities and loyalties among the poor whites of an isolated and strangely uncivilized area.

A cleverly constructed and rarely uplifting action story, with a wholesome, colorful plot, and an ingenious and lovable hero who gives promise of becoming a leader of men.

DONALD IN NUMBERLAND $1.25

EDUCATORS warmly approve "Donald in Numberland" because it simplifies and makes arithmetic interesting to children.

Donald, unable to work out his simple problems in arithmetic, is kept after school. The numbers on the blackboard come to life and are thoroughly incensed at all children because of the mistreatment to which boys and girls have subjected them. They seize Donald, try him in their court, find him guilty of cruelty to numbers and sentence him to seven days in Numberland. He is hurried off to serve his sentence and the remainder of the book is the amusing and educational story of Donald's experiences in Numberland, where he becomes thoroughly acquainted with all the Number people and their perplexing games. It is a story of adventure, with a touch of the fairy quality, that appeals strongly to young children.

Berta and Elmer Hader have profusely illustrated the book with full page drawings in five colors.

World wickedness and deluge. GENESIS 7.

5 ¶ And GOD saw that the wickedness of man was great in the earth, and that every imagination of the thoughts of his heart was only evil continually.

6 And it repented the LORD that he had made man on the earth, and it grieved him at his heart.

7 And the LORD said, I will destroy man whom I have created from the face of the earth; both man, and beast, and the creeping thing, and the fowls of the air; for it repenteth me that I have made them.

8 But Noah found grace in the eyes of the LORD.

9 ¶ These are the generations of Noah: Noah was a just man and perfect in his generations, and Noah walked with God.

10 And Noah begat three sons, Shem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt before God, and the earth was filled with violence.

12 And God looked upon the earth, and, behold, it was corrupt; for all flesh had corrupted his way upon the earth.

13 And God said unto Noah, The end of all flesh is come before me; for the earth is filled with violence through them; and, behold, I will destroy them with the earth.

14 ¶ Make thee an ark of gopher wood; rooms shalt thou make in the ark, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitch.

15 And this is the fashion which thou shalt make it of: The length of the ark shall be three hundred cubits, the breadth of it fifty cubits, and the height of it thirty cubits.

16 A window shalt thou make to the ark, and in a cubit shalt thou finish it above; and the door of the ark shalt thou set in the side thereof; with lower, second, and third stories shalt thou make it.

17 And, behold, I, even I, do bring a flood of waters upon the earth, to destroy all flesh, wherein is the breath of life, from under heaven; and every thing that is in the earth shall die.

18 But with thee will I establish my covenant; and thou shalt come into the ark, thou, and thy sons, and thy wife, and thy sons' wives with thee.

19 And of every living thing of all flesh, two of every sort shalt thou bring into the ark, to keep them alive with thee; they shall be male and female.

20 Of fowls after their kind, and of cattle after their kind, of every creeping thing of the earth after his kind, two of every sort shall come unto thee, to keep them alive.

21 And take thou unto thee of all food that is eaten, and thou shalt gather it to thee: and it shall be for food for thee, and for them.

22 Thus did Noah; according to all that God commanded him, so did he.

7] CHAPTER 7.

The general deluge.

AND the LORD said unto Noah, Come thou and all thy house into the ark; for thee have I seen righteous before me in this generation.

2 Of every clean beast thou shalt take to thee by sevens, the male and his female: and of beasts that are not clean by two, the male and his female.

3 Of fowls also of the air by sevens, the male and the female; to keep seed alive upon the face of all the earth.

4 For yet seven days, and I will cause it to rain upon the earth forty days and forty nights; and every living substance that I have made will I destroy from off the face of the earth.

5 And Noah did according unto all that the LORD commanded him.

6 And Noah was six hundred years old when the flood of waters was upon the earth.

7 ¶ And Noah went in, and his sons, and his wife, and his sons' wives with him, into the ark, because of the waters of the flood.

8 Of clean beasts, and of beasts that are not clean, and of fowls, and of every thing that creepeth upon the earth,

9 There went in two and two unto Noah into the ark, the male and the female, as God had commanded Noah.

10 And it came to pass after seven days, that the waters of the flood were upon the earth.

11 ¶ In the six hundredth year of Noah's life, in the second month, the seventeenth day of the month, the same day were all the fountains of the great deep broken up, and the windows of heaven were opened.

12 And the rain was upon the earth forty days and forty nights.

13 In the selfsame day entered Noah, and Shem, and Ham, and Japheth, the sons of Noah, and Noah's wife, and the three wives of his sons with them, into the ark;

14 They, and every beast after his kind, and all the cattle after their kind, and every creeping thing that creepeth upon the earth after his kind, and every fowl after his kind, every bird of every sort.

15 And they went in unto Noah into the ark, two and two of all flesh, wherein is the breath of life.

16 And they that went in, went in male and female of all flesh, as God had commanded him: and the LORD shut him in.

17 And the flood was forty days upon the earth; and the waters increased, and bare up the ark, and it was lift up above the earth.

18 And the waters prevailed, and were increased greatly upon the earth; and the ark went upon the face of the waters.

Christ's sermon ST. MATTHEW, 5. in the mount.

24 And his fame went throughout all Sȳr'ĭ-à: and they brought unto him all sick people that were taken with divers diseases and torments, and those which were possessed with devils, and those which were lunatick, and those that had the palsy; and he healed them.

25 And there followed him great multitudes of people from Gāl'ĭ-lee, and from Dē-cāp'ō-lis, and from Jē-ru'sa-lēm, and from Jū-dæ'a, and from beyond Jŏr'dan.

CHAPTER 5.

1 Beginning of the sermon in the mount. 14 The light of the world. 21 What it is to kill. 38 Exhortation to suffer wrong. 44 Love our enemies. 48 Labour to be perfect.

AND seeing the multitudes, he went up into a mountain: and when he was set, his disciples came unto him:

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 Blessed are the poor in spirit: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

4 Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 Blessed are the meek: for they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: for they shall obtain mercy.

8 Blessed are the pure in heart: for they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of God.

10 Blessed are they which are persecuted for righteousness' sake: for theirs is the kingdom of heaven.

11 Blessed are ye, when men shall revile you, and persecute you, and shall say all manner of evil against you falsely, for my sake.

12 Rejoice, and be exceeding glad: for great is your reward in heaven: for so persecuted they the prophets which were before you.

13 ¶ Ye are the salt of the earth: but if the salt have lost his savour, wherewith shall it be salted? it is thenceforth good for nothing, but to be cast out, and to be trodden under foot of men.

14 Ye are the light of the world. A city that is set on an hill cannot be hid.

15 Neither do men light a candle, and put it under a bushel, but on a candlestick; and it giveth light unto all that are in the house.

16 Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.

17 ¶ Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil.

18 For verily I say unto you, Till heaven and earth pass, one jot or one tittle shall in no wise pass from the law, till all be fulfilled.

19 Whosoever therefore shall break one of these least commandments, and shall teach men so, he shall be called the least in the kingdom of heaven: but whosoever shall do and teach them, the same shall be called great in the kingdom of heaven.

20 For I say unto you, That except your righteousness shall exceed the righteousness of the scribes and Phăr'ĭ-sees, ye shall in no case enter into the kingdom of heaven.

21 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not kill; and whosoever shall kill shall be in danger of the judgment:

22 But I say unto you, That whosoever is angry with his brother without a cause shall be in danger of the judgment: and whosoever shall say to his brother, Raca, shall be in danger of the council: but whosoever shall say, Thou fool, shall be in danger of hell fire.

23 Therefore if thou bring thy gift to the altar, and there rememberest that thy brother hath ought against thee;

24 Leave there thy gift before the altar, and go thy way; first be reconciled to thy brother, and then come and offer thy gift.

25 Agree with thine adversary quickly, whiles thou art in the way with him; lest at any time the adversary deliver thee to the judge, and the judge deliver thee to the officer, and thou be cast into prison.

26 Verily I say unto thee, Thou shalt by no means come out thence, till thou hast paid the uttermost farthing.

27 ¶ Ye have heard that it was said by them of old time, Thou shalt not commit adultery:

28 But I say unto you, That whosoever looketh on a woman to lust after her hath committed adultery with her already in his heart.

29 And if thy right eye offend thee, pluck it out, and cast it from thee: for it is profitable for thee that one of thy members should perish, and not that thy whole body should be cast into hell.

Generations of Terah. GENESIS, 12. God calleth Abram.

17 And Ē′bĕr lived after he begat Pē′leg four hundred and thirty years, and begat sons and daughters.
18 And Pē′leg lived thirty years, and begat Rē′u:
19 And Pē′leg lived after he begat Rē′u two hundred and nine years, and begat sons and daughters.
20 And Rē′u lived two and thirty years, and begat Sē′rug:
21 And Rē′u lived after he begat Sē′rug two hundred and seven years, and begat sons and daughters.
22 And Sē′rug lived thirty years, and begat Nā′hôr:
23 And Sē′rug lived after he begat Nā′hôr two hundred years, and begat sons and daughters.
24 And Nā′hôr lived nine and twenty years, and begat Tē′rah:
25 And Nā′hôr lived after he begat Tē′rah an hundred and nineteen years, and begat sons and daughters.
26 And Tē′rah lived seventy years, and begat Ā′brăm, Nā′hôr, and Hā′ran.
27 ¶ Now these are the generations of Tē′rah: Tē′rah begat Ā′brăm, Nā′hôr, and Hā′ran; and Hā′ran begat Lŏt.
28 And Hā′ran died before his father Tē′rah in the land of his nativity, in Ūr of the Chăl′dees.
29 And Ā′brăm and Nā′hôr took them wives: the name of Ā′brăm's wife was Sā′rāi; and the name of Nā′hôr's wife, Mĭl′cah, the daughter of Hā′ran, the father of Mĭl′cah, and the father of Ĭs′cah.
30 But Sā′rāi was barren; she had no child.
31 And Tē′rah took Ā′brăm his son, and Lŏt the son of Hā′ran his son's son, and Sā′rāi his daughter in law, his son Ā′brăm's wife; and they went forth with them from Ūr of the Chăl′dees, to go into the land of Cā′năan; and they came unto Hā′ran, and dwelt there.
32 And the days of Tē′rah were two hundred and five years: and Tē′rah died in Hā′ran.

CHAPTER 12.

1 God calleth Abram, and blesseth him with a promise of Christ: 4 he departs from Haran. 6 Canaan promised.

NOW the LORD had said unto Ā′brăm, Get thee out of thy country, and from thy kindred, and from thy father's house, unto a land that I will shew thee:
2 And I will make of thee a great nation, and I will bless thee, and make thy name great; and thou shalt be a blessing:
3 And I will bless them that bless thee, and curse him that curseth thee: and in thee shall all families of the earth be blessed.
4 So Ā′brăm departed, as the LORD had spoken unto him; and Lŏt went with him: and Ā′brăm was seventy and five years old when he departed out of Hā′ran.
5 And Ā′brăm took Sā′rāi his wife, and Lŏt his brother's son, and all their substance that they had gathered, and the souls that they had gotten in Hā′ran; and they went forth to go into the land of Cā′năan; and into the land of Cā′năan they came.
6 ¶ And Ā′brăm passed through the land unto the place of Sī′chem, unto the plain of Mō′reh. And the Cā′năan-īte was then in the land.
7 And the LORD appeared unto Ā′brăm, and said, Unto thy seed will I give this land: and there builded he an altar unto the LORD, who appeared unto him.
8 And he removed from thence unto a mountain on the east of Bĕth′-el, and pitched his tent, having Bĕth′-el on the west, and Hā′ī on the east: and there he builded an altar unto the LORD, and called upon the name of the LORD.
9 And Ā′brăm journeyed, going on still toward the south.
10 ¶ And there was a famine in the land: and Ā′brăm went down into Ē′gўpt to sojourn there; for the famine was grievous in the land.
11 And it came to pass, when he was come near to enter into Ē′gўpt, that he said unto Sā′rāi his wife, Behold now, I know that thou art a fair woman to look upon:
12 Therefore it shall come to pass, when the Ē-gўp′tians shall see thee, that they shall say, This is his wife: and they will kill me, but they will save thee alive.
13 Say, I pray thee, thou art my sister: that it may be well with me for thy sake; and my soul shall live because of thee.

NEW GEM TYPE TEXT BIBLE

Handy Size—Black Face Type—Pronouncing Text

To meet the demand for a Bible with bold black type which does not run together and confuse the sight while reading, this particular edition has been issued. The outstanding feature of the type as compared with the average black faced types is that there is proper spacing, between the lines, to rest the eye.

The type is the same as that used in the popular Holman Gem Testament.

RUTH 1. Elimelech departeth into Moab.

9 For the people were numbered, and, behold, there were none of the inhabitants of Jā'besh-gĭl'ę-ăd there.

10 And the congregation sent thither twelve thousand men of the valiantest, and commanded them, saying, Go and smite the inhabitants of Jā'besh-gĭl'ę-ăd with the edge of the sword, with the women and the children.

11 And this is the thing that ye shall do, Ye shall utterly destroy every male, and every woman that hath lain by man.

12 And they found among the inhabitants of Jā'besh-gĭl'ę-ăd four hundred young virgins, that had known no man by lying with any male: and they brought them unto the camp to Shī'lōh, which is in the land of Cā'năan.

13 And the whole congregation sent some to speak to the children of Bĕn'ja-min that were in the rock Rĭm'mŏn, and to call peaceably unto them.

14 And Bĕn'ja-min came again at that time; and they gave them wives which they had saved alive of the women of Jā'besh-gĭl'ę-ăd: and yet so they sufficed them not.

15 And the people repented them for Bĕn'ja-min, because that the LORD had made a breach in the tribes of Ĭs'ra-el.

16 ¶ Then the elders of the congregation said, How shall we do for wives for them that remain, seeing the women are destroyed out of Bĕn'ja-min?

17 And they said, There must be an inheritance for them that be escaped of Bĕn'ja-min, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Ĭs'ra-el.

18 Howbeit we may not give them wives of our daughters: for the children of Ĭs'ra-el have sworn, saying, Cursed be he that giveth a wife to Bĕn'ja-min.

19 Then they said, Behold, there is a feast of the LORD in Shī'lōh yearly in a place which is on the north side of Bĕth'-el, on the east side of the highway that goeth up from Bĕth'-el to Shē'chem, and on the south of Lĕ-bō'nah.

20 Therefore they commanded the children of Bĕn'ja-min, saying, Go and lie in wait in the vineyards;

21 And see, and, behold, if the daughters of Shī'lōh come out to dance in dances, then come ye out of the vineyards, and catch you every man his wife of the daughters of Shī'lōh, and go to the land of Bĕn'ja-min.

22 And it shall be, when their fathers or their brethren come unto us to complain, that we will say unto them, Be favourable unto them for our sakes: because we reserved not to each man his wife in the war: for ye did not give unto them at this time, that ye should be guilty.

23 And the children of Bĕn'ja-min did so, and took them wives, according to their number, of them that danced, whom they caught: and they went and returned unto their inheritance, and repaired the cities, and dwelt in them.

24 And the children of Ĭs'ra-el departed thence at that time, every man to his tribe and to his family, and they went out from thence every man to his inheritance.

25 In those days there was no king in Ĭs'ra-el: every man did that which was right in his own eyes.

NEW GEM TYPE SCHOLARS' BIBLE

Handy Size—Black Face Type—Pronouncing Text

These Special Editions Have Been Prepared to Appeal to the Child's Own Interest

Containing new Practical Helps to Bible Study, especially designed for instructing children in Scriptural information.

The Text is Self-Pronouncing, by the aid of which children can learn to pronounce the difficult Scripture Proper Names.

Containing in simple language that a child can readily understand:

Complete History of the Bible
Synopsis of each Book of the Bible (very interesting)
Methods and Useful Hints for Bible Study for the Young
Two Catechisms on Bible Subjects, including the Life of Christ
Golden Text Treasury of Noble Scriptural Verses
History of the Life of the Apostle Paul

And in addition, a Bible Study reading course. All the above subjects have been reset for this particular Bible.

NEW COLORED ILLUSTRATIONS

With these pictures the BIBLE becomes A NEW BOOK.

THE PICTURES IN THIS BIBLE are a distinct departure from the old type. The best of both Old and Modern Masters have been drawn on for inspiration or presentation. This selection of subjects is one that will most appeal to the young, both in the beauty of the picture and the story it illustrates.

ONE IMPORTANT POINT with regard to these pictures is the unusual beauty of their coloring. They are works of art in themselves. The publishers have added one more color printing than is customary with Bible illustrations in order to bring out more fully their wonderful detail.

A prayer against enemies. PSALMS, 28–30. God is blessed.

may dwell in the house of the LORD all the days of my life, to behold the beauty of the LORD, and to enquire in his temple.

5 For in the time of trouble he shall hide me in his pavilion: in the secret of his tabernacle shall he hide me; he shall set me up upon a rock.

6 And now shall mine head be lifted up above mine enemies round about me: therefore will I offer in his tabernacle sacrifices of joy; I will sing, yea, I will sing praises unto the LORD.

7 Hear, O LORD, when I cry with my voice: have mercy also upon me, and answer me.

8 When thou saidst, Seek ye my face; my heart said unto thee, Thy face, LORD, will I seek.

9 Hide not thy face far from me; put not thy servant away in anger: thou hast been my help; leave me not, neither forsake me, O God of my salvation.

10 When my father and my mother forsake me, then the LORD will take me up.

11 Teach me thy way, O LORD, and lead me in a plain path, because of mine enemies.

12 Deliver me not over unto the will of mine enemies: for false witnesses are risen up against me, and such as breathe out cruelty.

13 I had fainted, unless I had believed to see the goodness of the LORD in the land of the living.

14 Wait on the LORD: be of good courage, and he shall strengthen thine heart: wait, I say, on the LORD.

PSALM 28.

A Psalm of David.

UNTO thee will I cry, O LORD my rock; be not silent to me: lest, if thou be silent to me, I become like them that go down into the pit.

2 Hear the voice of my supplications, when I cry unto thee, when I lift up my hands toward thy holy oracle.

3 Draw me not away with the wicked, and with the workers of iniquity, which speak peace to their neighbours, but mischief is in their hearts.

4 Give them according to their deeds, and according to the wickedness of their endeavours: give them after the work of their hands; render to them their desert

6 Blessed be the LORD, because he hath heard the voice of my supplications.

7 The LORD is my strength and my shield; my heart trusted in him, and I am helped: therefore my heart greatly rejoiceth; and with my song will I praise him.

8 The LORD is their strength, and he is the saving strength of his anointed.

9 Save thy people, and bless thine inheritance: feed them also, and lift them up for ever.

PSALM 29.

David exhorts princes to give glory to God.

A Psalm of David.

GIVE unto the LORD, O ye mighty, give unto the LORD glory and strength.

2 Give unto the LORD the glory due unto his name; worship the LORD in the beauty of holiness.

3 The voice of the LORD is upon the waters: the God of glory thundereth: the LORD is upon many waters.

4 The voice of the LORD is powerful; the voice of the LORD is full of majesty.

5 The voice of the LORD breaketh the cedars; yea, the LORD breaketh the cedars of Lebanon.

6 He maketh them also to skip like a calf; Lebanon and Sirion like a young unicorn.

7 The voice of the LORD divideth the flames of fire.

8 The voice of the LORD shaketh the wilderness; the LORD shaketh the wilderness of Kadesh.

9 The voice of the LORD maketh the hinds to calve, and discovereth the forests: and in his temple doth every one speak of his glory.

10 The LORD sitteth upon the flood; yea, the LORD sitteth King for ever.

11 The LORD will give strength unto his people; the LORD will bless his people with peace.

PSALM 30.

David praises God for his deliverance.

A Psalm and Song at the dedication of the house of David.

I WILL extol thee, O LORD; for thou hast lifted me up, and hast not made my foes to rejoice over me.

2 O LORD my God, I cried unto thee, and thou hast healed me.

THE GENERAL EPISTLE OF JAMES.

1147 CHAPTER 1.

JĀMES, a servant of God and of the Lord Jē'şus Chrīst, to the twelve tribes which are scattered abroad, greeting.

2 My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations.

3 Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.

4 But let patience have her perfect work, that ye may be perfect and entire, wanting nothing.

5 If any of you lack wisdom, let him ask of God, that giveth to all men liberally, and upbraideth not; and it shall be given him.

6 But let him ask in faith, nothing wavering. For he that wavereth is like a wave of the sea, driven with the wind and tossed.

7 For let not that man think that he shall receive any thing of the Lord.

8 A double minded man is unstable in all his ways.

9 Let the brother of low degree rejoice in that he is exalted:

10 But the rich, in that he is made low: because as the flower of the grass he shall pass away.

11 For the sun is no sooner risen with a burning heat, but it withereth the grass, and the flower thereof falleth, and the grace of the fashion of it perisheth: so also shall the rich man fade away in his ways.

12 Blessed is the man that endureth temptation: for when he is tried, he shall receive the crown of life, which the Lord hath promised to them that love him.

13 Let no man say when he is tempted, I am tempted of God: for God cannot be tempted with evil, neither tempteth he any man:

14 But every man is tempted, when he is drawn away of his own lust, and enticed.

15 Then when lust hath conceived, it bringeth forth sin: and sin, when it is finished, bringeth forth death.

16 Do not err, my beloved brethren.

17 Every good gift and every perfect gift is from above, and cometh down from the Father of lights, with whom is no variableness, neither shadow of turning.

18 Of his own will begat he us with the word of truth, that we should be a kind of firstfruits of his creatures.

19 Wherefore, my beloved brethren, let every man be swift to hear, slow to speak, slow to wrath:

20 For the wrath of man worketh not the righteousness of God.

22 But be ye doers of the word, and not hearers only, deceiving your own selves.

23 For if any be a hearer of the word, and not a doer, he is like unto a man beholding his natural face in a glass:

24 For he beholdeth himself, and goeth his way, and straightway forgetteth what manner of man he was.

25 But whoso looketh into the perfect law of liberty, and continueth therein, he being not a forgetful hearer, but a doer of the work, this man shall be blessed in his deed.

26 If any man among you seem to be religious, and bridleth not his tongue, but deceiveth his own heart, this man's religion is vain.

27 Pure religion and undefiled before God and the Father, is this, To visit the fatherless and widows in their affliction, and to keep himself unspotted from the world.

CHAPTER 2. 1148

MY brethren, have not the faith of our Lord Jē'şus Chrīst, the Lord of glory, with respect of persons.

2 For if there come unto your assembly a man with a gold ring, in goodly apparel, and there come in also a poor man in vile raiment;

3 And ye have respect to him that weareth the gay clothing, and say unto him, Sit thou here in a good place; and say to the poor, Stand thou there, or sit here under my footstool:

4 Are ye not then partial in yourselves, and are become judges of evil thoughts?

5 Hearken, my beloved brethren, Hath not God chosen the poor of this world rich in faith, and heirs of the kingdom which he hath promised to them that love him?

6 But ye have despised the poor. Do not rich men oppress you, and draw you before the judgment seats?

7 Do not they blaspheme that worthy name by the which ye are called?

8 If ye fulfil the royal law, according to the scripture, Thou shalt love thy neighbour as thyself, ye do well:

9 But if ye have respect to persons, ye commit sin, and are convinced of the law as transgressors.

10 For whosoever shall keep the whole law, and yet offend in one point, he is guilty of all.

11 For he that said, Do not commit adultery, said also, Do not kill. Now if thou commit no adultery, yet if thou kill, thou art become a transgressor of the law.

12 So speak ye, and so do, as they that shall be judged by the law of liberty.

13 For he shall have judgment without mercy, that hath shewed no mercy; and mercy rejoiceth against judgment.

14 What doth it profit, my brethren, though a man say he hath faith, and have not works? can faith save him?

15 If a brother or sister be naked, and destitute of daily food,

EPHESIANS.

CHAPTER 1.

1 He blesseth God for spiritual blessings, 7 and for redemption by his grace.

PAUL, an apostle of Jē'şus Christ by the will of God, to the saints which are at Ĕph'ē-sŭs, [a] and to the faithful in Christ Jē'şus:

2 [b] Grace be to you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'şus Christ.

3 [c] Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jē'şus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly [1] places in Christ:

4 According as [d] he hath chosen us in him [e] before the foundation of the world, that we should [f] be holy and without blame before him in love:

5 [g] Having predestinated us unto [h] the adoption of children by Jē'şus Christ to himself, [i] according to the good pleasure of his will,

6 [j] To the praise of the glory of his grace, [k] wherein he hath made us accepted in [l] the beloved.

7 [m] In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to [n] the riches of his grace;

8 Wherein he hath abounded toward us in all wisdom and prudence;

9 [o] Having made known unto us the mystery of his will, according to his good pleasure [p] which he hath purposed in himself:

10 That in the dispensation of [q] the fulness of times [r] he might gather together in one [s] all things in Christ, both which are in [2] heaven, and which are on earth; even in him:

11 [t] In whom also we have obtained an inheritance, being predestinated according to [u] the purpose of him who worketh all things after the counsel of his own will:

12 [v] That we should be to the praise of his glory, [w] who first [3] trusted in Christ.

13 In whom ye also trusted, after that ye heard the word of truth, the gospel of your salvation: in whom also after that ye believed, [x] ye were sealed with that holy Spirit of promise,

14 [y] Which is the earnest of our inheritance [z] until the redemption of [a] the purchased possession, unto the praise of his glory.

15 Wherefore I also, after I heard of your faith in the Lord Jē'şus, and love unto all the saints,

16 Cease not to give thanks for you, making mention of you in my prayers;

17 That the God of our Lord Jē'şus Christ, the Father of glory, [b] may give unto you the spirit of wisdom and revelation [4] in the knowledge of him:

18 [c] The eyes of your understanding being enlightened; that ye may know what is the hope of his calling, and what the riches of the glory of his inheritance in the saints,

19 And what is the exceeding greatness of his power to us-ward who believe, [d] according to the working [5] of his mighty power,

20 Which he wrought in Christ, when he raised him from the dead, and set him at his own right hand in the heavenly places,

21 [e] Far above all principality, and power, and might, and dominion, and every name that is named, not only in this world, but also in that which is to come:

22 And [f] hath put all things under his feet, and gave him [g] to be the head over all things to the church,

23 [h] Which is his body, the fulness of him [i] that filleth all in all.

CHAPTER 2.

1 What the Ephesians' state was: 4 God's mercy in their deliverance.

AND [a] you hath he quickened, who were dead in trespasses and sins;

2 [b] Wherein in time past ye walked according to the course of this world, according to the prince of the power of the air, the spirit that now worketh in [c] the children of disobedience:

3 [d] Among whom also we all had our conversation in times past in [e] the lusts of our flesh, fulfilling [1] the desires of the flesh and of the mind; and [f] were by nature the children of wrath, even as others.

4 But God, [g] who is rich in mercy, for his great love wherewith he loved us,

5 [h] Even when we were dead in sins, hath [i] quickened us together with Christ, (2 by grace ye are saved;)

6 And hath raised us up together, and made us sit together in heavenly places in Christ Jē'şus:

THE NEW HELPS CONSIST OF

The Inclusive Dictionary-Concordance in one alphabet

It contains every needed assistance to the Bible student, including a Dictionary, a Concordance, and a Subject Index of important topics

Over 100 Illustrations in the text, including full-page illustrations

The Dictionary included in this alphabetical arrangement is self-pronouncing. It is not merely an explanation of words. The meaning or derivation of the name is given in every instance. Passages of Scripture are quoted, and an interesting explanation is presented to the reader.

Where it is possible, the exact location of the geographical name has been given, and the modern name if the place is still in existence. The illustrations enable one to visualize the subject, as well as to find the meaning, and the reference to the Scriptures.

The Concordance part is so arranged that there is no difficulty in finding a word, all Concordance words being indented.

White space precedes the lines, thus enabling one to find the right word and the particular reference desired, instantly. Although necessarily condensed in order to make it available for publication with the Bible, it embraces all the salient points of the complete Concordance.

The Charts and Chronological Tables, not usually available in so extended a form in condensed Bible Helps, make the information there contained strikingly visible.

The Maps, printed on coated paper, are distinguished by strong boundary lines and contrasted coloring, not glaring in tone. They have been in use for some time and were verified and authenticated by some of the best known and most exacting Bible scholars.

A New, Practical Course in Bible Reading is also included in this edition of the Bible. This course has the great merit of tending to form in the reader the Bible-reading habit. It is divided into thirty-six lessons. The System of Markings is simple and the story of the books of the Old Testament, and also the life of Christ, add to the interest of either student or general reader.

NOTE the bold-faced type, pronouncing text, center column references with chapter numbers in heavy type—unusual in Bibles, but a great aid to quick reference.

Synopsis at head of chapters—quite full—some Bibles have none.

The figures to the left of Chapter Head indicate the total number of chapters from the beginning of the Bible.

The headlines also are in bold type in keeping with the text.

The name of the book, on outside corner, makes the Bible practically self-indexed.

1104 CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's thankfulness and prayer to God for them: 21 his readiness to glorify Christ.

PAUL and Tĭ-mō'the-ŭs, the servants of Jē'şus Chrīst, to all the saints in Chrīst Jē'şus which are at Phĭ-lĭp'pī, with the [1] bishops and deacons:

2 Grace be unto you, and peace, from God our Father, and from the Lord Jē'şus Chrīst.

3 [a] I thank my God upon every [2] remembrance of you,

4 Always in every prayer of mine for you all making request with joy,

5 [b] For your fellowship in the gospel from the first day until now;

6 Being confident of this very thing, that he which hath begun [c] a good work in you [3] will perform it until the day of Jē'şus Chrīst:

7 Even as it is meet for me to think this of you all, because [4] I have you in my heart; inasmuch as both in [d] my bonds, and in the defence and confirmation of the gospel, [e] ye all are [5] partakers of my grace.

8 For God is my record, how greatly I long after you all in the bowels of Jē'şus Chrīst.

9 And this I pray, [f] that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and in all [6] judgment;

10 That [g] ye may [7] approve things that [8] are excellent; [h] that ye may be sincere and without offence till the day of Chrīst;

13 So that my bonds [9] in Chrīst are manifest [j] in all [10] the palace, and [11] in all other places;

14 And many of the brethren in the Lord, waxing confident by my bonds, are much more bold to speak the word without fear.

15 Some indeed preach Chrīst even of envy and [k] strife; and some also of good will:

16 The one preach Chrīst of contention, not sincerely, supposing to add affliction to my bonds:

17 But the other of love, knowing that I am set for the defence of the gospel.

18 What then? notwithstanding, every way, whether in pretence, or in truth, Chrīst is preached; and I therein do rejoice, yea, and will rejoice.

19 For I know that this shall turn to my salvation [l] through your prayer, and the supply of [m] the Spirit of Jē'şus Chrīst,

20 According to my earnest expectation and my hope, that [n] in nothing I shall be ashamed, but that with all boldness, as always, so now also Chrīst shall be magnified in my body, whether it be by life, or by death.

THE FIRST EPISTLE OF PAUL THE APOSTLE TO TIMOTHY.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Paul's charge to Timothy. 5 Use and end of law. 11 Paul's call.

A. D. 65.

PAUL, an apostle of Jesus Christ [a]by the commandment [b]of God our Saviour, and Lord Jesus Christ, [c]which is our hope;

2 Unto [d]Timothy, my own son in the faith: Grace, mercy, and peace, from God our Father and Jesus Christ our Lord.

3 As I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, [e]when I went into Macedonia, that thou mightest charge some [f]that they teach no other doctrine,

4 Neither give heed to fables and endless genealogies, which minister questions, rather than godly edifying which is in faith: so do.

5 Now [g]the end of the commandment is charity [h]out of a pure heart, and of a good conscience, and of faith unfeigned:

6 From which some[1] having swerved have turned aside unto vain jangling;

7 Desiring to be teachers of the law; understanding neither what they say, nor whereof they affirm.

8 But we know that [i]the law is good, if a man use it lawfully;

9 [j]Knowing this, that the law is not made for a righteous man, but for [k]the lawless and disobedient, for the ungodly and for sinners, for unholy and profane, for murderers of fathers and murderers of mothers, for manslayers,

10 For whoremongers, for them that defile themselves with mankind, for menstealers, for liars, for perjured persons, and if there be any other thing that is contrary to sound doctrine;

11 According to the glorious gospel of the blessed God, which was committed to my trust.

12 And I thank Christ Jesus our Lord, who hath enabled me, [l]for that he counted me faithful, [m]putting me into the ministry;

13 [n]Who was before a blasphemer, and a persecutor, and injurious: but I obtained mercy, because [o]I did it ignorantly in unbelief.

14 And the grace of our Lord was exceeding abundant with faith [p]and love which is in Christ Jesus.

15 This is a faithful saying, and worthy of all acceptation, that [q]Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners; of whom I am chief.

16 Howbeit for this cause I obtained mercy, that in me first Jesus Christ might shew forth all long-suffering, for a pattern to them which should hereafter believe on him to life everlasting.

17 Now unto [r]the King eternal, immortal, [s]invisible, the only wise God, be honour and glory for ever and ever. Amen.

18 This charge I commit unto thee, son Timothy, [t]according to the prophecies which went before on thee, that thou by them mightest war a good warfare;

19 Holding faith, and a good conscience; which some having put away concerning faith have made shipwreck:

20 Of whom is [u]Hymenæus and [v]Alexander; whom I have [w]delivered unto Satan, that they may learn not to blaspheme.

CHAPTER 2.

1 Of prayer and thanks for all. 9 Woman's attire and conduct.

I [1]EXHORT therefore, that, first of all, supplications, prayers, intercessions, and giving of thanks, be made for all men;

2 [a]For kings, and [b]for all that are in [2]authority; that we may lead a quiet and peaceable life in all godliness and honesty.

3 For this is [c]good and acceptable in the sight of God our Saviour;

4 [d]Who will have all men to be saved, [e]and to come unto the knowledge of the truth.

5 For there is one God, and one mediator between God and men, the man Christ Jesus;

6 Who gave himself a ransom for all, [3]to be testified [f]in due time.

7 Whereunto I am ordained a preacher, and an apostle, (I speak the truth in Christ, and lie not;) a teacher of the Gentiles in faith and verity.

8 I will therefore that men pray [g]every where, lifting up holy hands, without wrath and doubting.

9 In like manner also, that women adorn themselves in modest apparel, with shamefacedness and sobriety; not with [4]broided hair, or gold, or pearls, or costly array;

10 But (which becometh women professing godliness) with good works.

11 Let the woman learn in silence with all subjection.

12 But I suffer not a woman to teach, nor to usurp authority over the man, but to be in silence.

ST. MATTHEW, 5. Christ's sermon on the mount.

A. D. 31.

15 [k] The land of Zăb'u-lon, and the land of Nĕph'tha-lim, by the way of the sea, beyond Jôr'dan, Găl'i-lee of the Gĕn'tiles;

16 [l] The people which sat in darkness saw great light; and to them which sat in the region and shadow of death light is sprung up.

17 ¶ [m] From that time Jē'sus began to preach, and to say, [n] Repent: for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.

18 ¶ [o] And Jē'sus, walking by the sea of Găl'i-lee, saw two brethren, Sī'mon [p] called Pē'tĕr, and An'drew his brother, casting a net into the sea: for they were fishers.

2 And he opened his mouth, and taught them, saying,

3 [b] Blessed are the poor in spirit: for their's is the kingdom of heaven.

4 [c] Blessed are they that mourn: for they shall be comforted.

5 [d] Blessed are the meek: for [e] they shall inherit the earth.

6 Blessed are they which do hunger and thirst after righteousness: [f] for they shall be filled.

7 Blessed are the merciful: [g] for they shall obtain mercy.

8 [h] Blessed are the pure in heart: for [i] they shall see God.

9 Blessed are the peacemakers: for they shall be called the children of Phăr'ĭ-seeș were offended, after they heard this saying?

13 But he answered and said, [m] Every plant, which my heavenly Father hath not planted, shall be rooted up.

14 Let them alone: [n] they be blind leaders of the blind. And if the blind lead the blind, both shall fall into the ditch.

15 [o] Then answered Pē'tĕr and said unto him, Declare unto us this parable.

16 And Jē'ṣus said, [p] Are ye also yet without understanding?

17 Do not ye yet understand, that [q] whatsoever entereth in at the mouth goeth into the belly, and is cast out into the draught?

18 But [r] those things which proceed out of the mouth come forth from the heart; and they defile the man.

19 [s] For out of the heart proceed evil thoughts, murders, adulteries, fornications, thefts, false witness, blasphemies:

20 These are the things which defile a man: but to eat with unwashen hands defileth not a man.

21 ¶ [t] Then Jē'ṣus went thence, and departed into the coasts of Tȳre and Sī'dŏn.

22 And, behold, a woman of Cā'năan came out of the same coasts, and cried unto him, saying, Have mercy on me, O Lord, thou son of Dā'vid; my daughter is grievously vexed with a devil.

23 But he answered her not a word. And his disciples came and besought him, saying, Send her away; for she crieth after us.

24 But he answered and said, [u] I am not sent but unto the lost sheep of the house of Ĭṣ'ra-el.

25 Then came she and worshipped him, saying, Lord, help me.

26 But he answered and said, It is not meet to take the children's bread, and to cast it to [x] dogs.

27 And she said, Truth, Lord: yet the dogs eat of the crumbs which fall from their masters' table.

28 Then Jē'ṣus answered and said unto her, O woman, great is thy faith: be it unto thee even as thou wilt. And her daughter was made whole from that very hour.

29 [y] And Jē'ṣus departed from thence, and came nigh [z] unto the sea of Găl'ĭ-lee; and went up into a mountain, and sat down there.

30 [a] And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many others, and cast them down at Jē'ṣus' feet; and he healed them:

31 Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see: and they glorified the God of Ĭṣ'ra-el.

32 ¶ [b] Then Jē'ṣus called his disciples unto him, and said, I have compassion on the multitude, because they continue with me now three days, and have nothing to eat: and I will not send them away fasting, lest they faint in the way.

33 [c] And his disciples say unto him, Whence should we have so much bread in the wilderness, as to fill so great a multitude?

34 And Jē'ṣus saith unto them, How many loaves have ye? And they said, Seven, and a few little fishes.

35 And he commanded the multitude to sit down on the ground.

36 And [d] he took the seven loaves and the fishes, and [e] gave thanks, and brake them, and gave to his disciples, and the disciples to the multitude.

37 And they did all eat, and were filled: and they took up of the broken meat that was left seven baskets full.

38 And they that did eat were four thousand men, beside women and children.

39 [f] And he sent away the multitude, and took ship, and came into the coasts of Măg'dą-là.

S. LUKE, 19. Christ visiteth a publican.

Do not commit adultery, Do not kill, Do not steal, Do not bear false witness, Honour thy father and thy mother.

21 And he said, All these have I kept from my youth up.

22 Now when Jē'sus heard these things, he said unto him, Yet lackest thou one thing: sell all that thou hast, and distribute unto the poor, and thou shalt have treasure in heaven: and come, follow me.

23 And when he heard this, he was very sorrowful: for he was very rich.

24 And when Jē'sus saw that he was very sorrowful, he said, How hardly shall they that have riches enter into the kingdom of God!

25 For it is easier for a camel to go through a needle's eye, than for a rich man to enter into the kingdom of God.

26 And they that heard it said, Who then can be saved?

27 And he said, The things which are impossible with men, are possible with God.

28 Then Pē'ter said, Lo, we have left all, and followed thee.

29 And he said unto them, Verily I say unto you, There is no man that hath left house, or parents, or brethren, or wife, or children, for the kingdom of God's sake,

30 Who shall not receive manifold more in this present time, and in the world to come life everlasting.

31 Then he took unto him the twelve, and said unto them, Behold, we go up to Je-

CHAPTER 19. 992

AND Jē'sus entered and passed through Jĕr'i-chō.

2 And, behold, there was a man named Zac-chæ'us, which was the chief among the publicans, and he was rich.

3 And he sought to see Jē'sus, who he was; and could not for the press, because he was little of stature.

4 And he ran before, and climbed up into a sycamore tree to see him: for he was to pass that way.

5 And when Jē'sus came to the place, he looked up, and saw him, and said unto him, Zac-chæ'us, make haste, and come down, for to day I must abide at thy house.

6 And he made haste, and came down, and received him joyfully.

7 And when they saw it, they all murmured, saying, That he was gone to be guest with a man that is a sinner.

8 And Zac-chæ'us stood, and said unto the Lord, Behold, Lord, the half of my goods, I give to the poor: and if I have taken any thing from any man by false accusation, I restore him fourfold.

9 And Jē'sus said unto him, This day is salvation come to this house, forsomuch as he also is a son of A'bra-ham.

10 For the Son of man is come to seek and to save that which was lost.

11 And as they heard these things, he added and spake a parable, because he was nigh to Je-ru'sa-lĕm, and because they thought that the kingdom of God should immediately appear.

ST. LUKE, 5.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.
14 And he charged him to tell no man: but go, and shew thyself to the priest, and offer for thy cleansing, according as Mō'ṣeṣ commanded, for a testimony unto them.
15 But so much the more went there a fame abroad of him: and great multitudes came together to hear, and to be healed by him of their infirmities.
16 ¶ And he withdrew himself into the wilderness, and prayed.
17 And it came to pass on a certain day, as he was teaching, that there were Phär'ī-sees and doctors of the law sitting by, which were come out of every town of Gāl'ī-lee, and Jū-dæ'ā, and Jē-ry'sā-lēm: and the power of the Lord was present to heal them.
18 ¶ And, behold, men brought in a bed a man which was taken with a palsy: and they sought means to bring him in, and to lay him before him.
19 And when they could not find by what way they might bring him in because of the multitude, they went upon the house top, and let him down through the tiling with his couch into the midst before Jē'sus.
20 And when he saw their faith, he said unto him, Man, thy sins are forgiven thee.
21 And the scribes and the Phär'ī-sees began to reason, saying, Who is this which speaketh blasphemies? Who can forgive sins, but God alone?
22 But when Jē'sus perceived their thoughts, he answering said unto them, What reason ye in your hearts?
23 Whether is easier, to say, Thy sins be forgiven thee; or to say, Rise up and walk?
24 But that ye may know that the Son of man hath power upon earth to forgive sins, (he said unto the sick of the palsy,) I say unto thee, Arise, and take up thy couch, and go into thine house.
25 And immediately he rose up before them, and took up that whereon he lay, and departed to his own house, glorifying God.
26 And they were all amazed, and they glorified God, and were filled with fear, saying, We have seen strange things to day.
27 ¶ And after these things he went forth, and saw a publican, named Lē'vī, sitting at the receipt of custom: and he said unto him, Follow me.
28 And he left all, rose up, and followed him.
29 And Lē'vī made him a great feast in his own house: and there was a great company of publicans and of others that sat down with them.
30 But their scribes and Phär'ī-sees murmured against his disciples, saying, Why do ye eat and drink with publicans and sinners?
31 And Jē'sus answering

THE FIRST EPISTLE GENERAL OF PETER.

1152] CHAPTER 1.

1 Blessing for spiritual graces. 13 Exhortation to godliness.

PETER, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to the strangers [a]scattered throughout Pontus, Galatia, Cappadocia, Asia, and Bithynia,

2 Elect [b]according to the foreknowledge of God the Father, [c]through sanctification of the Spirit, unto obedience and sprinkling [d]of the blood of Jesus Christ: Grace unto you, and peace, be multiplied.

3 Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, which according to his [1]abundant mercy [e]hath begotten us again unto a lively hope [f]by the resurrection of Jesus Christ from the dead,

4 To an inheritance incorruptible, and undefiled, and that fadeth not away, reserved in heaven [2]for you,

5 [g]Who are kept by the power of God through faith unto salvation ready to be revealed in the last time.

6 [h]Wherein ye greatly rejoice, though now for a season, if need be, ye are in heaviness through manifold temptations:

7 That the trial of your faith, being much more precious than of gold that perisheth, though [i]it be tried with fire, might be found unto praise and honour and glory at the appearing of Jesus Christ:

8 [j]Whom having not seen, ye love; [k]in whom, though now ye see him not, yet believing, ye rejoice with joy unspeakable and full of glory:

9 Receiving the end of your faith, even the salvation of your souls.

10 [l]Of which salvation the prophets have enquired and searched diligently, who prophesied of the grace that should come unto you:

11 Searching what, or what manner of time [m]the Spirit of Christ which was in them did signify, when it testified beforehand [n]the sufferings of Christ, and the glory that should follow.

12 [o]Unto whom it was revealed, that [p]not unto themselves, but unto us they did minister the things, which are now reported unto you by them that have preached the gospel unto you with [q]the Holy Ghost sent down from heaven; [r]which things the angels desire to look into.

13 Wherefore gird up the loins of your mind, be sober, and hope [3]to the end for the grace that is to be brought unto you [s]at the revelation of Jesus Christ;

14 As obedient children, not fashioning yourselves according to the former presents in a single line and in large, clear type the texts of the Authorized and Revised versions of the Holy Bible, where said texts are alike. Where they are unlike, either in language, spelling, italicization, capitalization, parentheses, punctuation, or otherwise, the difference is at once set forth by means of double lines of smaller type, making a readily and easily readable combined text.

Readers of the Word of God have hitherto always found it difficult to pronounce the many troublesome foreign names occurring in the text. This difficulty has now been overcome by means of a system which divides the words into syllables, and which also shows the accented syllables and indicates the proper sounds of the variable vowels and consonants.

BOOK OF JUDGES.

CHAPTER 1.

1 Conquests by Judah. 8 Jerusalem taken. 21 The acts of Benjamin. 29 Nations remaining unconquered.

B. C. 1425.

NOW after the death of Jŏsh'u-a it came to pass, that the children of Ĭs'ra-el [a]asked the LORD, saying, Who shall go up for us against the Cā'năan-ītes first, to fight against them?

2 And the LORD said, [b]Jū'dah shall go up: behold, I have delivered the land into his hand.

3 And Jū'dah said unto Sĭm'e-on his brother, Come up with me into my lot, that we may fight against the Cā'năan-ītes; and I likewise will go with thee into thy lot. So Sĭm'e-on went with him.

4 And Jū'dah went up; and [d]the LORD delivered the Cā'năan-ītes and the Pĕr'ĭz-zītes into their hand: and they slew of them in Bē'zek ten thousand men.

5 And they found Ă-dŏn'ī-bē'zek in Bē'zek: and they fought against him, and they slew the Cā'năan-ītes and the Pĕr'ĭz-zītes.

6 But Ă-dŏn'ī-bē'zek fled; and they pursued after him, and caught him, and cut off his thumbs and his great toes.

7 And Ă-dŏn'ī-bē'zek said, Threescore and ten kings, having [1]their thumbs and their great toes cut off, [2]gathered their meat under my table: [e]as I have done, so God hath requited me. And they brought him to Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, and there he died.

8 Now the children of Jū'dah had fought against Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm, and had taken it, and smitten it with the edge of the sword, and set the city on fire.

9 And afterward the children of Jū'dah went down to fight against the Cā'năan-ītes, that dwelt in the mountain, and in the south, and in the valley.

10 And Jū'dah went against the Cā'năan-ītes that dwelt in Hē'bron: (now the name of Hē'bron before was Kĭr'jath-ăr'bā:) and they slew Shē'shāi, and Ă-hĭm'ăn, and Tăl'mī.

11 And from thence he went against the inhabitants of Dē'bīr: and the name of Dē'bīr before was Kĭr'jath-sē'phēr.

12 And Cā'leb said, He that smiteth Kĭr'jath-sē'phēr, and taketh it, to him will I give Ăch'sah my daughter to wife.

13 And Oth'nĭ-ĕl the son of Kĕn'āz, the brother of Cā'leb, took it: and he gave him Ăch'sah his daughter to wife.

14 And it came to pass, when she came unto him, that she moved him to ask of her father a field: and she lighted from off her ass; and Cā'leb said unto her, What wouldest thou?

15 Who answered him, Give me a blessing: for thou hast given me a south land; give me also springs of water. And Cā'leb gave her the upper springs and the nether springs.

16 And the children of the Kē'nīte, Mō'sĕs' father in law, went up out of the city of palm trees with the children of Jū'dah into the wilderness of Jū'dah, which lieth in the south of [o]Ā'răd; [p]and they went and dwelt among the people.

17 And Jū'dah went with Sĭm'e-on his brother, and they slew the Cā'năan-ītes that inhabited Zē'phath, and utterly destroyed it. And the name of the city was called [q]Hôr'mah.

18 Also Jū'dah took [r]Gā'zà with the coast thereof, and Ăs'ke-lŏn with the coast thereof, and Ēk'rŏn with the coast thereof.

19 And [s]the LORD was with Jū'dah; and [t]he drove out the inhabitants of the mountain; but could not drive out the inhabitants of the valley, because they had [t]chariots of iron.

20 [u]And they gave Hē'bron unto Cā'leb, as Mō'sĕs said: and he expelled thence the three sons of Ā'năk.

21 [v]And the children of Bĕn'ja-min did not drive out the Jĕb'u-sītes that inhabited Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm; but the Jĕb'u-sītes dwell with the children of Bĕn'ja-min in Jĕ-ru'să-lĕm unto this day.

22 ¶ And the house of Jō'sĕph, they also went up against Bĕth'-el: and the LORD was with them.

23 And the house of Jō'sĕph [w]sent to descry Bĕth'-el. (Now the name of the city before was [x]Lŭz.)

24 And the spies saw a man come forth out of the city, and they said unto him, Shew us, we pray

The Holman India Paper Pronouncing FAMILY BIBLE

Beautifully Printed on Holman India Paper

Easy To Read. Easy To Hold.

SIZE 9¼ x 12 INCHES. $\frac{13}{16}$ OF AN INCH THICK. WEIGHT, 2 lbs., 7 oz.

The Largest Type Self-Pronouncing Family Bible in the Smallest Compass made.

Contains Frontispiece in Colors, Dictionary of Scripture Proper Names, Concordance and Family Record.

The India Paper on which this edition is printed is used exclusively in Holman Bibles. The color tone is a beautiful pearl white with a firm soft finish. While it is doubly strong and firm in texture, it is so thin it bulks only $\frac{5}{8}$ of an inch to a thousand pages, and so opaque that the heavy black type does not show through.

HOLMAN VEST-POCKET TESTAMENT

Every Bible proper name, and names of all natural objects requiring explanation are found in it. Each word is followed by a translation in English of its original. The definitions are concise and pointed, yet ample for good understanding and effective working purposes. The Holman Dictionary separates all words into syllables and puts the accents where they belong. It also gives to each vowel its proper sound by means of diacritical marks. No one can mistake the pronunciation of even the longest and hardest words. It is a Self-Pronouncing Dictionary and authentic.

THE INCLUSIVE DICTIONARY—CONCORDANCE

Copyright, 1925, by A. J. Holman Company and incorporated in the new Boldblack Type Teachers' Bibles
See description, prices, etc., on preceding pages, 13–15.

Combining in a single alphabetical arrangement a pronouncing dictionary of the Bible; a Concordance to the Scriptures; a subject index to the Bible; tables of chronology and of weights and measures, etc., together with a complete series of maps showing the Bible countries from the earliest times to the date of the destruction of Jerusalem. Over 100 illustrations including full page illustrations.

EXPLANATORY NOTE

The Inclusive Dictionary-Concordance contains a selection and combination of the Holman Helps to the Study of the Bible, known to so many readers of the Holman Bibles, thoroughly revised so as to bring the material in line with the most recent knowledge. For the greater convenience of the reader and student, the information given in the various alphabetical lists of the Holman Helps has been rearranged in a single alphabetical order, so that any subject about which information is desired may be instantly found in its proper alphabetical place without the necessity of referring to an Index or of search in a Table of Contents.

But the Dictionary-Concordance, though in alphabetic form, is more than a word-book. The descriptions of Oriental persons, places, and things which render a Bible Dictionary rather of the type of an Encyclopædia are to be found here, each in the natural place according to the alphabet; and wherever it is of value to the reader cross-references are given to other places in the Dictionary-Concordance. For instance, the tables of Weights and Measures, of the Jewish Calendar, of Jewish and Roman Money, etc., are found as tables in their natural places. But each commonly used name of a weight, a month, or a coin is also found under its own name in the place in the alphabetical order in which it belongs.

Miraculous draught of fishes. Sick of the palsy healed. ST. LUKE

978 CHAPTER 5.

1 Christ teacheth out of Peter's ship. 4 A miraculous draught of fishes. 27 Levi called from the receipt of custom.

AND it came to pass, that, as the people pressed upon him to hear the word of God, he stood by the lake of Gĕn-nĕs'a-rĕt,

2 And saw two ships standing by the lake: but the fishermen were gone out of them, and were washing their nets.

3 And he entered into one of the ships, which was Sī'mon's, and prayed him that he would thrust out a little from the land. And he sat down, and taught the people out of the ship.

4 Now when he had left speaking, he said unto Sī'mon, Launch out into the deep, and let down your nets for a draught.

5 And Sī'mon answering said unto him, Master, we have toiled all the night, and have taken nothing: nevertheless at thy word I will let down the net.

6 And when they had this done, they inclosed a great multitude of fishes: and their net brake.

7 And they beckoned unto their partners, which were in the other ship, that they should come and help them. And they came, and filled both the ships, so that they began to sink.

8 When Sī'mon Pē'tĕr saw it, he fell down at Jē'sus' knees, saying, Depart from me; for I am a sinful man, O Lord.

9 For he was astonished, and all that were with him, at the draught of the fishes which they had taken:

10 And so was also Jāmes, and John, the sons of Zĕb'e-dee, which were partners with Sī'mon. And Jē'sus said unto Sī'mon, Fear not; from henceforth thou shalt catch men.

11 And when they had brought their ships to land, they forsook all, and followed him.

12 ¶ And it came to pass, when he was in a certain city, behold a man full of leprosy: who seeing Jē'sus fell on his face, and besought him, saying, Lord, if thou wilt, thou canst make me clean.

13 And he put forth his hand, and touched him, saying, I will: be thou clean. And immediately the leprosy departed from him.

14 And he charged him to tell man: but go, and shew thyself to t priest, and offer for thy cleansin according as Mō'sēs commanded, f a testimony unto them.

15 But so much the more we there a fame abroad of him: a great multitudes came together hear, and to be healed by him their infirmities.

16 ¶ And he withdrew himself in the wilderness, and prayed.

17 And it came to pass on a ce tain day, as he was teaching, th there were Phăr'ī-sees and docto of the law sitting by, which we come out of every town of Găl'ī-l and Jū'dæ'a, and Jē-ru'sa-lĕm: a the power of the Lord was prese to heal them.

18 ¶ And, behold, men brought a bed a man which was taken with palsy: and they sought means bring him in, and to lay him befo him.

19 And when they could not fi by what way they might bring him because of the multitude, they we upon the house top, and let him do through the tiling with his couch in the midst before Jē'sus.

20 And when he saw their fai he said unto him, Man, thy sins a forgiven thee.

21 And the scribes and the Phăr sees began to reason, saying, W is this which speaketh blasphemie Who can forgive sins, but G alone?

22 But when Jē'sus perceived th thoughts, he answering said u them, What reason ye in your hear

23 Whether is easier, to say, T sins be forgiven thee; or to s Rise up and walk?

24 But that ye may know that Son of man hath power upon ea to forgive sins, (he said unto sick of the palsy,) I say unto th Arise, and take up thy couch, and into thine house.

25 And immediately he rose up fore them, and took up that wher he lay, and departed to his h house, glorifying God.

26 And they were all amazed, they glorified God, and were fi with fear, saying, We have s strange things to day.

EXPLANATIONS

The capital letter after each price indicates a classification of titles, though there is inevitably much overlapping in the appeal of the books to readers. The classification is as follows:

T = Fiction, Poetry, Travel and other books of general interest to adult readers.
J = Juvenile books.
C = College text-books, and books similar to them in character.
H = High School text-books.
F = Foreign Language texts and text-books.

Where the price is omitted, the book is in press but not published.

612 HOWARD STREET, SAN FRANCISCO
2500 PRAIRIE AVENUE, CHICAGO
1909 BRYAN STREET, DALLAS

'For more than forty years, the policy of Houghton Mifflin Company has been to publish books of permanent value. A glance at their catalogue shows that inclination toward works of constructive thought and reflection.' —International Book Review.

'Boston has in Houghton Mifflin Company the publishing house that issues a larger number of truly great literary works by American authors than any other house in the country.' — The Cambridge History of American Literature.

¶ In addition to this catalogue we issue the following, which will be sent free upon request:

1. THE PIPER, a bulletin published nearly every month, devoted to the news of the new books, reissues of old books, and information of a miscellaneous character relating to both books and authors.
2. A catalogue and circulars of Educational Books.
3. Special circulars describing individual books or groups of publications on special subjects.

¶ The prices of all books in this catalogue are net. Books marked with an asterisk (*) are educational. Those marked with a dagger (†) are special publications.

¶ Books sent by mail are protected by boards and securely wrapped, and should reach their destination in perfect order. Customers wishing to order a book sent as a gift may send a card containing their name and a dedication or inscription, which will be enclosed in the book and mailed promptly to the desired address.

¶ Volumes described as 32mo, although not in all cases uniform, usually measure 4 inches in width by 5½ inches in height, external dimensions of cover; 18mo, 4⅝×6⅛ inches; 16mo, 4¾×7⅛ inches; 12mo, 5×7⅝ inches; crown 8vo, 5×7¾ inches; large crown 8vo, 5¾×8⅝ inches; 8vo, 6×9 inches; royal 8vo, 7¼×10 inches; 4to, 10×12½ inches; folio, 13×15 inches. Special sizes, such as small 4to, square 8vo, square 16mo, etc., are modifications of the sizes named above.

¶ Messrs. Constable & Co., Limited, 10 Orange Street, Leicester Sq., London, W. C. 2, England, represent the company in England and on the continent.
